

Volunteer

We are recruiting Reading Hack volunteers to support with reading and craft activities throughout Stockport Libraries.

Main purpose- To support, promote and deliver reading and digital activities to children and young people in Stockport Libraries.

What would I be doing?	You may be doing some of the following:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Develop ideas and strategies to encourage young people to read and be enthused about visiting the library</li> <li>• Help to lead and generate event and activity sessions in the library</li> <li>• Become involved with national initiatives such as the Summer Reading Challenge, National Libraries week, Fun Palaces.</li> <li>• Be a book mentor and promote books, reading and authors to children and young people</li> <li>• Be involved in planning and delivering activities for children and young people during holiday periods</li> <li>• Help young people with book selection</li> </ul>
When can I do my volunteering?	At a time and library to suit you. Saturdays, after-school and school holidays will be the most popular times.
Where will I be volunteering?	This opportunity is available at any library in Stockport
Who will be there with me?	Library staff who will be co-ordinating the events and activities
Training, resources and information	You will be given appropriate training and support There will be a 12 week trial period
Am I right for this role?	This opportunity would suit someone who is aged 13-24 and : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Enjoys books, reading and libraries</li> <li>• Likes organising and promoting events</li> <li>• Has good communication skills</li> <li>• Is enthusiastic about working with children and young people</li> <li>• Is interested in digital media</li> </ul>
What will I get from volunteering?	Some of the benefits from becoming a Reading Hack are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Building skills</li> <li>• Valuable experience to add to your CV</li> <li>• Meet new people</li> <li>• Have a fun, rewarding experience by helping others enjoy reading</li> </ul>