COLOUR FORECAST
 2022

The world has changed, and we have changed with it. With new freedoms on the horizon, there is a desire to be bold, expressive, seek new experiences and, most importantly, discover a new-found sense of calm as we embrace our new future.

We have a fresh appreciation for the importance of good design and choose to surround ourselves with things that are not just beautiful but enhance our wellbeing and quality of life.

The Dulux Colour Forecast for 2022 comprises three exciting palettes drawn from our environment that feature rich, earthy tones and natural textures, alongside joyful, summery hues that awaken our zest for life.

Davina researches colour trends for Dulux and has a passion for colour and its ability to completely transform a space. She loves seeing how colour can be used as a powerful tool to not only help identify spaces and define functional areas but to add personality and have a positive effect on our wellbeing.

Bree collaborates closely with Davina to help create the latest colour trends and produces and styles the images, bringing the trend palettes to life. Bree is passionate about interpreting interior trends into beautifully styled spaces that are aesthetically appealing and rich in narrative.

FLOURISH

The Flourish palette features rich, sensual hues such as petrol blue, desert red and dusty rose alongside warm neutrals and a pop of vintage gold.

The Flourish palette speaks to our new-found sense of adventure and passion for life. Interiors are layered, expressive and unapologetically individual, with decadent fabrics such as velvet.

Wonder

The Wonder palette reflects our desire to be less serious and welcome fun back into our lives. Colours are playful, summery and 80s-inspired.

Unexpected combinations emphasise the whimsical nature of this look; quaint florals with eclectic colour and checks paired with sleek, contemporary furniture; needlepoint cushions and ribbed glass; or woven rattan furniture set against a wall of candy stripes.

Restore

The Restore palette consists of naturals and neutrals; buttercream, pumice, deep blue, clay, rich forest green, moss and charcoal-purple.

Comfort is the priority when it comes to decorating our homes. Cozy and cocooning pieces help us relax and provide a tactile experience along with natural fibres and materials, such as raw timber, unstructured linen and textured stone.
