Our July Growth is Off the Charts!

I want to share some truly exciting news about our firm's growth. The July year-over-year data is in, and the results are simply outstanding. Here's a quick comparison of July 2024 to July 2025:

- Potential Clients jumped from 754 to 1,391. That's a nearly 85% increase!
- New Matters climbed from 225 to 284, a growth of over 26%.

The most remarkable thing about these stats is that I pulled the numbers with one week left in July!

This incredible surge is directly related to your dedication and the excellent reputation we're building together. Client demand for our expertise is higher than ever, and we have a fantastic opportunity to continue expanding. We need to grow our team with more talented people to meet this demand.

Remember about our referral bonus program!

If you know a talented attorney or paralegal who would be an excellent fit for our team, please refer them to Alec Thomas at alec.thomas@robinsonandhenry.com. Check out the Referral Bonus Policy.

Thank you for all your hard work. Let's finish the month strong!

Book Now is Live!

We're thrilled to announce that our improved scheduling system is live! This new feature was designed to make it faster and easier for clients to connect with the right attorney for their unique legal needs.

A huge thank you to everyone who contributed to bringing this online booking resource to life.

A Seamless Experience with R&H

What Sets R&H Apart? Consistency, Communication, and Care.

Clients consistently highlight what makes Robinson & Henry stand out: prompt responses, professional communication, and a client-first attitude from start to finish. In an industry where even returning phone calls isn't guaranteed, our team—ranging from reception to attorneys—demonstrates unmatched professionalism, responsiveness, and clarity. These recent reviews showcase how our dedication to service and process continues to differentiate us from the competition.

Review #1

"I had an excellent experience reaching out to this firm. I was scheduled for a Zoom meeting within two business days. The virtual receptionist Rhandi greeted me before the attorney arrived. The attorney provided a valuable 30-minute consultation and explained the full process of working with them. I was met with a level of professionalism and competency that was unmatched by the other firms and solo practitioners I interviewed. I received the firm's fee structure agreement promptly after the consultation. This is the most prompt and professional experience I've encountered in my search for counsel."

Review #2

"I recently called Robinson and Henry for advice about a previous employer's business practices as well as issues with unemployment that cropped up over a year after I was done collecting benefits. From the individual who assisted with intake (George), to the attorney that I spoke with (Kiron), as well as the follow-up from customer service (Ryan), I was blown away by their assistance and service. All three were incredibly knowledgeable and helpful with the questions I had, and they will be a firm I look to in the future if I ever need legal assistance. I'm beyond satisfied, and you will be too!"

Highlands Ranch
Office Lead

Eric Neeper

Join us in congratulating Eric Neeper, selected as the Highlands Ranch Office Lead! A long-standing HR cornerstone, Eric has not only run an excellent litigation team but has consistently improved the office environment. From initiating the HR Annual Chili Cook-off to spearheading the kitchen's revitalization with new equipment, Eric's dedication to team morale and professionalism shines through. Congratulations, Eric, on a well-earned promotion!

In the Media: Peter Towsky

Robinson & Henry Partner Peter Towsky was featured in a recent article examining the legal complexities surrounding the potential use of eminent domain in the Denver Broncos' stadium relocation efforts. Towsky, a civil litigation and real estate attorney, weighed in on Colorado's strict eminent domain laws, emphasizing that any takings must serve a true public purpose—not private gain. He noted that "there is a potential trial awaiting each of these eminent domain takings," underscoring the legal hurdles developers may face.

Marketing Team Building Outing

Earlier this month, the Marketing Team gathered at Pindustry to celebrate Claire's (Jan 2), Ed's (May 15), and Michelle's (Jun 27) anniversaries and enjoy some team bonding. The team, spread across three offices, reconnected with good conversation, plenty of laughs, and even some surprisingly competitive darts! This event was a great reminder that strong teamwork is built on strong relationships — and we're fortunate to be a crew that knows how to balance hard work with a little fun.

July Video Highlight: Ryan Robertson
