

2023-2024 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Name: Anna Grace

Area of study: Computer Application

Anna Grace is diligent and focused. She is passionate about music and art. Anna Grace is a talented vocalist and is motivated to pursue her talents and passions in future studies. After graduation she hopes to work as a programmer and eventually open her own firm. Anna Grace wants to achieve her goals so she is not a burden to her family.

Name: Blesson

Area of study: Commerce

Blesson is a smart student with excellent social skills. He is involved with sports and various activities at the College. He also enjoys music and volunteering in the community. After his father abandoned his family, Blesson is determined to excel and provide for his mother.

Name: Daisy Priya

Area of study: Computer Application

Daisy is a sincere and dedicated learner. She is an exceptional leader and is found motivating her classmates to do their best. Daisy dreams of starting her own business one day and is determined to carve out a good career for herself so she can support her parents and make them proud.

Name: Darshan K

Area of study: Business Administration

Orphaned as a young child, Darshan does not let his past hold him back. A fantastic basketball player and overall athlete, Darshan has received multiple medals at sporting events. After he finishes his education, Darshan plans to join the Indian Army.

Name: Hamsaveni R

Area of study: Commerce

Hamsaveni is a hardworking, intelligent and imaginative student. When not applying herself to her studies, Hamsaveni enjoys painting and reading. After she graduates she hopes to pursue jobs as either an officer in the Indian Administrative Services or as a manager in a bank.

Name: Nithin Kumar

Area of study: Commerce

Born into a the lowest caste, Nithin has big dreams. Nithin's parents are behind him and want him to succeed, knowing that his education is the key. Nithin is introverted, self-driven and hard working. He is a talented cricket and volleyball player. When he graduates, he hopes to work in the public sector.

2023-2024 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Name: Sanjeev

Area of study: Computer Application

Sanjeev is a self-motivated and dedicated student. Even though he was orphaned as a boy, he hasn't let his difficult beginning of being raised in an orphanage affect his future. Without a family to support and pay for his education, he is so thankful to be a scholarship recipient. He plans to specialize in cyber security services.

Name: Smaran Hassan

Area of study: Accounting

Smaran is an enthusiastic and well-mannered young man who enjoys sports and music. He also takes initiative in extracurricular activities. Abandoned by his father, his family struggled to make ends meet. With a scholarship, Smaran's goal of working in hotel management can be realized.

Name: Yamuna

Area of study: Computer Application

Yamuna is a diligent and hardworking student. Due to her family's poverty, she was not given support in her education. Thankfully, teachers at UIC mentored Yamuna and she was able to increase her test scores and stay in school. This, along with a scholarship, will continue to help rebuild Yamuna's low self esteem so she can have a bright future.

Name: Vineeth

Area of study: Computer Application

Vineeth is a sincere and diligent learner. He is an excellent musician and sings in the college choir. His brother dropped out of college because it was too expensive and Vineeth is determined to graduate. With a scholarship, Vineeth's dreams of becoming a system developer and programmer can be realized.

Name: Venmathi

Area of study: Computer Application

Venmathi is a humble, sincere and hardworking student. She has big career goals and wants to achieve great heights in information technology. Due to her family's income, they are not able to help her in her educational pursuits. Being awarded a scholarship will help Venmathi stay in school and achieve her dreams.

Name: Franklin

Area of study: Computer Application

Franklin gives his utmost in class and is an amazing athlete. His goal is to become a software developer. While in college, he also helps his single mother with her work as a housemaid, as he knows she struggles to make ends meet. Franklin also wants to be a role model for his younger brothers by going to college and breaking the cycle of poverty for their family.

2023-2024 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Name: Janet

Area of study: Accounting

Janet is a creative young woman with realistic life goals. After her father died and her single mother was diagnosed with a chronic illness, Janet's sister has helped to provide for the family but her income isn't enough. Janet is thankful to be a scholarship recipient so she can get a well paying job, and with her sister, support their family.

Name: Vinitha Crysolite

Area of study: Accounting

Vinitha is a very artistic young lady who is a great leader. Her mother is widowed and struggles to provide for her daughters. Vinitha is thankful to be a scholarship recipient so she can graduate and help shoulder her mother's financial responsibilities. Vinitha is focused and determined to give her best and successfully complete her degree.

Name: Merlin

Area of study: Accounting

Merlin is a hard worker and high achiever. After the death of her mother, her father remarried and now supports a family of seven. Merlin had to miss a year of school because her family did not have enough money. Now, a scholarship recipient, she was the first to enroll and be admitted for the upcoming school year.

Name: Sanghavi

Area of study: Accounting

Sanghavi is gifted in art and academics. She is cheerful, compassionate and very considerate. Though her parents struggle to make ends meet, they have always prioritized education. Unfortunately the financial burden has become too great so this scholarship has come at the perfect time. Sanghavi is motivated to succeed and honor her parents with her academic success.