A unique opportunity to acquire a multi-tenanted ground level retail co-op on a super-prime SoHo corner. The space features 134ft of frontage along Prince and Wooster Streets, with two (2) marquee tenants across 3,960 SF above ground and an additional 1,322 SF of cellar space.

The spaces are leased to tenants of the highest quality and with exceptional credit, the first being Marc Jacobs at 127-129 Prince, where they operate a flagship store, and the other Lip Lab at 133 Wooster. Both tenants are owned by LVMH (Louis Vuitton Moët Hennessy), the world’s largest luxury conglomerate. Both leases were recently executed, including substantial tenant buildout investments (over $2.8 million for 127-129 Prince), with lease terms that run until 2028 and 2030, respectively. Additionally, both leases have 5-year extension options and feature similar modified gross recovery structures, where the tenants are responsible for tax increases beyond a base year and cover their own utility expenses.

The cooperative corporation features no debt, and is projected to enjoy surpluses in the coming years.
