Summary for 01 February 2023 to 03 February 2023

Once your cleared balance reaches over $50 you will receive payment in the following pay run

Why $50?

We pick up all the fees that are charged when we pay you, but some contributors also pick up fees when they get paid, depending on their banking situation. The $50 threshold is in place to make sure payment runs are financially practical for both us and you.

What's the difference between cleared and uncleared funds?

Cleared means we've been paid by the customer.

We show you sales as they happen, so you can also see sales we're waiting to be paid for (uncleared).

Depending on the type of customer, sales can take between 45 days up to 4 months to clear.

We pay our contributors on the first working day of each month

You can go to your balance of account to see if a fund transfer has been initiated.

This does not mean you will be paid on the date it was initiated, but within 9 working days from initiation.
