

Non-Profit Due Diligence Research Contractor

The Barack Obama Foundation is seeking proposals from a vendor specializing in due diligence research of small, community based non-for profit organizations in the United States and around the world. More information will be provided upon execution of a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA).

What is the mission of the Obama Foundation?

The Foundation's mission is to inspire, empower, and connect people to change their world. That mission begins at home, on the South Side of Chicago, where the Foundation is building the Obama Presidential Center in the heart of historic Jackson Park. In addition to building the Obama Presidential Center, the Foundation currently has active programs all over the city of Chicago, country, and the world.

The Barack Obama Foundation is a nonprofit tax-exempt organization under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

What will the scope include?

The selected vendor will be responsible for providing due diligence reporting to the Obama Foundation on up to 100 non-profit organizations, referred to the vendor by the Foundation, located in the United States and around the world. The vendor will be able to provide a well-rounded review of referred organizations including but not limited to: Compliance Review, Reputation Review, Implementation Review, and a Fiscal Responsibility Review.

What does the Obama Foundation expect of bidders to the Non-Profit Due Diligence Research Proposal?

- Be a professional and committed partner to the Foundation
- Offer diverse and local representation within a team that has expertise in the nonprofit sector, including in international development, and cultural institutions
- Satisfy prescribed budget and schedule requirements
- Provide best solutions for the Foundation's continued growth and success
- Ability to perform comprehensive due diligence of a diverse range of globally based small, non-for-profit organizations in the areas described above.
- Demonstrated experience with reviewing organizations against United States sanctions and anti-terrorism databases
