

So who is NXP?

Starting in 1995 as Corporate Express, then Staples, briefly we were Winc and now, since 2018 ... we've been NXP.

Business supplies. 6,500 product lines in stock, 3 distribution centres, same day dispatch (order by 3pm).

Kia ora, welcome – NXP is owned by a group of 7 Kiwis, all of whom are involved in the business.

The purpose of this overview is to give you a feel for who we are, what we do and, all going well, why you might consider NXP as your supplier of choice.

What do we mean by business supplies?

Pretty much all consumables needed to run your business in New Zealand.

Office filing, labels, cutting, art, diaries, stationery, whiteboards, writing	Paper copy, coloured, board, craft, self adhesive, synthetic, tracing, wide format	Café coffee, confectionery, snacks, milk, sugar, food wraps, containers, tableware	Cleaning bins & liners, chemicals, tissues, towels, wipes, soaps, skincare, hygiene, hardware
Tech ink & toner, batteries, cables, electronics, projectors, printers, storage, security	Packaging cartons, pallet wrap, strapping, tapes, mailing, cutters, void fill, machinery	Safety PPE, gloves, footwear, first aid, signage, clothing, hydration, site safety	Furniture chairs, desks, workstations, floor protection, screens, storage, bespoke projects

We bulk buy, store in our DC's and ship to order – some 1,180 deliveries leave NXP each working day.

Three NZ distribution centres at your service

All orders are placed via our npx.nz website.
