Thurs., Aug. 29th, "Footloose," at Broadway Rose Theater, P/U at 12:30pm, $40

Celebrate the spirit and optimism of young people fighting for change backed by a soundtrack of '80s pop anthems in this stage adaptation of the hit film. When city boy Ren moves to a small town where dancing is outlawed, he finds himself an outsider and a target of the local preacher who pushed for the ban - especially after attracting the attention of the reverend's rebellious daughter. Through explosive choreography and invigorating songs such as 'Holding Out for a Hero,' 'Let's Hear it for the Boy,' and the exhilarating title track; Ren challenges the community to reverse the rule and heal from the tragedy that kept their hearts from dancing.
