

President's Reading Room Opening Day Collection Purchase IFB

The Barack Obama Foundation is seeking bids from a vendor specializing in library and collection development services. More information and deadlines will be provided upon execution of a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA).

What is the mission of the Obama Foundation?

The Foundation's mission is to inspire, empower, and connect people to change their world. That mission begins at home, on the South Side of Chicago, where the Foundation is building the Obama Presidential Center in the heart of historic Jackson Park. In addition to building the Obama Presidential Center, the Foundation currently has active programs all over the city of Chicago, country, and the world.

The Barack Obama Foundation is a nonprofit tax-exempt organization under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

What will the scope include?

The scope will include developing the book list for the opening day collection for the President's Reading Room, a non-circulating collection in the Chicago Public Library branch at the Obama Presidential Center. Additionally, the vendor will source, procure, deliver, and install the books during the OPC soft opening, or as determined by the OPC Museum schedule.

What does the Obama Foundation expect of bidders to the President's Reading Room Collection Purchase IFB?

- Be a professional and committed partner to the Foundation
- Offer diverse and local representation within a team that has expertise in the nonprofit sector, library and cultural institutions
- Satisfy prescribed budget and schedule requirements
- Provide best solutions for the Foundation's continued growth and success
- Work collaboratively with the OPC's Curatorial team and internal OF stakeholders to develop the list of books for the PRR collection.
