5.0 POLICY DETAILS

5.1 General Statements

- 5.1.1 Delegated authorities are a mechanism by which the Calgary Stampede enables employees and volunteers of the organization to act on behalf of the organization. Delegated authorities are a key element in effective governance, and provide formal authority to an employee or volunteer to make policy and operational decisions.
- 5.1.2 A delegation held at a nominated level is also held by all higher-level managers in the delegate's reporting line except where such authority would frustrate internal controls.
- 5.1.3 Delegated authorities cannot be exercised where the employee or volunteer holding the delegated authority has a conflict of interest. Any potential or perceived conflicts of interest should be declared to the individual's leader, a representative of Volunteer Services or Employee Services or, as appropriate, to an executive vice president, the corporate secretary, the chief executive officer or the president and chair of the board.
- 5.1.4 Where a delegated authority holder is unable to carry out the duties associated with their delegation for any reason (including business travel, illness or vacation), the delegated authority escalates to that employee's immediate supervisor, or it may be temporarily delegated to a nominated individual for a set period of time.
- 5.1.5 Each employee and volunteer is responsible for understanding his/her approved authority, for ensuring current internal Stampede processes are followed, and for compliance with this policy.
- 5.1.6 Independent contractors and consultants do not have the authority to bind the Calgary Stampede.
- 5.1.7 This policy is subject to the by-laws of the Stampede and the by-laws shall govern in any case where there is an inconsistency or conflict between the by-laws and the policy.
- 5.1.8 All delegations outlined in this policy are summarized in Appendix 1.

5.2 Record of Delegations

Material delegations noted in this policy, other corporate policies and in board resolutions are administered by the executive management team.

5.2.1 Identified, potential, and perceived conflicts of interest shall be reviewed and resolved by the president and chair of the board, the chair of the Governance and People Committee, the chief executive officer and the corporate secretary.

5.3 Exercise of Delegations

Authorities must be exercised in accordance with the level of delegation specified within this policy and/or in the delegation schedule.

5.4 Review of Delegations

Delegations will be reviewed in conjunction with any organizational structure review or at the request of the board of directors.

5.5 Board Authority

5.5.1 The board has unlimited authority, subject to applicable laws and the Stampede's by-laws, and the board establishes the authority of the chief executive officer.

5.5.2 The board delegates to the chief executive officer the authority to manage the affairs of the organization in light of approved corporate policies, approved strategy and approved operating and capital budgets. Notwithstanding any such delegation, the board has ultimate accountability to the shareholders for the day-to-day management of the Calgary Stampede.

5.5.3 Policies

5.5.3.1 The board retains authority to approve all corporate policies (refer Appendix 2).

5.5.3.2 The board, through the Corporate Governance policy, has authorized the chief executive officer to approve operational policies on behalf of the Calgary Stampede.

5.5.3.3 Following the Board's review of corporate nomenclature updates, the corporate secretary is authorized to make administrative changes to the organization's corporate policies as required to reflect such updates outside of the Board's formal policy review cycle. Any policy
