4 GENERAL PROVISIONS

4.1 Entire Agreement

The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between DIR and Successful Respondent. No statement, promise, condition, understanding, inducement, or representation, oral or written, expressed or implied, which is not contained in the Contract is binding or valid.

Customers shall execute a Purchase Agreement with Successful Respondent to purchase products or services under the Contract. The Contract and the Purchase Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the Customer and Successful Respondent. No statement, promise, condition, understanding, inducement, or representation, oral or written, expressed or implied, which is not contained in the Contract or the Purchase Agreement is binding or valid.

4.2 Modification of Contract Terms and Amendments

- (a) The terms and conditions of the Contract shall govern all transactions by Customers under the Contract.
- (b) The parties to the Contract may only modify or amend the Contract upon mutual written agreement signed by authorized representatives of both DIR and Successful Respondent.
- (c) Notwithstanding Section 4.2(b) above, DIR reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to unilaterally, upon thirty (30) calendar days written notice to Successful Respondent without the Successful Respondent's written consent or signature, amend the Contract prior to award and throughout the term of the Contract to incorporate any modifications necessary for DIR's compliance with all applicable state and federal laws, regulations, requirements, and guidelines, or to satisfy a procedural change due to DIR system upgrades or additions.
- (d) Customers do not have authority to modify the terms of the Contract. However, the Master Cooperative Contract authorizes Additional Agreements that do not conflict with the Contract and that are acceptable to both Customer and Successful Respondent to be added in a Purchase Agreement and given effect. No Additional Agreement added in a Purchase Agreement can conflict with or diminish a term or condition of the Contract. In the event of a conflict between a Purchase Agreement and the Contract, the Contract controls.
- (e) Customer and Successful Respondent will negotiate and enter into written agreements regarding Statements of Work, service level agreements, remedies, acceptance criteria, information confidentiality, security requirements, limitation of liability (if any), and other terms specific to their Purchase Agreements under the Contract.

4.3 Invalid Term or Condition

- (a) To the extent any term or condition of the Contract conflicts with an applicable state or United States law or regulation, that Contract term or condition is void and unenforceable. By executing a Contract which contains the conflicting term or condition, DIR makes no representations or warranties regarding the enforceability of the term or condition and DIR does not waive the applicable state or United States law or regulation which conflicts with the Contract term or condition.

(b) If a term or condition in the Contract, or the application of a term or condition to any party or circumstance, is held invalid, unenforceable, or illegal in any respect by a final judgment or order of the State Office of Administrative Hearings or a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of the Contract and the application of the term or condition to other parties or circumstances remains valid and in full force and effect.

4.4 Assignment

(a) DIR may assign the Contract or its rights and obligations under the Contract without prior written approval to: i) a successor in interest (another state agency as designated by the Texas Legislature) or ii) as necessary to satisfy a regulatory requirement imposed upon a party by a governing body with the appropriate authority.

(b) A Customer may assign a Purchase Agreement issued under the Contract or its rights and obligations under the Purchase Agreement without prior written approval to: i) a successor in interest (another state agency as designated by the Texas Legislature) or ii) as necessary to satisfy a regulatory requirement imposed upon a party by a governing body with the appropriate authority.

(c) Successful Respondent shall not assign or delegate the Contract or its rights or obligations under the Contract, including by operation of law or through a change in control, without prior written approval from DIR. Any attempted assignment or delegation in violation of this provision is null and void and has no effect.

(d) Successful Respondent shall not assign or delegate a Purchase Agreement or its rights or obligations under the Purchase Agreement, including by operation of law or through a change in control, without prior written approval from the Customer. Any attempted assignment or delegation in violation of this provision is null and void and has no effect.

4.5 Survival

(a) All Purchase Agreements shall survive the expiration or termination of the Contract for the term of the Purchase Agreement, unless the Customer terminates the Purchase Agreement sooner. However, regardless of the term of the Purchase Agreement, no Purchase Agreement shall survive the expiration or termination of the Contract for more than three (3) years (the "Survival Term").

(b) In all instances of expiration or termination of the Contract, Successful Respondent shall continue to report all sales and pay the DIR Administrative Fees for the duration of the Survival Term. For the avoidance of doubt, Successful Respondent shall report even in months where sales are $0.

(c) Any provision of this Contract that contemplates performance or observance subsequent to any termination or expiration of this Agreement shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement and continue in full force and effect. Additionally, all provisions of this Agreement shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement to the fullest extent necessary to give the Parties the full benefit of the bargain expressed herein.

The following provisions are among those that survive termination of the Contract or a Purchase Agreement:

- (1) Contract Section 5, and Section 10.4 of this Appendix A regarding the DIR Administrative Fee, and any and all payment obligations for which invoices were provided to Customer prior to the termination or expiration of the Contract;
- (2) Section 4.10, Warranty and Return Policies;
- (3) Section 4.12, Nonsolicitation of State Employees;
- (4) Section 5, Intellectual Property;
- (5) Section 6, Data Terms;
- (6) Section 13, Indemnification and Liability;
- (7) Section 10.4, Required Reports;
- (8) Section 10.5: Records and Audit;
- (9) Sections 12.6 and 12.7 regarding Rights Upon Termination;
- (10) Section 14; Required Insurance Coverage; and
- (11) Section 15.7, Confidentiality and the Public Information Act.

4.6 Choice of Law

The Contract is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to the conflicts of law provisions.

4.7 Compliance with Laws

Successful Respondent shall comply with all laws and regulations applicable to the Contract and to the goods and services purchased under the Contract through a Purchase Agreement, as these laws and regulations currently exist and may be amended throughout the term of the Contract and any applicable Purchase Agreement.

4.8 Limitation of Authority

Successful Respondent has no authority to act for or on behalf of DIR or the State except as expressly provided for in the Contract; no other authority, power or use is granted or implied. Successful Respondent may not incur any debts, obligations, expenses, or liabilities of any kind on behalf of the State or DIR.

4.9 Independent Contractor

Successful Respondent agrees and acknowledges that during the existence of the Contract and any resulting Purchase Agreements, it is furnishing services in the capacity of an independent contractor and that Successful Respondent and its personnel are not employees of the Customer, DIR, or the State of Texas.

4.10 Warranty and Return Policies

Customers may provide written notice to Successful Respondent of errors, inaccuracies, or other deficiencies in products or services provided by Successful Respondent under a Purchase Agreement within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of an Invoice for the products or services. Successful Respondent shall correct the error, inaccuracy, or other deficiency at no additional cost to Customer.

In addition to the minimum warranty provided above, Successful Respondent shall adhere to Successful Respondent's then-currently published policies concerning warranties and returns. Warranty and return policies offered to Customers shall not be more restrictive or more costly than warranty and return policies for other similarly situated customers for similar products and services.

4.11 Force Majeure

DIR, Customer, or Successful Respondent may be excused from performance under the Contract or a Purchase Agreement for any period when performance is prevented as the result of an act of God, strike, war, civil disturbance, epidemic, court order, or other causes that are beyond the reasonable control of either party and that by exercise of due foresight such party could not reasonably have been expected to avoid, and which, by the exercise of all reasonable due diligence, such party is unable to overcome (each such event, an "Event of Force Majeure"), on the condition that the party experiencing an Event of Force Majeure has prudently and promptly acted to take all steps that are within the party's control to ensure performance and to shorten the duration or impact of the Event of Force Majeure. The party suffering an Event of Force Majeure shall provide notice of the Event to the other parties when commercially reasonable. Subject to this Section, non-performance due to an Event of Force Majeure shall not be deemed a default or a ground for termination. However, a Customer may terminate a Purchase Agreement if Customer determines that Successful Respondent will not be able to deliver services in a timely manner to meet the business needs of the Customer. Upon request by DIR or Customer, Successful Respondent shall provide copies of its most recent business continuity and disaster recovery plans.

4.12 Non-Solicitation of Customer Employees

Successful Respondent shall not solicit, directly or indirectly, any DIR employee who is associated with the Contract during the Contract term or for a period of ninety (90) calendar days following the expiration or termination of the Contract. Further, Successful Respondent shall not solicit, directly or indirectly, any Customer employee who is associated with a Purchase Agreement during the Purchase Agreement term or for a period of ninety (90) calendar days following the expiration or termination of the Purchase Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the publication of a generally available advertisement or solicitation and the consideration and hiring of a person responding to such a solicitation is not a breach of this Section, unless the advertisement or solicitation is undertaken as a means to circumvent this Section. This provision shall not operate or be construed to prevent or limit any employee's right to practice his or her profession or to utilize his or her skills for another employer or to restrict any employee's freedom of movement or association.

4.13 General Requirements of Lease Documents

The following general terms apply to all lease-type documents and agreements entered into in connection with the Contract or a Purchase Agreement.

- (a) All leases and lease-related documents are Additional Agreements as defined in the Contract.
- (b) Leases shall not automatically renew at the end of the term.
- (c) Any fees beyond those set forth in Appendix B, Pricing Index, must be explicitly identified in the lease documents. This includes but is not limited to early termination fees, shipping fees, return fees, and any other charge or fee related to the lease.
- (d) Remedies for breach of the lease must include all remedies available in the Contract. Successful Respondent may not disclaim damages or establish exclusive remedies in the lease documents.
- (e) Customers shall not be required to obtain consent before relocating a piece of leased equipment, but the Successful Respondent may require a reasonable form of notice of the relocation.
- (f) Customers shall not indemnify Successful Respondent.

4.14 Submission of Written Complaints

A person may submit a written complaint to DIR using the form provided on DIR's webpage at the following address: <https://dir.texas.gov/form/complaints>.

4.15 Captions

The captions contained in the Contract, Appendices, and Exhibits are intended for convenience and reference purposes only and shall in no way be deemed to define or limit any provision.

5.1.1 Work Product

Means all deliverables produced by Successful Respondent for Customer under a Statement of Work issued pursuant to the Contract, including all tangible or intangible items or things that have been or will be prepared, created, developed, produced, invented or conceived at any time after the Effective Date in connection with, or as a result of, the services provided under the Contract, including but not limited to any:

- (a) works of authorship (such as manuals, instructions, printed material, graphics, artwork, images, illustrations, photographs, computer programs, computer software, scripts, configurations, object code, source code or other programming code, HTML code, flow charts, notes, outlines, lists, compilations, manuscripts, writings, pictorial materials, schematics, formulae, processes, algorithms, data, information, multimedia files, text web pages or websites, other written or machine readable expression of works fixed in any tangible media, and all other copyrightable works);

(b) trademarks, service marks, trade dress, trade names, logos, or other indicia of source or origin;

(c) ideas, designs, concepts, personality rights, methodologies, processes, techniques, apparatuses, inventions, formulas, approaches, specifications, systems, discoveries, or improvements, including any patents, trade secrets and know-how;

(d) domain names;

(e) any copies, and similar or derivative works to any of the foregoing, all documentation and materials related to any of the foregoing;

(f) all other goods, services, or deliverables to be provided to Customer under the Contract or a Statement of Work; and

(g) all Intellectual Property Rights in any of the foregoing, and which are or were created, prepared, developed, invented, or conceived for the use or benefit of Customer in connection with the Contract or a Statement of Work, or with funds appropriated by or for Customer or Customer's benefit:

(1) by any Successful Respondent personnel or Customer personnel, or

(2) any Customer personnel who then became personnel to Successful Respondent or any of its affiliates or subcontractors, where, although creation or reduction-to-practice is completed while the person is affiliated with Successful Respondent or its personnel, any portion of which was created, invented or conceived by that person while affiliated with Customer.

5.1.2 Intellectual Property Rights

Means the worldwide legal rights or interests, including but not limited to all United States and foreign patents, copyrights, trademarks, service marks, trade secrets, moral rights, author's rights, reversionary rights, and any and all other intellectual property or similar rights, evidenced by or embodied in:

(b) any work of authorship, including any copyrights, moral rights, or neighboring rights;

(c) any trademark, service mark, trade dress, trade name, or other indicia of source or origin;

(d) domain name registrations; and

- (e) any other proprietary or similar rights.

The Intellectual Property Rights of a party include all worldwide legal rights or interests that the party may have acquired by assignment or license with the right to grant sublicenses.

5.1.3 Third Party IP

Means the Intellectual Property Rights of any third party that is not a party to the Contract or a Purchase Agreement issued under the Contract, and that is not directly or indirectly providing any goods or services to Customer under the Contract or a Purchase Agreement issued under the Contract.

5.1.4 Successful Respondent IP

Shall mean all tangible or intangible items or things, including the Intellectual Property Rights therein, created or developed by Successful Respondent:

- (a) prior to providing any services or Work Product to Customer and prior to receiving any documents, materials, information, or funding from or on behalf of Customer relating to the services or Work Product; or
- (b) after the Effective Date if tangible or intangible items or things were independently developed by Successful Respondent outside Successful Respondent's provision of services or Work Product for Customer hereunder and were not created, prepared, developed, invented or conceived by any Customer personnel who then became personnel to Successful Respondent or any of its affiliates or subcontractors, where, although creation or reduction-to-practice is completed while the person is affiliated with Successful Respondent or its personnel, any portion of which was created, invented or conceived by the person while affiliated with Customer.

5.2 Ownership

As between Successful Respondent and Customer, the Work Product and any associated Intellectual Property Rights are and shall be owned exclusively by Customer, and not Successful Respondent. Successful Respondent specifically agrees that the Work Product shall be considered "works made for hire" and that the Work Product shall, upon creation, be owned exclusively by Customer. To the extent that the Work Product, under applicable law, may not be considered works made for hire, Successful Respondent agrees that the Contract effectively transfers, grants, conveys, assigns, and relinquishes exclusively to Customer all right, title, and interest in and to all ownership rights in the Work Product, and all Intellectual Property Rights in the Work Product, without the necessity of any further consideration, and Customer shall be entitled to obtain and hold in its own name all Intellectual Property Rights in and to the Work Product. Successful Respondent acknowledges that Successful Respondent and Customer do not intend Successful Respondent to be a joint author of the Work Product within the meaning of the Copyright Act of 1976. Customer shall have access, during normal business hours (Monday through Friday, 8AM to 5PM) and upon reasonable prior notice to Successful Respondent, to all Successful Respondent materials, premises, and computer files containing the Work Product. Successful Respondent and Customer, as appropriate, will cooperate with one another and execute other documents as may be reasonably appropriate to achieve the objectives herein. No license or other right is granted hereunder to any Third-Party IP, except as may be incorporated in the Work Product by Successful Respondent. Successful Respondent will not make or retain any copies of the Work Product or any documentation or other products and results of the services without the prior written consent of Customer.

5.3 Further Actions

Successful Respondent, upon request and without further consideration, shall perform any acts that may be deemed reasonably necessary or desirable by Customer to evidence more fully the transfer of ownership or registration of all Intellectual Property Rights in all Work Product to Customer to the fullest extent possible, including but not limited to the execution, acknowledgement and delivery of further documents in a form determined by Customer. In the event Customer shall be unable to obtain Successful Respondent's signature due to the dissolution of Successful Respondent or Successful Respondent's unreasonable failure to respond to Customer's repeated requests for signature on any document reasonably necessary for any purpose set forth in the foregoing sentence, Successful Respondent irrevocably designates and appoints Customer and its duly authorized officers and agents as Successful Respondent's agent and Successful Respondent's attorney-in-fact to act for and in Successful Respondent's behalf and stead to execute and file any document and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further any purpose with the same effect as if executed and delivered by Successful Respondent, provided however that no grant of right to Customer is applicable if Successful Respondent fails to execute any document due to a good faith dispute by Successful Respondent with respect to the document. It is understood that this power is coupled with an interest and is therefore irrevocable. Customer shall have the full and sole power to prosecute applications and to take all other action concerning the Work Product, and Successful Respondent shall cooperate in the preparation and prosecution of all applications and in any legal actions and proceedings concerning the Work Product.

5.4 Waiver of Moral Rights

Successful Respondent irrevocably and forever waives, and agrees never to assert, any Moral Rights in or to the Work Product which Successful Respondent may now have or which may accrue to Successful Respondent's benefit under U.S. or foreign copyright or other laws and any and all other residual rights and benefits which arise under any other applicable law now in force or hereafter enacted. Successful Respondent acknowledges the receipt of equitable compensation for its assignment and waiver of Moral Rights. The term "Moral Rights" refers to any and all rights of paternity or integrity of the Work Product and the right to object to any modification, translation or use of the Work Product, and any similar rights existing under the judicial or statutory law of any country in the world or under any treaty, regardless of whether or not the right is denominated or referred to as a moral right.

5.5 Confidentiality

All documents, information and materials forwarded to Successful Respondent by Customer for use in and preparation of the Work Product shall be deemed the confidential information of Customer, and subject to the license granted by Customer to Successful Respondent under Section 5.8_Successful Respondent License to Use. Hereunder, Successful Respondent shall not use, disclose, or permit any person to use or obtain the Work Product, or any portion thereof, in any manner without the prior written approval of Customer.

5.6 Injunctive Relief

The Contract is intended to protect Customer's proprietary rights pertaining to the Work Product, and the Intellectual Property Rights therein, and any misuse of those rights would cause substantial and irreparable harm to Customer's business. Therefore, Successful Respondent acknowledges and stipulates that a court of competent jurisdiction may immediately enjoin any material breach of the intellectual property, use, and confidentiality provisions of the Contract, upon a request by Customer, without requiring proof of irreparable injury as injury should be presumed.

5.7 Return of Materials Pertaining to Work Product

Upon the request of Customer, but in any event upon expiration or termination of the Contract, or a Statement of Work, Successful Respondent shall surrender to Customer (1) all documents and things pertaining to the Work Product, including but not limited to drafts, memoranda, notes, records, drawings, manuals, computer software, reports, data; and (2) all other documents or materials (generated or developed by Successful Respondent or furnished by Customer to Successful Respondent, including all materials embodying the Work Product, any Customer confidential information, or Intellectual Property Rights in that Work Product, regardless of whether complete or incomplete. This Section is intended to apply to all Work Product as well as to all documents and things furnished to Successful Respondent by Customer or by anyone else that pertain to the Work Product, including originals and copies.

5.8 Successful Respondent License to Use

Customer grants to Successful Respondent a non-transferable, non-exclusive, royalty-free, fully paid-up license to use any Work Product solely as necessary to provide the services to Customer. Except as provided in this Section, neither Successful Respondent nor any Third-Party Provider shall have the right to use the Work Product in connection with the provision of services to its other customers without the prior written consent of Customer, which consent may be withheld in Customer's sole discretion.

5.9 Third-Party Underlying and Derivative Works

(a) To the extent that any Successful Respondent IP or Third Party IP are embodied or reflected in the Work Product, or are necessary to provide the services, Successful Respondent grants to the Customer, or shall obtain from the applicable third party for Customer's benefit, the irrevocable, perpetual, non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free right and license, for Customer's internal business purposes only, to

- (1) use, execute, reproduce, display, perform, distribute copies of, and prepare derivative works based upon Successful Respondent IP or Third-Party IP and any derivative works thereof embodied in or delivered to Customer in conjunction with the Work Product, and

(2) authorize others to do any or all of the foregoing. Successful Respondent agrees to notify Customer on delivery of the Work Product or services if the materials include any Third-Party IP.

(b) On request, Successful Respondent shall provide Customer with documentation indicating a third party's written approval for Successful Respondent to use any Third-Party IP that may be embodied or reflected in the Work Product.

5.10 Agreement with Third Party Providers

Successful Respondent agrees that it shall have written agreement(s) that are consistent with the provisions hereof related to Work Product and Intellectual Property Rights with any Third Party Providers, prior to their providing services or Work Product pursuant to the Contract, and that Successful Respondent shall maintain the written agreements at all times during performance of the Contract, which are sufficient to support all performance and grants of rights by Successful Respondent. Successful Respondent will promptly give copies of the agreements to the Customer upon request.

5.11 License to Customer

Successful Respondent grants to Customer, at no additional charge, a worldwide, non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, royalty free right and license, solely for the Customer's internal business purposes, to use, reproduce, modify, display, perform (by any means), transmit, distribute, store, prepare derivative works of, and otherwise exploit any Successful Respondent IP embodied in or delivered to Customer in conjunction with the Work Product. The foregoing license includes the right to sublicense third parties, solely for the purpose of engaging third parties to assist or carryout Customer's internal business use of the Work Product. Except for the preceding license, all rights in Successful Respondent IP remain in Successful Respondent.

5.12 Successful Respondent Development Rights

To the extent not inconsistent with Customer's rights in the Work Product or as set forth herein, nothing in the Contract shall preclude Successful Respondent from developing for itself, or for others, materials which are competitive with those produced as a result of the services provided hereunder, on the condition that no Work Product is utilized, and no Intellectual Property Rights of Customer therein are infringed by the competitive materials. To the extent that Successful Respondent wishes to use the Work Product or acquire licensed rights in certain Intellectual Property Rights of Customer therein in order to offer competitive goods or services to third parties, Successful Respondent and Customer agree to negotiate in good faith regarding an appropriate license and royalty agreement to allow for the desired use.

6 DATA TERMS

Instructions on how to complete this document are included in the template itself. Successful Respondent may provide ACRs based on earlier versions of the VPAT® template if completed ACRs already exist, and there have been no changes to the product or service since the time of the original document completion. If Successful Respondent claims that a proposed product, family of products, or service is exempt from accessibility requirements, it must specify the exempt product or family of products and the basis for the exemption in "Notes" located in the product information section of the VPAT v.2.4 or higher.

(b) Upon Customer request, Successful Respondent must provide a completed, current, and accurate Vendor Accessibility Development Services Information Request (VADSIR) form for non-COTS offerings (such as IT related development services and services that include user accessed, online components) which documents Successful Respondent's capability or ability to produce accessible electronic and information resources.

10.5.1 Review by State Auditor

The State Auditor may conduct an audit or investigation of any entity receiving funds from the state directly under the Contract or indirectly through a subcontract under the Contract. Successful Respondent further agrees to cooperate fully with the State Auditor's Office or its successor in the conduct of the audit or investigation, including providing all records requested. 11 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

11.1 No Waiver

A party's failure to require strict performance of any provision of the Contract shall not waive or diminish that party's right to demand strict compliance with that or any other provision.

Nothing in this Contract or in any Purchase Agreement constitutes a waiver of any defense or immunity whatsoever.

11.2 Dispute Resolution Process

(a) Disputes arising under the Contract or a Purchase Agreement shall be resolved in accordance with Texas Government Code Chapter 2260. The contested case process provided in Texas Government Code Chapter 2260 is the Successful Respondent's sole and exclusive process for seeking a remedy for an alleged breach of Contract or Purchase Agreement.

(b) Except as provided in Texas Government Code Section 2251.051, Successful Respondent shall continue performance while the dispute is being resolved unless the Customer has terminated the Purchase Agreement.

(c) For Customers not subject to Texas Government Code Chapter 2260, disputes arising between a Customer and Successful Respondent shall be resolved in accordance with the dispute resolution process of the Customer.

(d) DIR shall not be a party to any dispute between Customers and Successful Respondent unless DIR, in its sole discretion, decides to intervene.

(e) In any dispute with a unit of State government as defined in Texas Government Code Section 2260.001, the exclusive venue of any suit arising under the Contract is fixed in any court of competent jurisdiction of Travis County, Texas, unless the specific venue is otherwise identified in a statute which directly names or otherwise states its applicability to the contracting Customer. If litigation does not involve any unit of State government, then venue is fixed in the state or federal courts of the Texas county where the Customer is primarily situated, unless the specific venue is otherwise identified in a statute which directly names or otherwise states its applicability to the contracting Customer.

11.3 Vendor Performance Reporting Required

12.2 Immediate Suspension

(a) DIR may, in its sole discretion, elect to immediately suspend Successful Respondent instead of exercising its absolute right to terminate the Contract as described above.

(b) DIR may suspend Successful Respondent for the same reasons as the absolute right to terminate set forth above. In addition, DIR may suspend Successful Respondent if Successful Respondent fails to pay the DIR Administrative Fee or timely file required reports, or if DIR in its sole discretion determines that suspension is in the best interests of the State.
