1. WHY DO WE HAVE A STYLE GUIDE?

Writing is a fundamental aspect of communicating the Calgary Stampede brand.

This style guide outlines the writing style of the Calgary Stampede. It provides a consistent approach for everything we write – whether it’s an event program, volunteer or employee notice, website copy, marketing material, speech, etc.

Please refer to this guide for the correct forms of department names, committees, events, buildings, dates, times, etc.

Aside from a few exceptions, the Stampede follows the Canadian Press (CP) Stylebook, the CP Caps and Spelling handbook and the Oxford English Dictionary. Canadian spelling is always used (e.g. honour, not honor).

For marketing purposes, some style guide rules can be altered or modified depending on the size and intended audience of the piece.

This document is meant to be a living document that will be updated as the Calgary Stampede continues to grow and evolve. If you have questions or suggested updates, please send an email to ccommunications@calgarystampede.com.

13. MOST COMMONLY USED STYLE POINTS

Style points follow the guidelines set by the Canadian Press which is the industry standard for best practice writing and grammar. Follow the guidelines as noted below unless, for marketing design purposes, exceptions need to be made.

a. Ampersands

Please use an ampersand "&" in all titles, departments and committees.

Exceptions: Use the word “and” when an ampersand doesn’t distinguish between two subjects.

Example: The President & Chairman of the Board of Directors is Flores LaDue.

Example: The President & Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer invite you to Saddle Up!

14. CAPITALIZATION

Capitalize all proper names. If it is not a proper name, it should be lowercase.

Example: The TransAlta Performing Arts Studios opens its doors!

Down-style capitalization: the first word in any headline should be capitalized then use a lowercase letter for all words following.

Example: Stampede will bring in 1.3 million visitors this year!

a. Currency

No .00 with even dollars

Example: Tickets are $5 at the door.

Yes: $5

No: $5.00

No: $10 dollars

➤ Note: If the price includes cents, use the period e.g. $2.25. Amounts of a thousand dollars or more require a comma.

Examples: $5,000; $30,800

If the amount is for a million dollars or more, do not write out the entire number.

Example: The Canvas Auction reached an all-time high raising more than $4 million.

Yes: $25 million

No: $25,000,000

b. Dates

For clarity, use the day of the week with the month and year. In first reference: Friday, July 4, 2025

In subsequent references: July 4 or Friday, July 4

➤ Note: Adding the day of the week as well as the month and year is not always the most appropriate choice for marketing material or some writing. Use discretion based on what the audience needs to most clearly understand the message. In addition, if you have already listed the year or day of the week on the document, it doesn't need to be stated repeatedly.

Do not use apostrophes in dates.

Yes: 1990s

No: 1990's

Never use ordinals with dates. Do not include st, rd, th on dates. Only exception is when in reference to an anniversary (e.g. 40th Anniversary of Harry the Horse).

Yes: Wednesday, January 1, 2025

No: Wednesday, January 1st, 2025

➤ Note: Ordinals are only used with anniversaries and birthdays, (e.g. Canada's 150th birthday).

When writing dates numerically, always write as year/month/day.

Example: May 13, 2025, is written numerically 2025/05/13.

c. Days of the week

Always spell out days of the week, Monday, Tuesday, etc.

➤ Note: Days of the week can be abbreviated on tickets.

d. Hyphens

Hyphens indicate which words the reader should mentally join together as one concept.

Example: Healthy two-year-old beef cattle are needed.

Hyphenate co-words and any words with a prefix that creates a double vowel, such as pre-eminent. Hyphenate vice- with any of the compounds, such as Vice-President, Vice-Chair, etc.

Use a hyphen to join two or more words together to modify a noun.

Examples: well-known actor; out-of-date statistics; 40-year-old volunteers

➤ Note: When the same adjectives follow the noun, hyphens are unnecessary and are left out.

Hyphens join the numerator and denominator of fractions: three-fourths, one-half, etc.

Other uses for hyphens:

5 C, -6 C (use a hyphen), but when Celsius or Fahrenheit is not specified spell out: five-degrees.

e. En dashes

En dashes — are used to replace the word 'through' and are commonly used for dates, times and page numbers.

Example: Come down to the Calgary Stampede, July 4–13, 2025

Example: Make sure to visit the Stampede pancake breakfast, happening tomorrow from 9 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Example: Please read pp. 1 – 15

f. Em dashes

Em dashes — are used to create a strong break/pause in a sentence and can be used to encase a word/phrase/clause for emphasis.

Example: Join us for the Calgary Stampede—exciting times are guaranteed!

Example: Join us at the Calgary Stampede—where exciting times are guaranteed—for The Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth.

g. Italics

Italics are used to represent titles such as books, periodicals (including newspapers), long musical works, movies, television and radio programs, works of visual art, names and foreign words and phrases that are not part of the English language.

Example: By the Banks of the Bow is a great spot to enjoy some art and have a rest.

h. Months of the year

For months used with a specific date, abbreviate only Jan., Feb., Aug., Sept., Oct., Nov., Dec. Spell out standing alone or with year alone.

Example: Dec. 31, 2025 is a Wednesday; July 2025 was filled with great weather.

➤ Note: Do not put a comma with a month and year (e.g. June 2025).

i. Numbers

Spell out numbers from one to nine; use figures for 10 and above.

Example: three and 33

Exceptions: Use numbers for street addresses. In certain ticketing materials, figures can be used for numbers below 10 for consistency.

If you must start the beginning of a sentence with a number, spell it out, except for a year.

Examples:

Twenty to 30 horses competed in the race.

1912 was the year of the first Calgary Stampede.

When numbers from 21 through 99 must be written out, use a hyphen.

Example: Thirty-five or thirty-six horses may compete.

Use figures for school grades, e.g., Grade 3 (note capital G on Grade):

Example: More than 30 Grade 4 students from the Calgary area attended Stampede School.

j. Age

In general, indicate a person's age rather than a general term such as senior citizen, middle-aged etc.

Only use age in a lead when it is significant. Spell out ages less than 10; 10 and above use the number.

Example: Ginger is a five-year-old horse.

Example: Young Canadian member, Katie is 16 years old.

When using a range that begins with less than 10 and goes above 10, use the numbers.

Example: 6-12 years of age.

Exceptions: Spell out a number above 10 at the start of a sentence.

Example: Thirty to 40 people were waiting to get into Nashville North.

Use figures in ages:

Example: Laura is a 14-year-old member of The Young Canadians of the Calgary Stampede.

k. Per cent

Percentages of numbers are indicated by the words per cent not the symbol %.

Example: More than 70 per cent of Calgarians come to Stampede Park during Stampede time.

Yes: per cent

No: % OR percent

Exceptions: For catering menus, the symbol % can be used in relation to the additional fee/tax that would be applied to one's order (as it is not a statistic or research figure).

l. More than versus over

More than - is used followed by a singular verb when the noun is singular.

Example: I'm eating more than one mini donut today.

Over - is used with plurals, to indicate an excess of something.

Example: I'm going to eat over 50 mini donuts today.

m. Fewer versus less

Fewer – is used with plurals.

Example: I'm eating fewer pancakes so I can eat more mini donuts this afternoon.

Less – is used with singulars.

Example: I'm eating less breakfast this morning so I can eat more mini donuts this afternoon.

n. Addresses

Numerals are usually used in specific addresses. Numbered street names nine and below are spelled out.

Example: 37 Fifth Ave., 23 59th St.

Streets, Avenues and the like are abbreviated in specific addresses (1406 Ryan St.), but not in general addresses (the 1400 block of Ryan Street).

In cities like Calgary that break addresses into quadrants. CP style requires that we abbreviate the quadrants with periods.

Example: 37 Fifth Ave. S.W.

o. Telephone numbers

Always use periods between numbers and the area code. Do not use brackets for the area code or hyphens.

Yes: 403.261.0199

No: (403) 261-0199

➤ Note: For employee phone numbers on internal notices, always include the local number in parenthesis

Example: The Ticket Office can be reached at 403.261.0449 (local 3449)

p. Times

Time is written in figures. However, write midnight or noon instead of the number. Do not capitalize a.m. or p.m.

Yes: 2 p.m., 2:30 p.m.

No: 2:00 p.m., 2:00 P.M., 2 P.M.

Yes: midnight, noon

No: 12 midnight, 12 noon

q. Western vs. western

Western references such as Western heritage, Western values, Western culture and Western lifestyle should be capitalized.

Example: Our purpose is to preserve and celebrate Western heritage, culture and community spirit.

r. Western Canada but southern Alberta

Because southern Alberta is not recognized as an official geographic territory it is not capitalized, however Western Canada is capitalized.

Example: I think Western Canada is a great place to live. I'm happy to call southern Alberta home.

Example: Calgary is one of the largest cities in the West.
