

Need of Universal Human Value in Current Lifestyle

 Prof. Shilpa Ban Gosavi*

Introduction

Our ancient Indian Culture was very great. It focused on Cultural, Sanskar, Respect, and Mutual Understanding. All family members was lived together. It helps to develop good generation with respect, Love, Care, Affection. We lost the originality of our human value, fortunately the concept of Universal human value help us for developing human being with moral values. Universal human value Planned for to prepare people for much needed transformation in society. It provide a base for values based life and culture

It fosters creativity and innovation in the true sense. It gives Right direction for day to day living. Nature's law is change. Family members were separated and settled in Various Cities due to their education and Career. Different Changes in Society. People were influenced by different thoughts, impact of selfishness. It impacts on character development, Morality, Empathy etc. Because Family members were the Source of knowledge, moral values. Human lifestyle has been changed.

For achieving not only educational, technical degree as a human being it is necessary to awareness of cultural Value, personal Value. Social Value, Morality etc. For Developing Values in next generation Human Value become compulsory subject for school and college.

These Human Values are Universal, because all over countries of world are same. It is worldwide accepted. Every country follows values. Universal human Values are the ethical principles that are considered to Timeless and universal it promote Peace and Harmony .It is essential for personal And Social Development. They apply to all humans, across all cultures and time periods. It is fundamental and applicable to all human beings regardless of their culture, religion or background. Human value education is a process of teaching and learning moral values, ethics that help individual to lead a responsible and meaningful life. Our values of life which influenced by Society environment.

Value education enables us to understand our needs and visualize our goals correctly and also helps to remove our confusions and bring harmony at all levels. Personal values shape how we live, think, and act. They guide us for our relationships, career decisions. Values such as trust, Respect, Honesty, and care are the foundation of healthy relationships. Human Value education teaches to be compassionate and empathetic towards others. These qualities are essential for building strong interpersonal relationships and addressing social issues. Human values foster a positive working environment and ensure harmonious relationships among people. Societies and nations built on these universal values are stable, sustainable, and characterized by mutual trust, respect, and charm. They play a crucial role in various stages of one's education and career.

It works to foster strong character, improve thinking skills, help resolve conflicts, build emotional ability, and encourage social prosperities, and rights. Human values can be understood by an appropriate process of self –discovery means deciding what is valuable and what is not valuable for you. It refers to the process of instilling moral values, ethics and good behavior in individuals.

Universal human values are the ethical principles that are considered to be fundamental and applicable to all human beings, regardless of their culture, religion, or background. These values, such as love, truth, right conduct, peace, and non-violence, promote harmony, empathy, and cooperation within individuals and society. They are not imposed but rather emerge from our shared human experiences and our innate desire for a better world.

Universal human values are crucial for building a peaceful and sustainable society. They provide a common ground for cooperation and understanding, fostering trust and mutual respect among individuals and communities. By embracing these values, societies can overcome divisions and work towards a better future for all. They are also essential for individual growth and well-being, guiding individuals to live meaningful and fulfilling lives.

Need of Universal Human Value in Current Lifestyle

❖ Nuclear Family:

Family consisting of parents and their children may lack of the support and guidance of extended family members, lack of moral value and Sanskar.

❖ Relationship

Values help build strong & meaningful relationship, they promote empathy, compassion and understanding.

❖ Character Building

Values shape our character and personality. They help us to become Ideal Citizen.

❖ Social Harmony

Human value promotes social harmony and cohesion. They help us live in peace and understanding with others.

❖ Community Building

These Values means Respect, mutual understanding, Cooperation with each other, and foster community building and social cohesion.

❖ Social Justice

Human values like fairness, justice, equality. All are equal for law, it promote peaceful coexistence.

❖ Honesty

Truthfulness and transparency are important in today's world.

❖ Challenge of Social media

Social media can lead to information overloaded and leads to confusions. It promotes comparison and competition. Social media can lead to addiction. It can be breeding ground for cyber bullying and harassment.

Universal human values offer numerous advantages, including promoting individual growth, fostering harmony in relationships, facilitating ethical decision-making, and contributing to societal well-being. These values act as a foundation for personal development, ethical conduct, and the creation of a more just and peaceful world. Modern society faces numerous challenges, from social inequalities to environmental concerns. A universal value like honesty foster trust and transparency, while respect for others, regardless of background, builds bridges and promotes understanding. Compassion and empathy allow individuals to connect with each other on a deeper level, encouraging cooperation and support.

Conclusion

Universal Human Value are the guiding principles that shape individual character and societal structures. By practicing these values, we can create a more positive and fulfilling world for ourselves and future generations.

References:

1. "Universal Human Values" by various authors
2. "Human Values and Education" by S. K. Bhattacharya
3. "The Power of Human Values" by Jagdish Gandhi