

Girls Opportunity Alliance - Storytelling Videographer

The Barack Obama Foundation is seeking Request for Qualifications from a vendor specializing in videography. More information and the deadline for proposals will be provided upon execution of a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA).

What is the mission of the Obama Foundation?

The Foundation's mission is to inspire, empower, and connect people to change their world. That mission begins at home, on the South Side of Chicago, where the Foundation is building the Obama Presidential Center in the heart of historic Jackson Park. In addition to building the Obama Presidential Center, the Foundation currently has active programs all over the city of Chicago, country, and the world.

The Barack Obama Foundation is a nonprofit tax-exempt organization under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

What will the scope include?

The vendor would report to the Girls Opportunity Alliance. The Videographer will film and edit short storytelling videos for use on social media and online with corresponding still photography featuring the work of organizations supported by the Girls Opportunity Alliance in Chicago and around the world. The stories will be utilized globally to drive engagement, awareness, and action worldwide around the value of adolescent girls and the importance of empowering and educating them.

What does the Obama Foundation expect of bidders to the Girls Opportunity Alliance - Storytelling Videographer?

- Be a professional and committed partner to the Foundation
- Offer diverse and local representation within a team that has expertise in the nonprofit sector and cultural institutions
- Satisfy prescribed budget and schedule requirements
- Provide best solutions for the Foundation's continued growth and success
- Ability to capture content from around the world, including in rural and hard to reach settings
- Demonstrated ability to work in partnership with local organizations to capture stories in a safe and ethical manner
- Demonstrated ability to work with young people, especially young women and girls, with a high-level of empathy
