What is a

Virtual School?

The Virtual School is a team of teachers and support staff who work for and with looked after children and young people in education

What do we do?

- » We make sure that your Personal Education Plan (PEP) will help you to achieve your potential.
- » We talk to your school, your college, your social worker and your carer to find out how you are doing.
- » We talk with you, to find out how things are going.
- » If you need extra help at school or college, one of our team could come and work with you.
- » This support could be in the classroom, in a small group or one-to-one.
- » We can help you with resources to support your education, e.g. maths equipment, study guides.
- » If you move school or college, we will help you, your carer and social worker find a new one that is right for you.
- » If you are finding it difficult to go to school or college, we will do our best to encourage and support your return.

The Headteacher is Andrea Cox

What else do you need to know?

- » In your school or college there will be a teacher who has special responsibility for looked after young people.
- » This is the designated teacher for looked after children and young people.
- » Every looked after young person must have a PEP.
- » Your school, college or employer and social worker will write the PEP, with your help.
- » You are entitled to a copy of your PEP.

If you have any questions about your education, do get in touch.
We want to hear from you!

You can either attend your PEP meeting or you can tell your designated teacher or your social worker or your carer what you feel about school or college. It is very important to make sure that you are able to have your say.
