

Dr. Christian Marzinik appointed new Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of the S.OLIVER GROUP

Rottendorf, 19.07.2024 – s.Oliver announces successor for departing CFO

Dr. Christian Marzinik will become the new Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of the S.OLIVER GROUP on August 1, 2024. In his successful career to date, Dr. Marzinik has distinguished himself through extensive expertise in leading companies in the retail and fashion industries. Most recently, as CFO of Sport Scheck GmbH, he headed the areas of Finance, Controlling, HR, IT, Organization, Supply Chain, Legal and Auditing, and was significantly involved in the restructuring and integration of the companies Sport Scheck and Sport Scheck Stationär. Dr. Marzinik: "I am looking forward to becoming part of the S.OLIVER GROUP and supporting the company in its upcoming growth phase."

The current CFO, Kai Bauknecht, will leave the company at the end of August 2024 by his own wish, after handing over his duties, to take on a new challenge. "As CFO, Kai Bauknecht has made a decisive contribution to the turnaround of the S.OLIVER GROUP in recent months. We regret his decision to leave the company, thank him for the many years of good cooperation and wish him all the best for his professional and private future," says Bernd Freier.

In the future, the management of the S.OLIVER GROUP will consist of Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO) Thomas Lurz, Chief Financial Officer (CFO) Dr. Christian Marzinik, Chief Operating Officer (COO) Thomas Rothe and Chief Customer Officer (CCO) Carsten Schmitz.
