

The German Institute for Global and Area Studies (GIGA) / Leibniz-Institut für Globale und Regionale Studien seeks to hire a

Student Assistant (m/f/d)

to support the research project “Research Support for the Special Initiative Training and Job Creation (RéUsSITE)” for 9 hours per week for at least 6 months, remuneration: EUR 10,77 per hour. The RéUsSITE project provides research support to the BMZ and implementing institutions by investigating the effects of important representative approaches used in the Special Initiative regarding investment and productive employment. The student assistant will support the research team in preparing and carrying out rigorous impact evaluations of job training programs in West Africa. Currently, the majority of work is required to be performed remotely.

Tasks:

- Conduct literature research
- Support research team in drafting relevant documents
- Edit questionnaires and program them in SurveyCTO
- Support research team in cleaning data and producing descriptive statistics

Requirements:

- Master student in economics (preferably with a focus on development economics) or other relevant discipline
- Familiarity with MS Office is required, prior experience with STATA and/or data collection software (SurveyCTO, ODK) would be an asset.
- Full working proficiency in English; French and German would be an asset.
- Team spirit, ability to work independently, and longer-run commitment

Interested applicants are kindly requested to email their full application as ONE PDF FILE (short cover letter, CV, summary of academic achievements) to:

Tabea Lakemann
German Institute for Global and Area Studies (GIGA)
Neuer Jungfernstieg 21
20354 Hamburg

E-Mail: tabea.lakemann@giga-hamburg.de

Screening of applications begins on February 15th, and applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

The German Institute for Global and Area Studies (GIGA) / Leibniz Institut für Globale und Regionale Studien is an independent social science research institute based in Hamburg. It analyses political, social, and economic developments in Africa, Asia, Latin America, and the Middle East, linking this knowledge to questions of global significance. It combines region-specific analysis with innovative comparative research on accountability and participation, growth and development, peace and security, and power and ideas. Further information:

www.giga-hamburg.de