

Internal People Management Training Request for Proposal (RFP)

The Barack Obama Foundation will release a RFP in February 2024 seeking a qualified and experienced people management training organization to provide Foundation staff with skills training.

What is the mission of the Obama Foundation?

The Foundation's mission is to inspire, empower, and connect people to change their world. That mission begins at home, on the South Side of Chicago, where the Foundation is building the Obama Presidential Center in the heart of the historic Jackson Park. In addition to building the Obama Presidential Center, the Foundation currently has active programs all over the city of Chicago, country, and the world.

The Barack Obama Foundation is a nonprofit tax-exempt organization under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

What will the scope include?

The Foundation seeks proposals for qualified people management training organizations with in-person capabilities in Chicago and Washington D.C. to provide manager skills training to Foundation staff.

What does the Obama Foundation expect of an Internal People Management Training service provider?

- Be a professional and committed partner to the Foundation
- Offer diverse and local representation within a team that has expertise in the nonprofit sector and cultural institutions
- Satisfy prescribed budget and schedule requirements
- Provide best solutions for the Foundation's continued growth and success
