Saia Named Tyson's LTL Carrier of the Year

JOHNS CREEK, Ga. – Nov. 10, 2026 – Saia Inc. (NASDAQ: SAIA) announced today that it has been named Tyson's LTL Carrier of the Year for the company's fiscal year ending September 2026.

The annual award recognizes one carrier in the less-than-truckload (LTL) category and is based on feedback from approximately 200 Tyson team members representing functions across the organization, including operational service, invoicing, claims, and customer service.

"We're honored to be recognized by Tyson as its 'LTL Carrier of the Year,'" said Executive Vice President and Chief Customer Officer Ray Ramu. "What makes this recognition especially meaningful is that it reflects feedback from people across many different areas of Tyson's business. It speaks to the commitment of our employees who work every day to provide reliable service and a positive experience for our customers."

Saia's recognition underscores the company's continued focus on delivering consistent service and supporting customers throughout every stage of the shipping experience.

"Strong carrier partnerships are important to our business, and Saia has consistently shown its commitment to supporting our teams," said Tyson Director of Transportation Todd Skidmore. "We're proud to recognize Saia as our 'LTL Carrier of the Year' and appreciate the service and partnership they provide."

"We value our relationship with Tyson and appreciate the confidence they place in Saia," added Ramu. "This award belongs to our employees across the network whose dedication makes that trust possible."
