A New Soul -

There, beyond the sun, I wait
Here, inside your life, I stay
All this time, in my mind, gets me nowhere
All this time, locked inside, gets me nowhere

There is a way, to come home
There is a way, to come back
There is a way, from here
There is a way

Never Far -

Closely waiting for your breath
While I'm watching every step
I will run, I will hide for you

Tossing turning in your pain
Finally you call my name
I'll be close, I will comfort you

I'm always part of you
I'm never far from you
I'm always part of you
I'm never far away

Slowly pouring through my veins
Feel the way it warms my heart
I am one, I am one with you

Gently waking to this day
Suddenly you call my name
I'll be close, I will run for you

I'm always part of you
I'm never far from you
I'm always part of you
I'm never far away

Between Waves -

Moonlight fades from my sight
Sunshine, blinds my eyes
Nightmares running through my mind
Sunlight, I'm still here

Feel the rain, won't let go, no one knows
Inside, we let go, our love grows

Between waves, I take my breath

Moonlight stays in my sight
Darkness, fills my eyes
Thoughts are running through my mind
Somewhere, we are free

Between waves, I take my breath

Feel the rain, won't let go, no one knows
Inside, we let go, our love grows
