Scalable, secured eDiscovery hosting solutions around the globe

In 2014, we made the decision to move our eDiscovery technologies into the Microsoft® Azure™ cloud environment. The goal was for our customers to benefit from enhanced, infrastructure scalability, better disaster recovery options, higher performance and lower costs.

Today, we host our full portfolio of cloud-based eDiscovery technology solutions, including Relativity and our Infrastructure-as-a-Service (IaaS) solution, within our Microsoft® Azure™ cloud environment. We also now have access to 54 functional eDiscovery data centers with permanent service offerings in the US, Canada and Europe.

Stay in compliance with data residency requirements

Through our partnership with Microsoft® Azure™, we can provide in-country review across 54 data centers around the globe to comply with your security and data residency requirements. And the process is fast! Your local Relativity environment with access to terabytes of storage can be operational within 72 hours.

Ricoh also provides data security assurances through Microsoft® Azure™ security specialists and encryption processes, which automatically encrypts data prior to storage and decrypts on demand – all in a way that's fully transparent to users.

Why Ricoh for your hosting needs?

- Cost-effective access to Ricoh's secured Microsoft® Azure™ cloud environment
- On-demand scalability around the globe to meet data residency requirements
- Advanced support when needed from our experts
- Around-the-clock availability
- Demonstrable cost savings

Ricoh's Infrastructure-as-a-Service

Ricoh's IaaS solution is hosted within Microsoft® Azure™ giving you access to our secured, robust and scalable cloud environment, supported by our team of experts who specialize in managing the complex infrastructure required for your legal applications.

We can have your infrastructure set up quickly and the scalability of the cloud will save you the capital expense of on-premise servers and storage. You only pay for what you're using during each case.

And, because we control our own Microsoft® Azure™ environment we can offer you an extra layer of support and take your needs into consideration for scheduled downtime and updates.
