What you will see

---

A

Station Tilburg, Spoorlaan 35

The current Tilburg station building was built in 1965 to a design by architect Koen van der Gaast and replaced the old station building from 1863.

Spoorzone

The Spoorzone perfectly combines the social aspect of the city with the experimental. Once used to tinker with trains on this former NS site, the Spoorzone is now a playground for urban explorers, terrestrialists, skaters, pioneers, creatives and party animals.

Spoorpark, Spoorpark 1

A groundbreaking citizens' initiative. That is the Spoorpark in Tilburg. Located on the former Van Gend & Loos terrain in the Tilburg Spoorzone this is a multifunctional place.

Museum De Pont, Wilhelminapark 1

De Pont is the museum for contemporary art in Tilburg. A monumental old factory houses changing exhibitions by leading artists from all over the world. Modern. Stylish. Progressive.

TextielMuseum, Goirkestraat 96

The TextielMuseum is a dynamic and creative museum in operation, located in a former textile factory in Tilburg. It is the only place in the world where design, art, fashion, heritage and textile innovation come together.

F

Bibliotheek De LocHal, Burgemeester Brokxlaan 1000

Right behind Tilburg station is an imposing building: the LocHal. This used to be used as a locomotive hall. Now it has been converted into the city's new living room. This is where Tilburg comes together, where people learn and are inspired.

G

Doloris Meta Maze, Spoorlaan 21C

One of the Hotspots in Tilburg is Doloris Meta Maze: a surreal art maze. Surprising, magically artistic, immensely entertaining and bizarre! An experience you can't imagine beforehand how it will turn out.

H

Piushaven, Havendijk

Piushaven makes Tilburg unique. It is the largest city harbour in Brabant. Nowhere does Tilburg sparkle, bubble and undulate more than at Piushaven. Originally an industrial port and now a boulevard between the city centre and the outskirts where daily life and leisure activities flow together.

I

Heikese Kerk, Stadhuisstraat 6

The Heikese Church is a historically important building from the 15th century dedicated to St. Peter, known for its Gothic architecture and imposing tower.

J

Dwaalgebied, Nieuwlandstraat

The wandering area excels in passion, entrepreneurship and, above all, commitment. This area is one of the most characteristic and old bits of Tilburg. Here, you will be showered with hip businesses from creative and quirky local entrepreneurs.

K

Eindpunt: info in Tilburg, Spoorlaan 33

In this Brandstore, we give Tilburg based makers a stage. Tilburg is not called the 'City of Makers' for nothing, and we like to contribute to this.
