

Historical Figures

Name:

Date:

Sojourner Truth

Sojourner Truth was a remarkable person. She was born as Isabella Baumfree around 1797 in Swartekill, New York. She was born into slavery but escaped to freedom with her baby daughter in 1826. She then won a historic court case to recover her son in 1828.

Truth is famous for her work as an abolitionist and women's rights activist. She traveled widely, giving powerful speeches. One of her most famous speeches is "Ain't I a Woman?" given in 1851.

Throughout her life, Sojourner helped recruit black soldiers for the Union Army during the Civil War. After the war, she continued to fight for the rights of African Americans and women.

Sojourner Truth is celebrated for her strength and courage in the fight for freedom and equality. She passed away on November 26, 1883, but her legacy lives on.

My Notes

...

Historical Figures

Name:

Date:

Name

Sojourner Truth

Birth date

Around 1797

Birthplace

Swartekill, New York

Life

Sojourner Truth was born as Isabella Baumfree in Swartekill, New York. She was born into slavery but escaped to freedom with her baby daughter in 1826. In 1828, she won a court case to get her son back. She traveled widely, giving powerful speeches and helping to recruit black soldiers for the Union Army during the Civil War. She continued to fight for the rights of African Americans and women until she passed away on November 26, 1883.

Work

Sojourner Truth worked as an abolitionist and women's rights activist. She gave many speeches and helped recruit black soldiers for the Union Army.

Famous for

She is famous for her work in fighting for freedom and equality, especially her speech "Ain't I a Woman?" given in 1851.

Historical Figures

Name:

Date:

Name

Birth date

Birthplace

Life

Work

Achievement

Famous for

Historical Figures

Name:

Date:

Answer the questions

What was Sojourner Truth's birth name?

- Sarah Thompson Maria Johnson Isabella Baumfree

What famous speech did Sojourner Truth give in 1851?

- "Ain't I a Woman?" "Women's Rights Now" "I Have a Dream"

What did Sojourner Truth help with during the Civil War?

- Taught children Built houses Recruited black soldiers

When did Sojourner Truth pass away?

- November 26, 1883 July 4, 1875 March 15, 1890