

Become a Legal Tech Expert with the Everlaw Ediscovery Community

Everlaw Ediscovery Community is a place for Everlaw users to gain knowledge, enhance their legal work, and share their insights and perspectives. Through learning, best-practices sharing, documentation, support, and exclusive events, members of this community have the resources to become true ediscovery experts. The Everlaw Ediscovery Community also contains spaces where members can interact and stay up-to-date on relevant Everlaw and ediscovery-related topics.

Why should you join?

The Everlaw Ediscovery Community is a shared space where users can network, interact, and gain insights from other experts and cross-functional members of the Everlaw team. The community serves as an additional resource for Everlaw users to expand their knowledge and abilities within the ediscovery space. It's also a place to provide product feedback and stay up-to-date with Everlaw and ediscovery trends. The community also hosts member-exclusive events, such as feature-specific workshops and product roadmap webinars.

Everlaw Ediscovery Community FAQs

WHY WAS THE COMMUNITY CREATED?

The community was created to foster an environment where Everlaw users get support from a community of helpful experts, stay up-to-date with the latest trends in the ediscovery and legal tech industries, and feel empowered to become expert contributors within this community and at their own organizations.

WHO CAN JOIN THE COMMUNITY?

All Everlaw users are able to join the community. At this time, prospects are not able to join.

HOW DOES A USER JOIN THE COMMUNITY?

Visit community.everlaw.com to create your Everlaw Ediscovery Community account. U.S. Everlaw users can use their Everlaw credentials to register and log in to the community.

WHAT IS IN THE COMMUNITY?

The community has general spaces available for all members, such as Ask the Community, Everlaw Announcements, and Product Feedback. It also has group spaces dedicated to specific segments or kinds of users—Government, New to Everlaw, and Organization Administrators, for example.

“One of Everlaw’s greatest strengths as a product is collaboration; it was built from the ground up to help people work together. The new Everlaw community has extended the collaboration beyond the platform and into the user base. The Everlaw community is a wonderful place to meet other users, share tips and tricks, and interact with some of the Everlaw team in a conversational way.”
