The 2024 tour promises to be an extraordinary journey that will captivate audiences again with this record-breaking show that combines high-energy Irish dancing, original music, storytelling, and sensuality.

Lord of the Dance is described by the Los Angeles Times as a 'showpiece extravaganza', transporting the audience to a mythical realm. It boasts over 150,000 taps per performance, an enchanting display of precision dancing, artistic lighting, and breathtaking pyrotechnics.

The visionary behind this spectacle, Michael Flatley, revives and updates Lord of the Dance for a new generation of fans. The journey to this spectacular production started with Flatley's dream to create the greatest Irish dance show in the world. It reached the world stage after his show-stealing performance at Eurovision 1994 and went on to shatter records, garnering unparalleled accolades worldwide, catapulting Irish dance to new heights and touching the hearts and minds of millions.

Despite Flatley embarking on his final tour in 2016, performing on stage for the last time at Caesar's Colosseum in Las Vegas, he has continued as the show's creator, producer, and choreographer.

SEVENTEEN STORIES. EIGHT CHANCES.
ONE SINGULAR SENSATION!

New York City. 1975. On an empty Broadway stage, seventeen performers are put through their paces in the final, gruelling audition for a new Broadway musical. Only eight will make the cut.

A Chorus Line revolutionised Broadway, with creator Michael Bennett using real-life testimonies from late-night recording sessions with dancers which tell searing stories of ambition, shattered hopes, and what it really costs to follow your dreams.

Originally produced at Curve and Directed by Nikolai Foster, with a book by James Kirkwood and Nicholas Dante, music by Marvin Hamlisch and lyrics by Edward Kleban, A Chorus Line features iconic songs including One, I Hope I Get It, Nothing and the hit ballad What I Did For Love.

The legendary Adam Cooper (Singin' in the Rain, Matthew Bourne's Swan Lake) and Carly Mercedes Dyer (Anything Goes, Dreamgirls) reprise their roles as Zach and Cassie, which they played to great critical acclaim at Curve in 2021.
