

Appendix A: Specific Public Benefits

1	The specific public benefits to be promoted by the Corporation are the reduction or elimination of psychosocial distress in cancer patients and their friends and family.
2	Society by advocating, promoting and implementing effective, nurturing, and fair standardized, community-wide parenting plans for children with parents who live apart, thereby improving the lives of children, parents and members of the community.
3	Generic + giving people access to, and the benefit of, health knowledge that is as complete and unbiased as possible.
4	The public benefits to be promoted by the Corporation include the delivery of nourishing, organic food to the nation's little ones and raising awareness and advancing solutions for childhood hunger and malnutrition in the United States.
5	1. Providing employment opportunities for at-risk women around the world by collaborating with artisan groups to form design partnerships and sustainable market opportunities; 2. making a positive impact on the planet by sourcing the majority of materials to fit one or more of these criteria: locally made, natural, and/or recycled; 3. help communities rise out of poverty and give customers assurance that the products they buy from the Corporation are fair trade and ethically made; and 4. returning a minimum of 1% of net profit to fund education and healthcare projects in partnership communities.
6	The Corporation will promote public benefits of an educational nature, including, without limitation, educational programs to students in grades K through 12 of all income levels consistent with the common core requirements.
7	The promotion of medical and health sciences education.
8	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to create a digital ecosystem with a positive effect on persons, entities, and communities, including those of an artistic, charitable, cultural, economic, educational, literary, medical, scientific or technical nature.
9	To improve the quality and availability of online learning through the provision of technology enabled products and services.
10	To increase the flow of capital to non-profit and charitable entities which promote and/or support a public benefit (as defined in DGCL § 362(b)).
11	The Company will promote public benefits of an educational nature, including education of the public about natural disaster preparedness.
12	The specific public benefits to be promoted by the Corporation are to achieve positive cultural and educational effects on the democratic process within user communities through the dissemination of information and the provision of a forum to discuss current events.
13	The specific public benefit to be promoted by the Company is to help people in need.
14	The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law and for the specific public benefit of furthering universal access to the Internet.
15	To positively impact the public health and natural environment of the community by offering avenues of meaningful connection to the natural environment that nurture the human mind, body, and spirit. This shall include, but shall not be limited to, (i) providing access to healthy food and medicinal herbs, and (ii) hosting events and educational workshops that encourage health and nutrition, toxic-free clean living, environmental conservation, sustainability, mediation, self-awareness through communion with nature.
16	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to scale innovative nonprofits and social enterprises projects with a focus on sustainable development.

17	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to advance equality in health care by helping health care institutions provide the highest quality, more cost-efficient care to their chronic, low income, limited English proficient and uninsured patients.
18	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to assisting individuals, organizations and entire communities to learn about and plan for aging and long term care needs.
19	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide free, open source operating system and applications software for technological and educational advancement.
20	The nature of the business or purposes to be conducted or promoted is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which public benefit corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL"), including without limitation to promote the following public benefits: to establish and commercialize a residential energy data service with the dual mission to provide an attractive return for shareholders and to advance the understanding of residential resource use (e.g. energy, water, waste) and to identify market-based opportunities to improve residential resource efficiency, reduce residential carbon emissions, and enable residents to live more sustainably.
21	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide tutoring and supplemental education.
22	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is education services, namely, providing on-line training materials and self-paced courses of instruction in the field of academic study skills to the US Hispanic/Latino population.
23	The nature of business or purposes to be conducted or promoted is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "Law") including, the purposes of reducing food waste and providing a general public benefit.
24	The purpose of the corporation is to socially and economically empower the tribal artisans, who are at the lowest social strata and face extreme poverty, by offering their unique products to the world.
25	This corporation shall have a specific public benefit purpose of using its business to inspire social and environmental change that results in the improvement of the human condition, increased social consciousness and the amelioration of poverty.
26	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to enable start-up companies to work with a range of stakeholders including but not limited to individuals, businesses, foundations, community organizations, and governments to solve economic, transportation, water, energy, environmental, security and other related problems resulting from urbanization.
27	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to build healthy communities, create jobs, and combat the social and economic ill effects of chronic joblessness in communities across America-- (i) by facilitating purchases of products manufactured in those communities from American-sourced components and materials through the operation of an online retail marketplace and other channels of sales and marketing and by other means; (ii) by conducting and supporting educational and informational campaigns informing buyers of the economic and social benefits of purchasing products manufactured in American communities from American-sources components and materials, and (iii) by supporting the training of veterans and other Americans in skilled manufacturing jobs in the production of such products; (iv) by advocating the adoption by governments and public and private organizations of policies facilitating and favoring the purchase of such products.
28	The purpose of this corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of Delaware (the "DGCL"), and to promote the best interests of those materially affected by the corporation's conduct and the public benefit of professionals involved in the travel industry. The corporation will provide education mentorship, business development and community building for travel industry professionals on a global basis.
29	In addition, the Corporation has the purpose of creating a general public benefit in accordance with Section 362(a) of the DGCL, in particular by developing, distributing and promoting a low-cost and easy-to-use mobile application to enhance financial literacy among underserved communities worldwide.
30	The corporation is formed with the purpose of creating general public benefit through impact investing in companies representing various sectors, including safety and security, energy and the environment, healthcare and sustainable resources.

31	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to (a) establish a set of internationally-recognized standards -- the WELL Building Standard -- for buildings and communities to ensure that living and work spaces are designed and built to protect and improve the health and wellness of their inhabitants; (b) research, test and improve on the WELL Building Standard; and (c) promote the creation of healthier homes, schools, hotels, offices and other spaces to improve macro public health.
32	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to accelerate high-impact businesses innovating in business, science and technology with the potential to make a positive social or environmental impact on the world.
33	The Corporation is a public benefit corporation. The purposes of the Corporation are (i) to organize and democratize the world's medical knowledge and make it generally accessible, including without limitation in support of healthcare providers and individuals with an emphasis on those with the greatest access challenges, and (ii) to engage in any lawful act or activity for which a corporation may be organized under Delaware General Corporation Law (including without limitation in support of the purpose set forth in the foregoing clause (i)).
34	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to create a positive economic benefit for qualified U.S. military Veterans by providing equity capital grants required to secure financing for purchase of franchise businesses.
35	Additionally, the corporation shall have a purpose of promoting a specific public benefit, namely increasing the flow of capital to entities with a purpose to benefit society or the environment.
36	The corporation is formed for the purpose of, but is not limited to, the specific public benefit of providing educational and cultural activities to youth in underserved communities.
37	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide and promote sustainable product end-of-life (EOL) waste recycling solutions by creating and operating IT systems and other related programs for stakeholders and governments to achieve positive environmental results.
38	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is enhance scientific collaboration to catalyze novel treatments for pediatric aortic stenosis and related disorders.
39	In pursuing any business, trade or activity which may lawfully be conduct by the Corporation, the Corporation shall promote a specific public benefit having a material positive effect (or reduction of negative effects), on health, the environment, worker's rights, local economies, and consumer advocacy and transparency of Corporation's local, national, state and world community.
40	The specific public benefit that the Corporation will promote is to increase the social and environmental sustainability and positive social impact of tourism activities.
41	The Company shall have the specific public benefit purpose of enabling organizations and individuals to rent, share and track assets in order to provide a material positive impact on the environment and society by reducing over-consumption and waste. Additional public benefits may be further specified from time to time in the Bylaws of the Corporation by a resolution or resolutions of the Board of Directors of the Corporation.
42	The specific public benefit that the Corporation will promote is the creation of economic and employment opportunities in developing countries by catalyzing sustainable small business growth through the provision of Web marketing and other cloud based solutions and services.
43	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to improve the quality of life of the aging and their families.
44	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide counseling, counselor training, & wellness seminars to the community.

45	The Corporation is organized, and shall at all times be operated for the following purposes, the intent of which is to benefit the public at large: To create an immersive online marketing platform to allow customers to learn about, review, and purchase products and services manufactures, designed, and produced by socially responsible companies whose mission is to further the general benefit of society. Second World, PBC aims to provide a public benefit by creating a material positive impact on society and the environment, taken as a whole, assessed against a third-party standard, from the business and operations of a benefit corporation, and more specifically defined as follows: 1. fostering economic opportunity for individuals and communities by creating educational and informative platforms intended to promote the advancement of knowledge with regard to ethical practices in the manufacture and creation of products; 2. nurturing and promoting indigenous culture and arts, in the United States, as well as countries all over the world; 3. preserving the environment by creating educational campaigns, workshops, and products centered around promoting and implementing sustainable products, living, and practices; 4. to fight exploitation of indigent laborers and workers. 5. Any specific public benefit as may be further specified from time to time in the Bylaws of the Corporation or in a resolution or resolutions of the Board of Directors of the Corporation.
46	The Corporation has the specific public benefit purpose of helping humanity thrive by improving the quality of and access to education.
47	The nature of the business or purposes to be conducted or promoted by the Corporation is to accelerate and enhance diversity and equality in the workforce by providing technology-based services relevant to businesses and employees, including but not limited to, services that promote and provide networking, support, education, and mentoring opportunities to women globally, and to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.
48	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to create innovative product design solutions that integrate principles of social, environmental and financial longevity and that promote social and environmental benefits to people and communities around the world.
49	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to use the power of business to solve social, health, and environmental problems, specifically through the educating, empowering, and enabling of people everywhere to be self-sufficient, self-aware, and self-treating.
50	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to develop films and other audio-visual media that promote artistic expression, education, enlightenment and cultural enhancement, and to commit a portion of our profits to awards, scholarships and-or grants to filmmakers, and non-governmental organizations that promote positive change in the world.
51	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to develop and commercialize robotics technology to assist people with Physical disabilities in performing instrumental activities of daily living.
52	The specific public benefits that the Corporation will promote by facilitating the financing and adoption of efficient, clean energy technologies in underserved communities include i) the creation of environmental benefit, ii) the generation of economic savings for small businesses and community organizations, and iii) the creation of employment opportunities for unemployed or underemployed populations. In addition, the Corporation may engage in any other lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Delaware General Corporation Law as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (the "DGCL").

53	This Corporation is a public benefit corporation and is intended to produce a public benefit or public benefits and to operate in a responsible and sustainable manner. To that end, this Corporation shall be managed in a manner that balances the stockholders' pecuniary interests, the best interests of those materially affected by this Corporation's conduct, and the public benefit or public benefits identified in this Corporation's certificate of incorporation. The nature of the business or purposes to be conducted or promoted by the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which public benefit corporations may be organized in the state of Delaware and to produce a public benefit or public benefits and to operate in a responsible and sustainable manner. This Corporation shall pursue the specific public benefit of developing and using innovative technology to make healthcare services more widely accessible to all, with a special focus on underserved populations throughout the world. Technology to reduce the disease burden of neurological and mental conditions through screening and early detection is the initial emphasis of this Corporation.
54	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to develop, promulgate and implement programs to create, foster and facilitate reduction of relational aggression among individuals associated with, but not limited to, educational institutions, communities, and other organizations.
55	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to create sustainable computer-based jobs for women and youth living in poverty in developing countries.
56	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to promote public and private initiatives, for the greater good of the communities we serve, to create and support socioeconomic opportunities through charitable channels.
57	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to benefit International community development in developing countries.
58	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to enable communities and individuals to gain greater access to networks of productivity and exchange throughout the world.
59	The nature of the business of, or the purpose to be conducted or promoted by, the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "General Corporation Law") and shall include the promotion of the public benefit of education.
60	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to develop financial technologies and a more sustainable model of project finance for the energy efficiency industry, leading to expanding levels of worldwide investment in energy efficiency and the global buildings sector contributing to meaningful reductions in the greenhouse gas emissions affecting climate change.
61	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to be an online educational service that will provide affordable access to courses covering a variety of topics.
62	The specific public benefit purpose of this Corporation is to increase transparency and facilitate access to higher education and promote opportunities for individuals and institutions related thereto.
63	The public benefits to be promoted: design and promote educational experiences, advocating clean energy and environmental sustainability.
64	The Corporation shall have a specific public benefit purpose of increasing environmental sustainability by fostering and facilitating the reuse of durable goods.
65	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is the environment to allow environmentally conscious internet shoppers to offset their "carbon footprint".
66	The purpose of the corporation is to specifically engage in providing public benefits to the environment and society by working with organizations such as the Habitat for Humanity, Connecticut Patriot Guard, and Wounded Warriors, to donate energy efficiency and renewable energy systems at no charge, in certain homes and buildings being constructed or renovated in the markets the corporation operates in. The corporation will also develop a renewal energy grant program to offer residential and commercial systems to local non-profits meeting the corporation's selection criteria.
67	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to create a specific public benefit, namely, to create a food company that sources clean, all-natural ingredients from as many responsible sources as possible.

68	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to develop novel scientific approaches to treating addiction.
69	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to grow, source, process, market and distribute ancient, nutrient dense super-grains.
70	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is economic and environmental in nature. The corporation's purpose is to help customers shop online for products made as close to where they live as possible, thereby supporting United States manufacturing, commerce, and employment, as well as reducing carbon emissions by limiting the distance that products must travel to reach the consumer.
71	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to help students, including those with special needs, and their families by connecting them with the local service providers, resources or organizations that support them, both in and out of school.
72	The Corporation shall have a specific public benefit purpose of creating a material positive impact on society, culture, education and economics taken as a whole, from the business and operations of the Corporation.
73	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide community and economic development activities.
74	The nature of the business or purposes to be conducted or promoted by the Corporation is to accelerate and enhance health care delivery by creating the personal agent for health information exchange (HIE) for one person, to promote and enhance information security and data protection for individuals and institutions through the use of technology.
75	The corporation shall balance the pecuniary interests of the stockholders, the best interests of those materially affected by the corporation's conduct, and the specific public benefit of creating a beneficial health impact on society, taken as a whole, as may be further specified from time to time in the bylaws of the corporation or a resolution or resolutions of the board of directors of the corporation.
76	The corporation shall balance the pecuniary interests of the stockholders, the best interests of those materially affected by the corporation's conduct, and the specific public benefit of creating a beneficial health impact on society, taken as a whole, by provision of spiritual care as may be further specified from time to time in the bylaws of the corporation or a resolution or resolutions of the board of directors of the corporation.
77	The specific public benefit that the Corporation will promote is the development and promotion of the wide distribution of novel pharmaceutical treatments worldwide for human diseases which are currently underserved by existing pharmaceutical companies, including without limitation, the approximately 7,000 currently commonly identified "rare diseases" of genetic origin.
78	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to inspire children living in poverty in America's most underfunded, volatile neighborhoods to become positive agents of change in their communities, to tackle their daily challenges, motivating them to reach their full potential, by promoting acceptance, leadership, knowledge, conservation, courage and health. This is done through the corporation's own GiveBackPack Program, as well as by the corporation working with and supporting various non-profit organizations.
79	The purpose of the corporation is to train Haitian workers in the skill of manufacturing top-quality Haitian products, which creates high-paying and sustainable jobs.
80	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to further the development of independent entities that promote art and other forms of culture.
81	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to facilitate ridesharing and carpooling in order to reduce traffic, pollution, and travel time.
82	The nature of the business of the Corporation and the objects or purposes to be transacted, promoted or carried on by it are as follows: 1. To engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware; and 2. To support the career development of low-income young adults who have successfully participated in post-secondary training programs through job placement, recruiting and further skills training.

83	Pursuant to Section 362 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, the specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to promote environmental sustainability, including through technology and resources development, and commercialization, with emphasis on algal biofuel systems, biological phosphorus recovery, wastewater treatment and bio-based chemical production.
84	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide tools and services to organizations for the purpose of improving their operations in a sustainable manner.
85	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is improving human health.
86	The Corporation shall have the specific public benefit purposes of (i) creating a material positive impact on society and the environment, taken as a whole, as assessed against a third party standard, from the business operations of the Corporation; and (ii) to empower artisans and to foster transparency through collaborative design, storytelling, and economic exchange.
87	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to ensure energy is used efficiently to build sustainable societies, and we aim to turn wasted resources into electricity.
88	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to lending to students of low-income backgrounds.
89	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to purchase and sell recyclable textiles.
90	The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, as amended from time to time ("DGCL"); and the specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to use advanced water, energy and other technologies to improve the environment and improve public health.
91	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to establish a socio-economic paradigm that is benign to the Earth and its environment, benign to its people socially and culturally, and gives a fair and equitable opportunity to prosper to all living things on Earth.
92	The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, for the public benefit of educating the public about campaign finance reform by, among other things, funding and directing the activities of a connected political action committee.
93	The Corporation shall have a specific public benefit purpose of creating a material positive impact on society, culture, education and economics taken as a whole, from the business and operations of the Corporation.
94	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to help families build multi-generational legacies, cultivate the leadership skills of the next generation and make social investments that strengthen local communities.
95	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to SunStand, PBC exists to help create a sustainable, just, and fulfilling future for life on this planet through its direct marketing organization and technology tool suite focused on promoting solar energy.
96	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide education, raise awareness and advocacy in support of a cure for aids.
97	The specific public benefits to be promoted by the Corporation are to promote and foster awareness of, and activities that support, brain health.
98	The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which a corporation may be organized under the General Corporation Law of Delaware, provided that the specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to facilitate the creation of free and open markets for healthcare commodities, thereby reducing the overall cost of healthcare for all Americans.
99	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide positive effect and reduction of negative effects to persons, communities and governments by providing a forum for more efficient funding and financing of projects.
100	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to spread the best of behavioral science research and technology to the widest possible audience.

101	The nature of the business or purposes to be conducted or promoted is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which public benefit corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL"), including without limitation to promote the following public benefits: to promote the advancement of protection of the oceans worldwide, including raising money for various ocean related charities.
102	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to create volunteering opportunities, drive funding to nonprofits and foster social innovation.
103	The Corporation shall have the specific public benefit purpose of assisting organizations with a social mission to maximize donor pools and revenue streams.
104	Generic - slightly different wording
105	The specific public benefit purpose of this corporation is to create a general public benefit by positively affecting the environment as a whole by developing and commercializing products that seek to preserve, protect or restore the environment, and in connection therewith to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or as may hereafter be amended from time to time, (the "DGCL").
106	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to accelerate and nurture resource and clean energy alternatives for the community.
107	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to create a positive effect on society from the business and operations of the corporation through the support, creation and use of open source software and hardware.
108	The Corporation shall have specific public benefits including, but not be limited to: (i) Use less environmentally harmful substitutes (ii) Work with suppliers who use fair labor practices and provide safe working conditions.
109	The purpose of the Corporation is to create a material positive impact on society and the environment, taken as a whole, and, more specifically, to assist businesses, governments, not-for-profit corporations and community organizations in formulating, adopting and implementing socially responsible programs and practices.
110	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to manufacture timeless luxury clothing and accessories of the utmost quality in an ethical and environmentally sound manner.
111	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to dramatically improve the efficacy, speed, sustainability and scale of the conservation efforts to protect iconic landscapes, species and the environment through financial and technological innovations.
112	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide meaningful experiences to individuals for personal and professional development.
113	The public benefit purposes of the Corporation are: (a) to create a material positive impact on society and the environment, taken as a whole, from the business and operations of the corporation. (b) to create, support, and accelerate ventures, both for-profit and not-for-profit, designed to achieve large scale positive ecological and social impact.
114	The purpose of the Corporation is to provide a positive effect (or reduction of negative effects) on the health, wellness and education of women.
115	The purpose of the Company is to create a specific public benefit by harnessing the power of technology to advance social justice, equitable access, and inclusive international development.
116	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to create a brighter future. Fibe strives to have a positive social and environmental impact. Our mission is to make sustainable and organic clothing available across the world while donating a portion to charitable organizations.
117	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is leveraging interactive online technologies to promote social welfare civic and financial education support to organizations with a public benefit purpose environmental conservation, protection and restoration and any other social or environmental benefit.
118	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to help startups in regulated industries connect with the resources they need to excel.

119	The public benefit to be promoted by the Corporation is to have a positive effect on youth by supporting programs of an artistic, charitable, cultural, economic, educational, environmental, literary, medical, religious, scientific or technological nature.
120	The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in business as a public benefit corporation to help promote increased access to resources for those in need through contributions to charitable organizations as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors of the Corporation in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law.
121	The nature of the business of the Corporation and the objects or purposes to be transacted, promoted or carried on by it are as follows: 1. To engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware; and 2. To facilitate the creation of sustainable jobs and educational opportunities for individuals throughout the United States who would otherwise face obstacles limiting their opportunities to enter the workforce.
122	The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL") and to promote the best interests of those materially affected by the Corporation's conduct and the public benefit of removing carbon dioxide from urban environments.
123	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to champion personal data independence and help unlock its value.
124	The nature of the business or purposes to be conducted or promoted by the Corporation is to produce the public benefit, as defined in DGCL SEC 362(a), of providing all students access to exceptional personalized learning and to engage in any other lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the DGCL.
125	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to engage in and promote free and open journalism through the production, publication, and community-sourced analysis and discussion of news and original and third-party-sourced works of fact and opinion.
126	The purposes for which the corporation is organized are: (a) To create a general public benefit, by helping persons with obstructive sleep apnea obtain an alternative, more tolerable, and lower cost treatment to continuous positive airway pressure and other treatments. (b) The corporation may engage in any lawful activity.
127	The Corporation shall have a specific public benefit purpose of creating a material positive impact on society by using education, technology and science to increase awareness, interest in space sciences, space exploration and to assist projects striving to improve life on earth.
128	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is: Defining entrepreneurialism as the spirit, attitude, and ability to benefit oneself, others, or an enterprise, we aim to advocate entrepreneurialism as a universal life-skill; one that anyone, regardless of personal or situational limitations, can learn and use to better understand and work within their environments to the benefit of themselves, the companies or causes they work with, their own personal stakeholders, and in-turn, all of humanity. Beyond advocacy for entrepreneurialism itself, we seek to support entrepreneurial people and organizations through education, coaching, and other professional services, tools, technology, and various initiatives designed to increase the raw entrepreneurial effectiveness in, and the enjoyment of, doing good work in business and life. By benefiting those who themselves work to create a better world, our goal is to create an exponentially positive impact on society and the environments we impact and are impacted by.
129	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to Economic development that strengthens the marketplace to help older adults live at home safely.
130	The Corporation shall have a specific public benefit purpose of creating a material positive impact on society by creating programs and campaigns that enable access to space for the common citizen, grow awareness of the benefits of space and space exploration through the promotion of education, technology and science as well as provide funding for other organizations engaged in activities that promote the betterment of the planet and its citizens.
131	The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Delaware General Corporation Law, and to promote a public benefit, as defined in the Delaware General Corporation Law, by increasing the availability of practical educational services and resources to the local community and local non-profits.

132	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to increase the survivability and safety of civilians and first responders in crisis scenarios.
133	The public benefit purpose of the corporation is to have a material positive effect or reduce the negative effects on one or more categories of persons, entities, communities or interests of an economic, educational, environmental, scientific and/or technological nature. Specifically, the nature of the business or purpose of the corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity resulting in communication, marketing, technology or other behavior change programs that make positive behaviors, like being healthy, easier and more appealing.
134	The purpose or purposes of the corporation shall be: To produce a public benefit or public benefits and to operate in a responsible and sustainable manner. To that end, this public benefit corporation shall be managed in a manner that balances the stockholders' pecuniary interests, the best interests of those materially affected by the corporation's conduct, and the public benefit or public benefits identified as accelerating the commercialization of innovative solutions to plastic pollution.
135	This Corporation shall have a specific public benefit purpose of helping people optimize their lives so they and this Corporation can change the world together. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this Corporation's role in helping people optimize their lives may include, among other things, providing access to wisdom from optimal living teachers; creating an online community to engage with other individuals committed to making a positive difference in their communities; promoting other tools and services to help people be the change they want to see in the world; and optimizing this Corporation's relationship to each of its stakeholders, including without limitation customers, employees, partners and society.
136	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to will simplify the planning and preparation for end-of-life decision making to reduce the burdens on survivors while providing suggestions for living the fullest life possible in the final decades of life.
137	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to further the development of renewable energy and related products.
138	The Corporation shall have the specific public purpose of creating a material positive impact on society by supporting the mission of non-profit organizations by, among other things, helping them to fundraise more efficiently as well as donating part of the Corporation's revenue to environmental causes, as well as to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.
139	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide and promote sustainable product end-of-life (EOL) waste recycling solutions by creating and operating IT systems and other related programs for stakeholders and governments to achieve positive environmental results.
140	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide a business networking web-site for the restaurant industry.
141	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is helping charities run their organizations more effectively by providing business and marketing services to them at low or no cost. Business and marketing services are valuable services that are often expensive, so providing them at low or no cost will help keep their costs down while helping them run their organization more effectively. In addition, Drive Prosperity hopes to contribute toward shifting the culture of charities' understanding of business practices' potential for beneficial application within charities in order to bring some of those practices to charities for their benefit.
142	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to further the development of financial instruments to further and enhance the flow of private capital into investments for social and/or environmental public good.
143	The purpose of the corporation is to: Assist college students turning their projects into successful business. Will also collect data from their site to create case studies of public policy issues.
144	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is facilitating microloans to inhabitants of poor African nations.
145	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to promote the arts, sciences, entrepreneurship, and collaboration through creating financial support for product creation & innovation. Our services are also offered to non-profit organizations at a 50% discount.

146	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to produce public benefits to create a positive effect, on persons, entities, or communities including, but not limited to, effects of a cultural, economic, or educational nature; and to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of Delaware, and by such statement all lawful acts and activities shall be within the purposes of the corporation, except for express limitations, if any.
147	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to assisting communities with increasing the production of electricity via alternative and sustainable technologies.
148	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is responsible supply chain development.
149	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to actively change the climate by re-greening decertified ecosystems and restoring hydrology globally.
150	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to promote economic mobility by offering student loans, mentoring and internships supported by a community of impact investors.
151	The Corporation shall have a specific public benefit purpose of creating a material positive impact on society, with a focus on empowering women, helping women and their families achieve economic prosperity, and encouraging gender-forward practices and gender diversity in business.
152	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is evox OmniMedia, PBC ("the Corporation") shall have a specific public benefit purpose of creating a material positive impact on society and the environment, taken as a whole, as assessed against a third party standard, from the business and operations of the Corporation. Additionally, the Corporation is engaged in promoting the arts, sciences, health, environmental stewardship, and the advancement of knowledge.
153	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to introduce the concept of "know yourself" into young learners' general education curriculum with the goal of improving existing health literacy in the United States and around the globe. This effort starts with but is not limited to, anatomy and physiology for elementary age students. To this end we will engage in any lawful act or activity for which public benefit corporations may be organized under the Delaware General Corporation Law.
154	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is the Provision Exchange seeks to provide a sustainable funding platform for faith based cause organizations.
155	The Corporation shall have a specific public benefit purpose of creating a material positive impact on society, with a focus on mobilizing travelers as a force for social good and promoting positive social progress in the areas of animal welfare, arts and culture, children, education, the environment, healthcare, human rights, international aid, poverty, and wildlife conservation.
156	The purpose of the Company shall be: (A) To provide real-world, practical business and entrepreneurship education programming to people of all ages and backgrounds, at all stages in their careers. This shall include, but shall not be limited to, (i) providing access to standard and customized "playbooks" with practical information guidance on starting, managing and running a business, and (ii) hosting events, educational workshops, webinars, and online educational programming where people can get knowledge and hands-on experience and learn from leaders in the field of business formation and management; and (B) To engage in an lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists, or as may hereafter be amended from time to time.
157	The nature of the business or purposes to be conducted or promoted by the Corporation is to engage in activities that promote Civic Agriculture, including the creation of neighborhood-based food systems and development of urban agriculture projects, and to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.
158	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to Blak Aker is an online company that delivers legal information to the public at no charge and in a manner that is comprehensible to the public, regardless of legal training. We seek to promote public access to the public domain.
159	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to GovReady PBC provides information assurance and IT compliance services and tools to federal government, local government and non-government organizations. The Corporation shall have as specific public benefit purpose of improving and lowering the cost of government and non-government innovation in digital services for citizens, taken as a whole, as assessed against a third party standard, from the business and operations of the Corporation.

160	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to promote literacy and reading proficiencies including (but not limited to) in low income and underserved communities.
161	The purpose of the Company is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or as may hereafter be amended from time to time. In accordance with subchapter XV of the Delaware Code relating to the General Corporation Law, the specific public benefit purpose of the Company is to promote the preservation of the environment, the improval of human health and the provision of educational resources.
162	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to operate worldwide developing and offering climate resilient energy infrastructure solutions; providing urban and rural communities with access to clean energy and climate resilient energy generation solutions; providing solutions for climate resilient agriculture, for the development and support of micro and macro economic activities, job creation, education, healthcare, cultural growth, social stability and in general for a sustainable future.
163	The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, as amended from time to time, or any successor thereto, including but not limited to, the public benefit purpose of reducing the environmental impact of information technology asset disposition for end-of-life electronics by utilizing processes and methods that minimize the environmental impact of repurposing or disposing of these items.
164	The Corporation is a public benefit corporation organized under the General Corporation Law and the Corporation has elected to be subject to Section 361 of the General Corporate Law. The Corporation shall have a public benefit purpose of creating a material positive impact on society and to operate in a responsible and sustainable manner, as required under Section 363 of the General Corporate Law. This impact shall be assessed by evaluating the business and operations of the Corporation as a whole. The Corporation also has a specific public benefit purpose to promote innovation in education and improved access to quality schooling.
165	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to create environmentally sustainable products and to encourage the pursuit of healthy lifestyles and sustainable living while supporting global charities.
166	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide therapies for the treatment of infectious diseases that are accessible and affordable.
167	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to develop powerful tools that improve everyone's ability to collaborate with people for the community good and preserve user privacy.
168	The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"). The purposes of the Corporation shall include pursuing (i) the general public benefit of having a material positive impact on society and the environment, taken as a whole, from the business and operations of the Corporation; and (ii) the specific public benefits of increasing access to safe, high-quality human donor milk adapted for neonatal clinical and post-discharge settings; increasing breastfeeding rates and the economic empowerment of women; and supporting related research.
169	The purpose of the Synergia Healthcare Solutions is to improve the health and well being of Diabetes patients.
170	The Corporation shall have a specific public benefit purpose of creating a material positive impact on society, with a focus on unleashing the real potential of people and organizations to create social change, and encouraging the development of innovative solutions to pressing societal problems through the universal languages of music, art, and sport.
171	The specific public benefit that the Corporation will promote is to generate economic opportunities for low-income families by facilitating real property rights formalization and data collection. In addition, the Corporation may engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Delaware General Law as the same exists or may hereafter be amended.

172	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to: (a) To the maximum extent possible, provide prospective clients with life support systems and other related space applications products and/or services; (b) promote environmental awareness beyond the creation of jobs in the normal course of business; (c) preserve the environment, to the maximum extent possible, in the normal course of business; (d) provide analytical means for accurately assessing the carbon sink capacity of some of our rain-forest for the carbon trading market when possible; (e) promote space, sciences, arts or advancement of knowledge; (f) increase the flow of capital to entities with a public benefit purpose; and (g) confer any other particular benefit to environmental activists or on society.
173	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to create a better news ecosystem by strengthening the journalist community and providing people the ability to discover and take ownership of the news they consume.
174	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to support the artistic and non-profit communities through the facilitation of mutually beneficial collaboration. The corporation will direct at least 10% of its gross marketing revenues to Non-Profit Organizations (NPOs).
175	The public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to create and maintain an online hub and portal for the development, storage, maintenance, curation, sharing and dissemination of educational content.
176	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to Invictus Me PBC provides individuals with a cancer diagnosis and their families with information, tools, and a circle of support to empower them in their fight to eradicate cancer.
177	The specific public benefit to be promoted by the Company is the acceleration and democratization of human subject research to advance scientific and medical discovery.
178	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is expanding humanity's understanding and capability for improving life.
179	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to promote professional education and economic development for and among global middle market professionals and organizations.
180	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to help improve public health disease prevention.

181	The purpose of the corporation is to advance the State-of-the-Art in aerospace technology generally; to make aerospace research conducted by Students & Startups more economical, efficient and productive, to reduce the costs of placing and maintaining nano/microsatellite payloads in Low Earth Orbit, or aboard the International Space Station and of retrieving them controllably w/o orbital debris, to deploy next-generation Information Technology infrastructure for the operation and exploitation of non-traditional space-borne assets. To support Post-Associate (upper-division Undergraduate) education in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics, with emphasis on colleges and universities in the Mid-Atlantic Region; To provide improved access to research laboratories, facilities and equipment to STEM - majors, To establish reliable conduits for investment in and financing of experimental nano/microspace payload prototypes and their launch opportunities by both institutional investors and the general public, To furnish advanced dedicated networking platforms for secure distributed realtime collaboration by Students & Startups, both regionally and globally. To develop meaningful technical resources for regional climate and environmental protection through the demonstration and deployment of advanced technologies in remote sensing and alternative energy; To conduct regular airborne monitoring of the Chesapeake Bay and Chincoteague Estuary with multispectral sensing technologies on behalf of sponsoring agencies or NGOs, including in-situ water sampling using amphibious assets where appropriate, To trigger and stimulate the development of an indigenous industrial base for the production of sustainable biofuels for commercial aviation and ground transportation in Maryland and Virginia, in protection of the Chesapeake Bay Watershed, through flight/road demonstration, instrumental data collection and long-term local sourcing and procurement, To showcase the use of exemplary leading-edge approaches to renewable energy and wireless networking/remote communications to protect and evaluate the regional ecosystem, employing alternative technologies in need of market qualification and acceptance. To promote economic development and community revitalization on the Delmarva Peninsula/Eastern Shore, through the attraction and stimulation of industrial activity in Accomack County, Virginia and its environs, associated with the commercialization of space (and near-space) transportation activities at the Mid-Atlantic Regional Spaceport/Wallops Research Park, at the NASA Wallops Flight Facility; To cultivate a pipeline of prototypical nano/microsatellite demonstration payloads originating within the Mid-Atlantic Region, likely to evolve into commercially viable, indigenous, emerging-growth technology ventures successful in the global aerospace industry, To attract the new generation of Air-Launch and high altitude balloon providers to establish flight operations at Wallops, and to extend the technological lifetimes of legacy space assets, including Sounding Rocket infrastructure. To contribute to regional industrial development by connecting other research centers in isolated rural Mid-Atlantic communities with the more comprehensive academic and entrepreneurial resource base available in the larger metropolitan areas of Washington, D.C., Baltimore, MD Norfolk, VA and across North America.
182	The specific public benefit purposes of the Corporation are to: 1. Create a material positive impact on society by providing affordable, durable homes to people around the world. 2. Create a material positive impact on the environment by aiming to use recycled and recyclable, locally sources materials in the production of affordable, durable homes, and by limiting carbon dioxide emissions during the production of these homes.
183	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide online education services that provide information and resources for individuals interested in meditation.
184	The Corporation shall have the specific public benefit purpose of providing innovative systems and solutions for improving living conditions in communities throughout the World facing social, health and sustainable developmental challenges.
185	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to promote the general health and welfare of the corporation's customer base by delivering new therapy and wellness alternatives through advanced technology and innovation, and further promote the education, adoption and utilization of advanced interactive experiences utilizing the best practices of gamification and virtual engagement.
186	The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which a corporation may be organized under the General Corporation Law of Delaware ("DGCL") provided that the specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to connect images and content within television broadcasts to specific information for each, including related capabilities, to better facilitate raising funds for philanthropic purposes.
187	The specific public benefit to be promoted by the company is to help people through use of technology.

188	In addition, the company's public benefit purpose is "a positive effect of an educational, environmental, medical, scientific, and technological nature through its telehealth and telemedicine platforms and community outreach to help treat and prevent disease through lifestyle interventions.
189	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to share the health benefits of turmeric and ginger with the public.
190	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to promote the economic advancement of women and girls through entrepreneurship, innovation and investing.
191	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to We help people make healthier body care choices and transform the body care industry for the better to improve human health, strengthen communities and protect the environment.
192	The Corporation is and shall be a public benefit corporation, within the meaning of Section 362 of Delaware General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "Delaware General Corporation Law") (or any successor or replacement provision of the Delaware General Corporation Law), and is organized and operates to : achieve the public benefit of education of youth across the globe to become leaders based on an empowerment education model that combines online, in-person, and immersion learning programs, collaborative application of learned skills, international faculty, and worldwide community projects, operate in a responsible and sustainable manner that balances the stockholders' pecuniary interests, the best interests of those materially affected by the Corporation's conduct, including students, educators, and their communities, and the public benefits identified in this Certificate of Incorporation; and engage in any other business or public benefit purpose consistent with the Delaware General Corporation Law applicable to public benefit corporations and this Certificate of Incorporation.
193	In pursuing any business, trade or activity which may lawfully be conduct by the Corporation, the Corporation shall promote a specific public benefit having a material positive effect (or reduction of negative effects), on health, the environment, worker's rights, local economies, and consumer advocacy and transparency of Corporation's local, national, state and world community.
194	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is fix the Broken Legal System, including by Crowd Sourcing Capital for Social Justice and other Litigation, and any endeavor that improves access to justice. We promote a market solution to social justice and to correct the systemic economic unfairness.
195	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is: To empower music and musicians through technology.
196	In addition, pursuant to Section362(a)(1) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, the specific public benefits to be promoted by the Corporation are to (i) reduce human and ecological risks associated with environmental degradation and natural resources impairment, and (ii) improve air, water, soil, and sediment quality. The Corporation will achieve these specific public benefits by focusing exclusively on the delivery of professional environmental services; and by encouraging its employees to support the communities in which we live and the clients that we serve in an environmentally responsible manner.
197	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to create a space for the artists, makers, and visionaries to gather their inspiration, projects, and ideas that are bettering what is to BHuman.
198	This corporation is organized under the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL") as a public benefit corporation. This corporation may engage in any lawful act or activity for which a public benefit corporation may be organized under the DGCL. Without limiting the foregoing, the special purpose of the corporation is to balance social benefits with profits in developing, promoting, and facilitating the careful medical and legal uses of psychedelics, marijuana, and other approaches to modifying consciousness, for the benefit of the public.
199	The Corporation shall balance the pecuniary interests of the stockholders, the best interests of those materially affected by the Corporation's conduct, and the specific public benefit of improving public discourse in the United States for all stakeholders in the electoral and governance processes.
200	The Corporation shall have a specific public benefit purpose of creating a material, positive impact on society and the environment, taken as a whole, as assessed against a third party standard, from the business and operations of the Corporation in its production of gluten-free, corn-free, vegan products employing sustainable production methods and enhancing human health and the conservation of natural resources.

201	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to: Provide a material positive impact on society and the environment, taken as a whole, from the business and operations of the benefit corporation by providing assistance and guidance to young social entrepreneurs as they pursue their passions and dreams to change the world positively, and to foster social entrepreneurs by helping them navigate the path to success at every critical point by providing access to knowledge, opportunity, and networking; with such other public benefit as may be further specified from time to time in the Bylaws of the Corporation or by a resolution or resolutions of the Board of Directors of the Corporation.
202	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to create software and related technology products with the goal of training, equipping, and protecting individuals and organizations information, privacy and communications in cyberspace.
203	The Corporation empowers people to Create, Give and Inspire to better the world we live in. The Corporation shall deliver its benefit statement biannually, available to the public on its website, the results of its efforts to promote specific public benefit purposes, which are to: (a) Create directly or indirectly a material positive impact on society and the environment, taken as a whole, from the business and operations of the Corporation that supports and benefits purposes relating to 1 or more categories of persons, entities, communities or interests including, but not limited to, effects of an artistic, charitable, cultural, economic, educational, environmental, literary, medical, religious, scientific or technological nature. (b) Allocate a percentage of net income, as directed by the Board of Directors, toward 1 or more categories of persons, entities, communities or interests including, but not limited to, effects of an artistic, charitable, cultural, economic, educational, environmental, literary, medical, religious, scientific or technological nature. (c) Increasing the capital flow to 1 or more categories of persons, entities, communities or interests including, but not limited to effects of an artistic, charitable, cultural, economic, educational, environmental, literary, medical, religious; scientific or technological nature. (d) Support the efforts of people to participate, engage in or promote activities relating to an artistic, charitable, cultural, economic, educational, environmental, literary, medical, religious, scientific or technological nature, among others.
204	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide assimilation/participation services to American Africans including financial, career/business literacy, advocacy for community issues, education in social, political responsibilities, rights and privileges.
205	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide the community with low cost alternatives to high interest loans.
206	The Corporation shall also have the specific public benefit purpose of fostering worldwide collaboration to solve global challenges through providing and maintaining a global online platform.
207	The purpose of the Corporation is to produce and sell healthy food and to create a material positive impact on the lives of the men and women employed by the Corporation by using a portion of the revenue of the Corporation to finance education, health care and other solutions for the unmet needs of such persons.
208	The Corporation shall also have the specific public benefit purposes of helping investors, entrepreneurs, and executives build value-driven organizations; supporting faith-based communities, particularly of the Christian faith; fostering the investment of capital in values-driven businesses; and carrying out charitable works through donations and service.
209	The corporation shall have the specific public benefit purposes of making a positive impact on the health and wellbeing of society, advancing science of medicine, promoting medical research, improving the quality of healthcare, and improving access to healthcare.
210	The nature of the business or purposes to be conducted or promoted by the Corporation is to engage in activities that promote Civic Agriculture, including the creation of neighborhood-based food systems and development of urban agriculture projects, and to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.
211	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to improve Americans' lives by helping them love where they work, and work where they Fit In.
212	The specific public benefit of the corporation is making the lives of patients easier by reducing anxiety and removing adherence barriers.

213	The purpose or purposes of the corporation shall be to pursue the specific public bene of advancing the upliftment of humanity through innovative educational programs centered around the teachings of visionary leaders and teachers and in furtherance thereof, to carry on any and all business and to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of Delaware.
214	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to Leader in fair, equitable, transparent, and cooperative experiences with focus on disruptive innovation: join the revolution.
215	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to promote the arts and artistic education, including photography and other visual arts; development employment, promotion, funding and career development opportunities for artists and photographers; and otherwise create a material positive impact taken as a whole on society.
216	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is as follows: The World Table PBC exists to make the world a better place by helping everyone identify, develop and benefit from trustworthy relationships.
217	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to: The corporation exists to help create a sustainable, just and fulfilling future for life on this planet through its direct marketing organization and technology tool suite focused on promoting solar energy.
218	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is consciously effect societal and environmental change through renewable technology solutions that produce resources used to sustain global communities' social economical educational and legal infrastructure.
219	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is the advancement of social enterprise and social innovation through the provision of professional services to social enterprises and nonprofits, including, but not limited to, those providing positive effects of an artistic, charitable, cultural, economic, educational, environmental, literary, medical, religious, scientific or technological nature.
220	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to increase funding to organizations that improve human health.
221	The nature of the business or purposes to be conducted or promoted is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "General Corporation Law"), provided that the specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is enabling people to use data to improve education for students, especially students from underserved communities.
222	The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of Delaware (the "DGCL"); and the specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to use media and technology to spread mindfulness and well-being through mindful content, creative civic engagement, and transformative social activities and interactivity.
223	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is: a) To donate to the public domain any software or hardware intellectual property that the corporation develops which is embodied in products it sells. This giving is often more generally now known as open-source software and open-source hardware. Products the corporation develops are to be produced for the benefit of the public. The open giving of knowledge to make them is designed to further increase the public good and stands in contrast to patenting intellectual property or otherwise holding it in secret. Trademarks, trade names, copyrights, advertising, publications, and communications (printed or otherwise) are not to be construed as being part of this required giving. b)To predominantly have a positive impact on society and on those who are materially affected by the corporation's conduct, and in so doing strike a balance between developing or manufacturing useful products, seeking to meet needs of customers, seeking to preserve the wellbeing of the firm, and seeking to achieve adequate profitability. The corporation will take into consideration income distribution among all people who it directly employs and compensates for their work and illustrate how that income distribution compares to past income distribution curve estimates for the USA. Shareholder value and/or short-term profit maximization shall not override above considerations taken as a whole.
224	The specific public benefit purpose of Pour Your Cup foster a culture of generosity by making it easy for people to find, establish and share the giving relationships they want.

225	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to improve the lives of workers and the communities in which they live through improved communication, transparency and accountability in global fashion supply chains.
226	Twoodie is a for-profit corporation organized under and subject to the requirements of the General Corporation Law of Delaware that is intended to produce a public benefit or public benefits and to operate in a responsible and sustainable manner. To that end, Twoodie shall be managed in a manner that balances the stockholders' pecuniary interests, the best interests of those materially affected by its conduct, and the public benefits identified in this Certificate of Incorporation; (c) the specific public benefit purposes of Twoodie are to: i. Make the best products: by (1) designing and manufacturing high quality products as defined by durability, multi-functionalism and non-obsolescence; and (2) designing and manufacturing products that are made from materials that can be reused, recycled or biodegrade. ii. Establish a professional workplace; including by affording educational opportunities and healthcare to employees. iii. Preserve the environment; by seeking to reduce the impact of operations in water use, water quality, energy use, greenhouse gas emissions, chemical use, toxicity and waste. iv. Share 1%; by contributing at least 1% of the corporation's annual net revenue to early childhood healthcare activities (recognizing that all corporations can afford to share 1%). Early childhood healthcare activities comprise any activities that may directly or indirectly benefit the health of children between zero and eight years of age. Contributions shall be in cash or in kind and shall include the expenses of Twoodie associated with administering such contributions valued at the corporation's cost. For the purpose of this specific public benefit, "net revenue" means the total sales of goods and services of Twoodie, less returns, discounts and allowances. v. Promote transparency; by publishing through its website or in print information relating to its business operations, including, no less than biennially, the statement as to the corporation's performance in relation to the specific public benefit purposes set out herein as required by Section 366 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware. vi. Lead by example; Twoodie may share intellectual property, proprietary information and best practices with other businesses if the board of directors of Twoodie determines that doing so may improve environmental or corporation governance practices.
227	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to produce events with the aim of building empathy between peoples of diverse backgrounds, educating and raising public awareness of environmental issues of concern, human health issues, as well as community wealth building and economic sustainability.
228	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to facilities, educate, and enable Zero Net Energy Everthing (ZNEZ) raw and recycled metals and materials to and throughout the global supply chain.
229	The specific public benefit that the Corporation will provide is the promotion of health, well-being, social development and/or enhanced quality of life.
230	Generic
231	The Corporation also has a specific public benefit purpose to promote innovation in marine construction and reduce potential harmful environmental impacts of marine construction.
232	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to "Lobby the American Peoples interest to promote material positive impacts on society and the environment, taken as a whole, as assessed against a third-party standard, from the business and operations of a benefit corporation."
233	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to make data come to life in support of socio development project and policy making.
234	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to provide entrepreneurial opportunities, life coaching/mentoring & social-emotional resources to girls & women; supports women-owned businesses.
235	The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, provided that the specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to facilitate the making of charitable donations through a credit card program that allows cardholders to earn donations for charitable organizations.

236	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to increase happiness and success in people's lives by making it easy and rewarding to give and receive help by channeling the human spirit of kindness and altruism. KarmaCircles PBC makes it easy and rewarding for every professional to give and receive help for free. Any professional (receiver) can request another professional (giver) for a phone/online/in-person meeting and receive the help. KarmaCircles PBC also allows the receiver to publicly thank the giver, which in turn builds the giver's online reputation around a specific skill set.
237	The specific public benefit purpose of this corporation is to drive resiliency in communities through better buildings.
238	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to create lifestyle fashion apparel that helps share a positive message while creating jobs in local, under-served communities of major metropolitan areas in the U.S. At least 10% of profits are invested into local communities for job creation programs and grants to non-profits/agencies with the mission of job training & up-skilling. In addition, jobs are also created by the company through the process of making the t-shirts and also selling/marketing our products.
239	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is: To provide information and technology services to support better analysis and decision-making in order to improve the delivery of benefits to society and/or the environment.
240	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to address the acute national shortage of transplantable lungs and other organs with a variety of technologies that either delay the need for such organs or expand the supply.
241	The Corporation's additional purpose is to promote economic growth and political stability in the developing countries of Asia, Africa, and Latin America while attracting capital and generating a suitable return to the Corporation's owners. By way of example and without limitation of the foregoing, the Corporation may commit 10% of its profits to promoting economic growth and political stability in the third world (i) by investing in and/or supporting non-profit and other for-profit ventures advancing those social goals (e.g., third-world for-profit startups and firms providing third-world micro-loans), and (ii) by funding (even at small or no return) business and innovation competitions in underdeveloped countries.
242	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to train and employ youth with barriers to employment, provide mentorship, capacity, and incubation to low income food producers, and produce and sell locally sourced foods.
243	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to design, develop, manufacture, distribute and sell affordable drinking-water treatment technologies that facilitate access to safe drinking water and improve health and quality of life. The Corporation shall therefore create a material positive impact on society and the environment, taken as a whole, as assessed against a third party standard, from its business and operations.
244	The specific public benefit to be promoted by the Company is to help the planet and its inhabitants holistically through products, services, partnerships, charitable alliances and other means.
245	The specific public benefits to be promoted by the Corporation are to facilitate the provision of economic, social or environmental benefit services in areas where these services are needed, including emerging markets, without doing business with or otherwise knowingly supporting persons or entities engaged in acts of force, exploitation, expropriation or other harmful activities.
246	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to have a social and an environmental impact by driving more women to the tech industry/renewable energy industry and raising awareness about pressing environmental challenges such as Climate Change, Global Warming, Water Degradation, Electronic and Nuclear Waste, Pollution, Ocean System Collapse, Land Rush, Over Population and Stainability.
247	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to better the life through our contribution in our community.
248	To provide fisheries industry participants information and software services that promote fishing practices and management that are aligned with the conservation and sustainability of fish stocks.

249	The specific public benefit purpose of the Corporation is to promote the recognition and credentialing of a wide range of knowledge, skills training, professional experience, and education, through an open badging network. The Corporation shall therefore create a material positive impact on society as a whole. The Board of Directors may, from time to time, adopt a third-party standard by which the Public Benefit Corporation's promotion of the public benefit or public benefits identified herein and/or the best interests of those materially affected by the corporation's conduct shall be evaluated.
250	The specific public benefit purpose of the corporation is to passionately and profitably empower the energy poor through innovative and sustainable microgrid electric power solutions.