CASTELLO DI SOLOMEO

CASTELLO DI SOLOMEO

Castello di Solomeo is fashion designer Brunello Cucinelli's new wine project. It realizes the cult Italian designer's dream of championing and preserving the hamlet of Solomeo – the special place that he calls home.

Solomeo embodies this philosophy – an Umbrian hamlet that Brunello Cucinelli has poured his soul into. Between Florence and Rome in Umbria, the Solomeo winery and vineyard are part of a larger project that began in 2010, under the name Project for Beauty. After devoting three decades to restoring the hamlet, the Cucinelli family began salvaging the valley below Solomeo, next to the fashion company's headquarters. It is here that Cucinelli planted vines in 2011. The first vintage of the wine is 2018, set to be released in 2023.

The wine is a Super Tuscan style blend, combining Bordeaux varieties (Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Merlot) with native Sangiovese.

Vintage	Wine Name	Size (OWC)	Type	HKD/ Unit
2018	Castella di Solomeo	3 x 75cl	Red wine	$10,080
2018	Castella di Solomeo	1 x 150cl	Red wine	$7,700

VENISSA: THE GOLDEN WINE OF VENICE

A unique terroir on an island in the Venice Lagoon

Tenuta Venissa is a remarkable winery based in the Venice lagoon on the island of Mazzorbo. The winery is owned and run by the Bisol family (of Prosecco fame) which has pioneered the winemaking revival in the region.

Gianluca Bisol was inspired to establish the winery after he discovered the last few vines of Dorona di Venezia – an indigenous white-skinned variety that was almost wiped out by the floods of 1966. Armed with these rare cuttings from a private garden, Bisol planted a vineyard on the island of Mazzorbo in the early 2000s. He produced the first vintage of Venissa Bianco (100% Dorona) in 2010.

In 2011, the estate started producing a red, Venissa Rosso, which is mainly Merlot blended with a portion of Cabernet Sauvignon, sourced from the nearby island of Santa Cristina.

The wines come in bespoke, hand-blown glass bottles from the neighbouring island of Murano (all 50cl, rather than the standard 75cl), labelled with individual gold-leaf designs created for each vintage.

70cl	CUBANA	Bloomsbury Atelier	$2,500

Introducing Bloomsbury Atelier CUBANA - the first in a series of geographical spirits from the Creative House of the Bloomsbury Distillery. This unique distillery searches for experiences across the globe, combining beautiful flavours and their geographies to create incredible spirits that resist definition.

This inaugural Bloomsbury Atelier spirit, CUBANA, is number one in a series of enigmatic releases distilled in London. It is an ode to Caribbean fermentation, a distillation of the Cuban cigar, its flavours and key ingredients from those seas and shores. CUBANA distils the spirit of a journey and the power of its findings - its materials.
