

Title: Social Conscious Leadership of Global Impact

Affiliation: Keynote Women North America Leader

UNICEF Unite USA – Orlando

Exquisite International Magazine

Manila Up International Magazine

Business Booster Magazine

TOFA (The Most Outstanding Filipino American) Award top 10 in 2020, top 100 in a decade

Gawad America Multiple Award Winner

Named 1 of the top 60 Most Influential Filipino Americans in the USA

INTRODUCTION:

In a world that was thrown into chaos, silence and having to pivot or reinvent processes, policies and life as a whole, against an invisible enemy came the focus of something authentically that no longer be ignored.

Covid rendered the blue check marks on social media - that validity of someone's public figure status- useless. Instead, the very same message I have keynoted in several platforms, in many countries, stages, media messages came to critical realized fruition and truancy more than ever.

What is the value of human life? We live in a world that propagandas value = net worth = your importance = happiness & fulfilment, yet the entire globe proved the opposite in the new normal. Remember that toilet paper... not the Chanel bag gathering dust in the closet, became the rare commodity (forget the fact there are simple hygiene methods beyond TP that were available should it have really gotten bad) that people fought over.

I'm not saying wealth is bad. Wealth utilized for good and to serve good is beautiful.

Calamities called others to create movements that called for justice, equality and the plea to stop crimes of racial hate or intolerance.

I was around 12 years old when my own life was thrown into a maddening chaos, my family's life under threat over a murder of a relative living with us who wanted to tell the people about a government corruption he learned about. I went from having a "dream life" into a life of having to disappear from my own birthland almost overnight, leaving everything we owned. From a life of comfort to a life of pain, discomfort,

Falling in the typical predictable routine of going to work in the corporate field and when GOD continues to point to your true north of what may seem impossible and those very platforms of past traumas along the way paved the very way for a life of powerful purpose and presence to become a transformational catalyst.. with global impact and proven solid results. Dubbed now as "someone who moves Nations".

You'll hear about how one event she launched – faith activated – saved over 20,000 lives.

You'll hear about how that journey led her to start a volunteer team that ended up representing 192 countries in children global advocacy.

AIM:

: Audience / Participants will realized the difference between living in inspiration mode versus a life of maximizing potential into transformation and impact

: How Partnership with a proven Mentor/Coach who has done what has been said is more changes your trajectory – evidence of "receipts" to becoming into their next level.

: Unmasking the scripts and labels and thinking global. Change of outlook leads to changing the outcome. The power of changing of changing outlook equals the change of outcome.

Materials /Methods:

High Level one on one coaching via goal mapping and PNA Strategies.

Multi- Media Exposure – Maximize your story.

Corporate consultations.

Speaking on Global Platforms.

Joining Humanitarian Advocacy platforms.

KEYWORDS:

Transformation. Global Impact. Media. Award Winner. Keynote Speaker. Coach.
Humanitarian. Social Conscious Leadership. Author. International Best-Selling Author. Faith.
Leadership. Empowerment. Women Empowerment.

BIOGRAPHY:

Global Influencer Transformation Catalyst Socially-Responsible Entrepreneur

Melody Garcia is an International Best-Selling Author, Award-Winning Sought-After Global Keynote Speaker, Thought Leader, Writer, International Media Icon, and one of the few certified PNA (Psycho-Neuro Actualization) coaches in the world who maximizes the human potential. Melody is also recognized as one of the most influential Filipino-Americans in the USA, winning coveted title of TOFA (the most outstanding Filipino-Americans) top 10 in 2020 and top 100 of the decade along with names of Bruno Mars, H.E.R, and the co-founder of snapchat and more. Out of 4.1 million Filipinos in the USA- she was selected as 1 of the 10, and her list of accolades is long. She was recently named and selected as the Leader of Keynote Women Speakers in charge of the entire North America Division (yes continent!).

With over 20 years in Fortune 100 Corporate Management and Leadership, Melody has a proven track record of building winning teams, business processes, coaching, development and mentorship, and extensive experience in hiring practices call center management and more! She has extensive leadership certifications and high-ranking accolades that boast of her winning mindset and expertise. Her entrepreneurial spirit, combined with top executive commercial industry expertise, gives her a lethal edge in a visionary focus, balancing microscopic attention to detail and macroscopic implementation for increased revenues, connectivity and staying power of any marketplace.

Her International-Best Selling and critically- acclaimed book, Women Who Influence was recently accepted into the US Library of Congress in March 2018.

Led by her humanitarian heart, Melody founded the 14th Congressional advocacy team for UNICEF. Known as UNICEF Unite, it is based in Orlando, Florida and represents 190 countries in global advocacy platforms. She also launched One Night, One Voice, an event that impacted over 20,000 lives across the globe and has been deeply involved with other philanthropic and humanitarian endeavors.

An international multi-media powerhouse, Melody's award-winning articles, podcast and TV show exposed her to increased global connectivity and reach. Melody has had the incredible opportunity of securing world-exclusive interviews with iconic influencers and globally-renowned figures such as Trent Shelton, Dr. Steve Maraboli, and Kelly Wright - just to name a few. Dynamically, she also expanded Manila Up! International Magazine by increasing distribution to five additional countries, in addition to its already existing national and foreign markets. Melody also launched her podcast titled Life Unscripted, now currently on iTunes, Spotify and i-Heart Radio.

Melody is a global speaker, polarizing her audience across international auditoriums and stages with her platform messages and has represented the USA as a keynote speaker in London, Dubai, India, etc. She was also the featured keynote closing speaker at Harvard University. She has met with the Dalai lama, the Ambassador Princess of Morocco, the US congress and other global leaders to address important critical humanitarian decisions. She shared the stage with World's Greatest Motivational Speaker Les Brown; additionally, she has shared empowerment platforms on the United State of Women with Michelle Obama, Jane Fonda, Tanara Burke and other iconic legends. Simply put: her messages drives people to global change, massive actions and standing ovations.