

PIANO COACH

Description of the role:

Luminary is an innovative Music- tech company committed to creating engaging and high-quality learning experiences for our audience. We are currently seeking talented musicians to join our team for an exciting project that involves recording a series of piano lessons.

Role Overview

Luminary is looking for proficient pianists comfortable presenting educational content on camera. This role requires both musical expertise and the ability to connect with an audience through engaging and dynamic presentations. Whether you are an experienced piano teacher or a performer with a passion for education, we want to hear from you! You'll work with a small crew of music and production experts to record multiple lessons over the course of one week in September (North East London). We've crafted an educational framework to act as the foundation of each song, but you'll need to deliver the lessons in a style that is uniquely and authentically yours.

Responsibilities:

We want you to be the face (and hands) of a series of short, bite-sized videos aimed at helping our learners hone their piano-playing skills. In this collaborative project, you will:

- Deliver piano lessons based on our pre-designed educational framework.
- Present educational content confidently and engagingly on camera.
- Work collaboratively with a team of music and production experts.
- Adapt and personalise the lessons to reflect your unique teaching style.

Requirements:

- Proficiency in playing the piano.
- Strong on-camera presentation skills.
- Warm and engaging demeanour.
- Experience in teaching or a strong passion for education.
- Ability to work effectively with a small crew.
- The proficiency to follow finger numbering and hand positioning set out in our framework

What We Offer:

- The opportunity to be part of an innovative educational project.
- A collaborative and supportive working environment.
- Professional development in on-camera presentation and educational content delivery.
- Expected hours: 8 hours per day for one week
- Pay: From £50- £60 per hour

How to Apply: If you are passionate about music education and have the skills to engage an audience, we'd love to hear from you!

To apply, please submit the following to Talent@roli.com:

1. Cover Letter: Include a cover letter detailing your relevant experience.
2. CV: Attach your CV to the email.
3. Video Application:
 - Option 1: Attach an MP4 file of a 2-3 minute video demonstrating your piano playing and teaching style.
 - Option 2: Upload a 2-3 minute video demonstrating your piano playing and teaching style to YouTube as a private video, and include the link in your email.
