8.3 Should a disability assistance attendant be required at Stockholm Arlanda Airport for helping a Passenger with a disability to get to and from Arlanda express' platforms to a respective terminal and airline, the Traffic Officer must be notified prior to departure or while onboard the train, in connection with the inspection of the Travel Vouchers.

8.7 More detailed information to individuals with disabilities or reduced mobility regarding their possibilities to travel, the accessibility of the traffic services, and the possibilities to get on and off the train can be obtained via Arlanda express' customer service.

9 COMPENSATION FOR DELAYS

Arlanda express' travel time guarantee

- 9.1 If an Arlanda express train, for whatever reason, arrives at the Final Destination (i.e. Stockholm Arlanda Airport or Stockholm Central Station) in such time that the Passenger experiences a Delay of more than five minutes, the Passenger has the right to have a new Travel Voucher issued (for a corresponding trip).

Compensation for traffic delays

- 9.2 In case of Delay, a Passenger may claim compensation in accordance with Sections 9.3 – 9.7 below. However, if a new Travel Voucher has been issued to the Passenger according to Arlanda express' travel time guarantee (set out in Section 9.1 above), the Passenger is not entitled to also claim other compensation, for the same Delay, in accordance with Sections 9.3 – 9.7. To be eligible for compensation in accordance with Sections 9.3 – 9.7, a Passenger must plan their Trip in such a manner that the Passenger arrives at the Final Destination well ahead of the time it must change to any connecting journey. In addition to what is set out below, the special travel terms and conditions for resplus journeys also apply to a Passenger travelling on a resplus ticket (see Section 1.5 for a link to the terms and conditions applicable for resplus tickets).

Compensation according to Sections 9.3 – 9.6 complies with the provisions of the Swedish Act on the Rights of Public Transport Passengers (2015:953). A-Train thereby (except for certain special regulations related to trips with resplus tickets) fulfils its statutory obligations to provide compensation. Compensation for Delays that is offered according section 9.7 is usually in addition to what A-Train is legally obligated to offer Passengers in case of a Delay.

Actual Delays exceeding 20 minutes

- 9.3 If a Passenger arrives at its Final Destination with a Delay of more than 20 minutes, the Passenger is, provided that no claim is made for compensation under Section 9.4 for anticipated Delay, or under Arlanda express' travel time guarantee in Section 9.1, entitled to a price reduction and refund in accordance with the following:
- a) 50 per cent of the fare that the Passenger has paid for the Trip, if the Delay is more than 20 minutes,
  - b) 75 per cent of the fare that the Passenger has paid for the Trip, if the Delay is more than 40 minutes, and
  - c) the full amount of the fare that the Passenger has paid for the Trip, if the Delay is more than 60 minutes.

Anticipated Delays of 20 minutes or more

9.4 If there are reasonable grounds to assume that a Trip will lead to a Delay by more than 20 minutes, the Passenger is entitled to compensation for reasonable costs for other transport to reach its Final Destination (i.e. either Stockholm Arlanda Airport or Stockholm Central Station). This also applies in the absence of an agreement on transport for the Trip that is anticipated to be Delayed, if the Passenger has made specific arrangements to travel with Arlanda express (have appeared on the platform prior to departure).

9.5 If the Passenger has not paid for the Trip, A-Train may deduct the cost that would have been incurred by the Passenger if it had paid for the Trip. The starting point is that the cost that would have been incurred by the Passenger is the current fare for a single Adult ticket. If it turns out that the Passenger, when claiming compensation from A-Train, was a Child, Youth or Pensioner when the Delay occurred, the actual fare for a single Child, Youth or Pensioner ticket will be deducted instead.

The maximum amount of compensation per Passenger for an anticipated Delay under Section 9.4 is 1/40 of the price base amount pursuant to Chapter 2, Section 7 of the Social Insurance Code of the year that the Trip should have been completed.

9.6 Compensation for other transport in the event of an anticipated Delay is paid for the means of transportation that would have been a satisfactory alternative for the Passenger (such as taxi or airport bus).

In order to receive compensation under this Section 9.6, the Passenger must submit its receipts to A-Train.

A Delay that leads to the Passenger being stuck on the train for 50 minutes or longer

9.7 If the Trip, from when the train has left the platform, takes more than 50 minutes to reach the Final Destination, a Passenger onboard such Delayed train, is entitled to:

a) the fare, or some of the fare, that the Passenger has paid for the Trip in accordance with Section 9.3, alternatively a new ticket according to Arlanda express' travel time guarantee (Section 9.1),

b) compensation for the actual, reasonable additional costs incurred by rebooking a ticket for connecting transport (for a connecting trip with the same type of transport to the intended end destination) from Stockholm Arlanda Airport or Stockholm Central Station, or the cost of a new ticket for the same connecting transport (please note that special terms and conditions apply for a journey with a resplus ticket), and

c) compensation for actual, reasonable additional costs in the form of meals and non-alcoholic beverages, in reasonable proportion to the waiting time at the Final Destination, and accommodation in a hotel or hostel when a stay over one or more nights are necessary.

In order to receive compensation under this Section 9.7, the Passenger must submit tickets and receipts to A-Train.

The maximum amount of compensation per Passenger under this Section 9.7 is 3/10 of the price base amount pursuant to Chapter 2, Section 7 of the Social Insurance Code of the year that the Trip should have been completed. When paying compensation for meals and beverages, A-Train uses the Swedish Tax Agency's provisions for expenses to determine what constitutes actual, reasonable additional costs, but also accounts for the cost situation at the specific location, such as Stockholm Arlanda Airport.

10 GENERAL LIABILITY

A-Train's liability

- 10.1 A-Train is liable for damage arising as a result of the decease or physical or psychological damage due to an accident related to the operations of the rail service, and which occurs while the Passenger is onboard, or boarding or leaving the Arlanda express train. A-Train is not liable for damage occurring before or after the Passenger has travelled with the train (such as damage that occurs in connection with the use of escalators, elevators or any other contexts unrelated to the operation of the rail service).
- 10.2 A-Train is not liable for damage as set out in Section 10.1:
- a) if the accident was caused by circumstances not attributable to the actual operation of the rail service and which A-Train could not have avoided or prevented, even if A-Train exercised the care required by the circumstances,
  - b) to the extent that the accident was due to the fault or negligence by the Passenger,
  - c) if the accident was due to the behaviour of a third party that A-Train could not have avoided or prevented the consequences of, even if A-Train exercised the care required by the circumstances. A different company that use the same infrastructure shall not be regarded as a third party. The right of recourse from third parties shall not be impacted.
- 10.3 For property carried by the Passenger, or luggage accompanying the Passenger onboard the train, that is lost or damaged and that has no relation to personal injury, A-Train will only be responsible if the fault or negligence is attributable to A-Train. The responsibility hereof is limited to half of the price base amount, unless A-Train wilfully caused the damage or acted in a grossly negligent manner. However, full-value compensation will be paid for lost or damaged aids specifically customised for disabilities.
- 10.4 A-Train is not liable for damage which the Passenger may suffer due to the Passenger's negligence of the train's departure time, due to the Passenger boarding the wrong train or carriage or due to the Passenger's failure to leave the train at his/her designated station. Further, A-Train is not liable for the damage the Passenger may experience due to not taking the time to change to any potential connecting journey into account.

10.5 A-Train is in no event liable for any loss of business, loss of profit or otherwise for indirect or consequential damages.

10.6 A-Trains liability for Delays are set out in Section 9.

The Passenger's liability

10.7 The Passenger is liable for any damage incurred by A-Train, or another Passenger (including their property), which is caused by the Passenger by intent or by negligence. The Passenger is also liable for personal injury and damage to property caused by its luggage. This also applies if the luggage is placed in such a manner that the Passenger is unable to keep it under supervision.

Withdrawal from agreement regarding purchase of Travel Voucher loaded with multiple tickets (e.g. the travel pass "resepotten").

10.8 The Passenger may, during the validity period of the Travel Voucher, withdraw from the agreement concerning the purchase of a Travel Voucher loaded with multiple tickets (for example the travel pass "resepotten") if Arlanda express' traffic offering is changed, after the purchase, in a manner that deviates from what the Passenger had reason to assume at the time of the purchase and the deviation is of material importance to the Passenger. If a Passenger withdraws from the agreement regarding the purchase of a Travel Voucher loaded with multiple tickets, the Passenger is entitled to a refund of the portion of the price of the Travel Voucher pertaining to the remaining, non-used, tickets loaded on the Travel Voucher.

11 COMPLAINTS, CLAIMS FOR COMPENSATION, AND SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Complaints

11.1 The Passenger has a right to compensation for certain expenses due to disturbances in the train service, see Section 9 above. The Passenger may claim compensation in accordance with Section 9 only if the Passenger notifies A-Train about his/her intention to invoke a Delay (claim) within a reasonable time after the completion of the Trip, or the time when the Trip should have been completed if the transportation service had been performed. A notice submitted within three months after the completion of the Trip, or the time that it should have been completed, is always considered to be as a timely submission. If a complaint notification has been sent in an appropriate manner, the complaint is deemed to have been made at the time of its submission.

11.2 As a starting point, any other complaints shall be submitted in writing to Arlanda express' customer service within a reasonable time, but no later than three (3) months after completion of the Trip.

Making a claim for compensation

- 11.3 A Passenger wishing to receive compensation in cash from A-Train shall indicate the amount requested and provide information regarding what type of cost or damage the compensation is requested for, e.g. for journey with other means of transportation, damaged luggage, or expenses for hotel accommodation and, if A-Train requests, provide information about any potential insurance cover. The Passenger shall prove that the cost/damage has been incurred by the Passenger and the amount of it, preferably through providing its receipts. The extent of the damage must be proved in the same way. A-Train reserves the right to estimate the damage and costs to a reasonable amount if the Passenger cannot prove the extent of the cost/damage and the amount of compensation is not determined by law.
- 11.4 With regards to reasonable costs for other transport to reach the Final Destination, A-Train compensates travel with own car (for the route between Stockholm Central Station and Stockholm Arlanda Airport) in accordance with the Swedish Tax Authority's standard for business travels with own car, unless the Passenger can prove a higher, and justifiable, cost than the standard.
- 11.5 Compensation is paid to a credit or debit card, or via a bank transfer. For tickets purchased via Arlanda express' website or app, the refund is preferably made to the credit or debit card used to pay for the Trip.
- 11.6 Information regarding how and where the Passenger can claim compensation from A-Train is provided by all points of sales for Arlanda express.

Settlement of disputes

- 11.7 Should the parties be unable to resolve the disputes concerning the interpretation or application of the Travel Terms and Conditions, the dispute may be resolved by a general court.
- 11.8 As a consumer, you can also refer a claim for alternative dispute resolution as follows:
- You can report a dispute or disagreement in connection with the Travel Terms and Conditions or our services to the National Board for Consumer Disputes \(Sw. Allmänna Reklamationsnämnden\) (postal address: P.O. Box 174, SE-101 23, Stockholm, Sweden); or
