

Cheadle Towns Fund – Board Membership:

	Brian Bradley Board Chair IN Accountancy – Director – Local private sector business Brian is the Accounts and Advisory Director at IN Accountancy who are award winning accountants based in Stockport. He is the current Chair of Cheadle Towns Fund Board and has previously been the Stockport President of Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce as well as Chair of Audit Committee at Stockport College. Brian is also a key member of the Stockport Economic Alliance. The Economic Alliance represents the key employers of the town, and their role includes oversight of the Stockport Economic Plan which aims to grow Stockport's economy to create and support businesses that are stronger, resilient and productive.
	Cllr David Mellor Board Member Councillor, Cheadle East and Cheadle Hulme North I have sat on the Cheadle Town Fund board since its inception back in January 2020 as a ward councillor within the fund's boundary. I initially proposed the ideas for the business park and railway station under my role as the then Cabinet Member for Economy and Regeneration. Throughout this time, I have enjoyed working cross-party and cross-community to help deliver two major projects that, I feel, will bring significant benefits for my residents, Cheadle and Stockport as a whole.
	Cllr Ian Hunter Board Member Councillor, Cheadle West and Gatley Until recently Ian was Head of Marketing for Europe at Fujitsu, In this role he drove innovation, managed an international team of 100 and steered the business through repeated challenges from Covid to the Post Office scandal.

	Since retiring from Fujitsu Ian has been a Councillor in Cheadle, he has been using his skills to champion the High Street and support the local residents.
