

Digital Producer

Location: Remote

To apply please send your resume, with the email subject of Ops 2021, to careers@telescope.tv

Job Description

The Digital Producer reports to the Associate Director, Digital and is responsible for managing the full production process of the company's client facing interactive online, live streaming and social campaigns. The Digital Producer works closely with our clients to oversee every detail of the campaign, while managing their team of designers and developers, to ensure smooth and successful campaigns. They will also work daily with the company's proprietary digital products, CMS and across multiple social media platforms, at times directly with our contacts at Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc.

The ideal candidate has experience with digital applications across multiple platforms and devices, strong attention to detail, and a positive attitude. Telescope is a small company which is growing rapidly with huge growth potential for skills and projects. To be clear, this role is focused around production of websites, native apps and other digital based products – it is not a digital content position.

Note: This position is remote (work from home)
