

Former NAR President Kenny Parcell's resignation letter to members

August 28, 2023

This letter serves as my resignation as President of the National Association of Realtors. Being elected to this position has been a highlight of my career.

My resignation comes after a series of accusations against me that are categorically false. I am deeply troubled by those looking to tarnish my character and mischaracterize my well-intended actions.

During this experience I've opened myself to listening and looking for ways to improve myself, but all I can do is tell the truth. I've been shocked by these false accusations, hurtful words, whispers and character assassination.

Putting the organization and the Brand first comes with the title of President. Leadership is about making tough choices; this resignation signifies that I will put the organization's needs first to move forward above my own personal needs to stay in this position. I truly appreciate the support and true friendships I have made during my volunteering at NAR.
