Step 1:

Preheat the oven to 220 degrees. Chop the shallot and press or mince the garlic. Heat ½ tbsp butter per person in a frying pan with a lid on medium-high heat. Fry the shallot and garlic for 1 minute. Add the spinach bit by bit and let it shrink while stirring. Drain and let it cool in a colander. Press well with your hands or a spoon to remove as much liquid as possible from the spinach. Then finely chop.

Step 2:

In the meantime, finely chop the fresh chives and dill. Cut the lemon into eight wedges. In a bowl, mix the cream cheese with half of the herbs, salt and pepper. Squeeze 1 lemon wedge per person over it. Mix well and set aside.

Step 3:

Roll out the puff pastry and cut into half a roll per person. Prick some holes in the puff pastry using a fork. Divide the spinach over one side of each piece of pastry. Put the salmon fillet on top and spread with the cream cheese. Fold the puff pastry over the salmon and firmly press along the edges, to form closed pockets. Brush the top with some milk.

Step 4:

Place the fries on the baking sheet. Bake in the oven for 25 - 30 minutes, or until golden brown. Toss the fried halfway through. Place the mini roma tomatoes in a baking dish and season with, per person: ¼ tbsp balsamic vinegar, ½ tbsp olive oil, salt and pepper. Place the salmon pockets on the baking sheet beside the fries and place them back in the oven along with the mini roma tomatoes and cook them for the last 15- 20 minutes in the oven.

Step 5:

Right before serving, mix per person: ½ tbsp extra virgin olive oil and ¼ tbsp white balsamic vinegar in a salad bowl. Add the arugula and lamb's lettuce and the remaining herbs. Mix well.

Step 6:

Transfer the salmon pockets to plates. Serve with the fries, roasted mini roma tomatoes and salad. Garnish with the lemon wedges.

Step 1:

Take the pork tenderloin from the refrigerator and allow it to reach room temperature before cooking. Preheat the oven to 180 degrees. In the meantime, cut the cucumber into thin strips so they easily fit into the bao buns. In a large bowl, mix the sugar, 1 ½ tbsp white wine vinegar per person with a pinch of salt. Add the cabbage and cucumber, stir well and allow to absorb until serving.

Step 2:

Finely grate the ginger and press or mince the garlic. Cut the scallion into thin rings and keep the green and white parts separated. In a small bowl, mix the brown sugar with the soy sauce and sesame oil. Cut the pork tenderloin into thin slices and rub with salt and pepper. Dip the slices through the flour so that they are uniformly coated with a thin layer of flour.

Step 3:

Bake the boa buns for 4 - 5 minutes in the oven. Heat ¹/₄ tbsp sunflower oil per person in a sauté pan with a lid on medium-high heat and fry half of the garlic for 1 minute. Add the sugar snaps and fry for another 3 - 4 minutes. Deglaze with half of the Asian sauce and season to taste with salt and pepper.

Step 4:

Meanwhile, heat 1 tbsp sunflower oil per person in a separate large frying pan on medium-high heat. When the pan is really hot, add the pork tenderloin slices and fry for 1 minute per side. Make sure there is enough space in the pan to put the slices next to each other, while you sear them briefly. The meat does not have to be completely cooked yet.

Step 5:

Add the ginger, garlic and the white parts of the scallion to the pan you used for the pork and fry for 2 - 3 minutes on medium-low heat. Then add the soy-sesame sauce and 2 tbsp water per person. Bring to a boil and add the pork slices as soon as the sauce starts to simmer. Stir regularly until the sauce reduces and starts sticking to the meat.

Step 6:

Roughly chop the coriander. Stuff the 3 bao buns per person with a little bit of the sweet and sour salad and the pork. Garnish with the green parts of the scallion and the coriander and drizzle with the Asian sauce. Serve with the sugar snaps and the remaining sweet and sour vegetables. Garnish the vegetables with the black sesame seeds.
