

Schroders Personal Wealth hires Dominic Sheridan as CEO of ACD business

16 November 2022

Schroders Personal Wealth (SPW) has appointed Dominic Sheridan as CEO of its Authorised Corporate Director (ACD) business, subject to regulatory approval.

Dominic will be responsible for leading and developing the ACD, launched in December 2019. The ACD is responsible for the day-to-day governance of the SPW funds, ensuring they are managed in line with their objectives, strategy and principles.

Dominic joins from Omnis Investments Ltd, where he was the Chief Executive Officer and established an asset management company with £10bn + AUM and a discretionary fund management business. He has over 25 years' wealth and investment industry experience. He has extensive fund governance, portfolio management, investment operations and change management expertise. Prior to his role at Omnis, he has held senior roles at PineBridge Investment Management, F&C Asset Management and Royal & Sun Alliance Asset Management.

Mark Duckworth, Chief Executive Officer at Schroders Personal Wealth said:

"Our ACD represents an important part of our business and the continued development of this remains one of our key priorities.

I'm so pleased to be welcoming Dominic to SPW as we continue to pursue our growth plans. Dominic will play a fundamental part in leading and developing our ACD. He has a strong track record in fund governance and investment operations, and has the skillset to not only lead, but run and build our ACD business."

Dominic Sheridan, CEO of Schroders Personal Wealth ACD said:

"I'm delighted to be joining SPW at such an exciting time and look forward to leading the ACD business through its next stage of growth and development."
