Seeking God's direction before acting

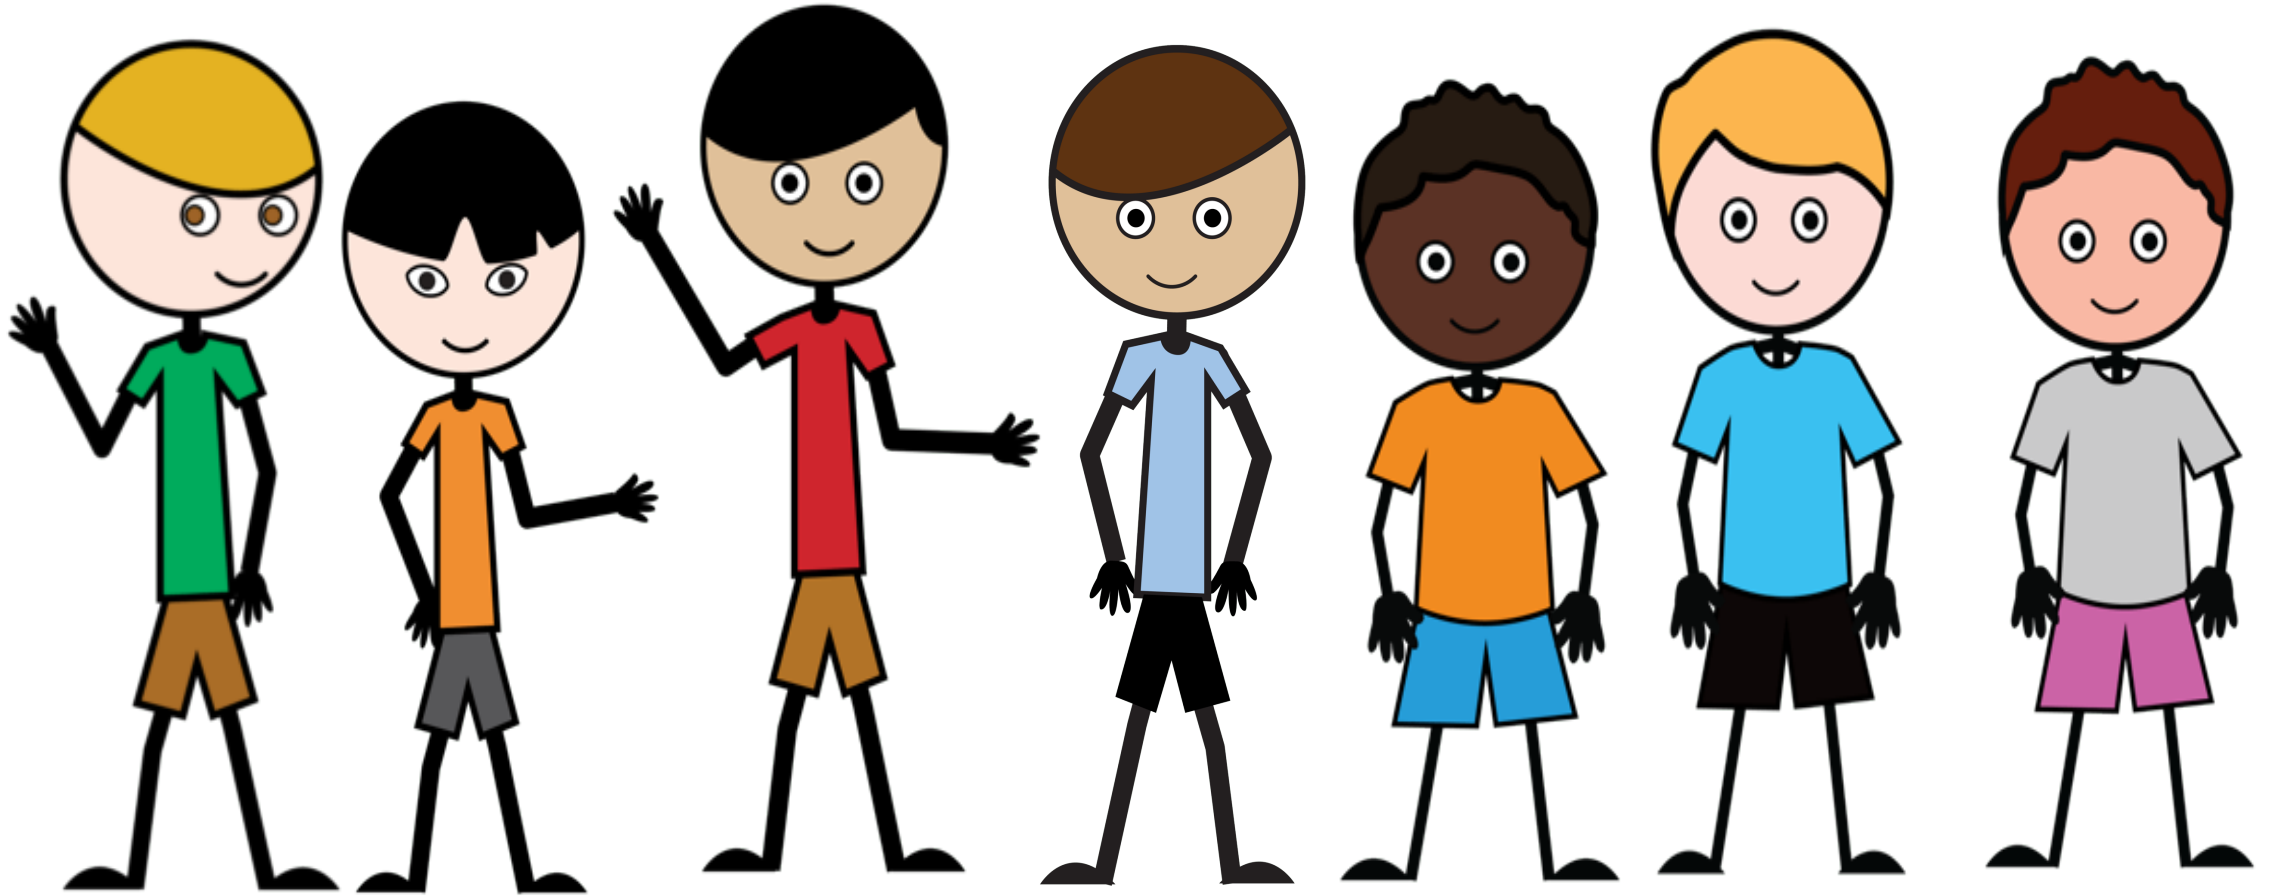

This Weeks Finish Line:
Seek God's direction and He will guide you

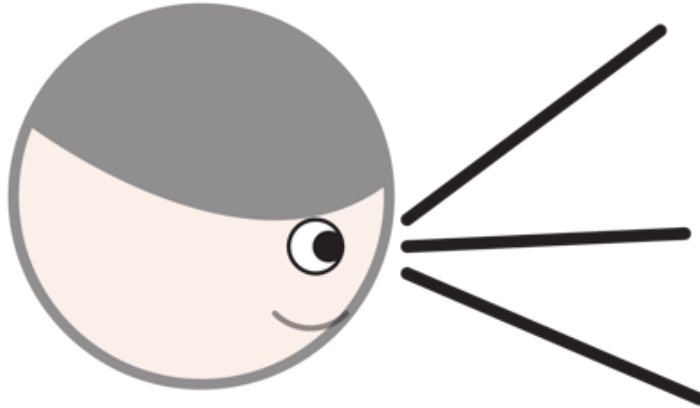

Saul was the first king of Israel. He started out as a good king, but then he stopped listening to and obeying God.

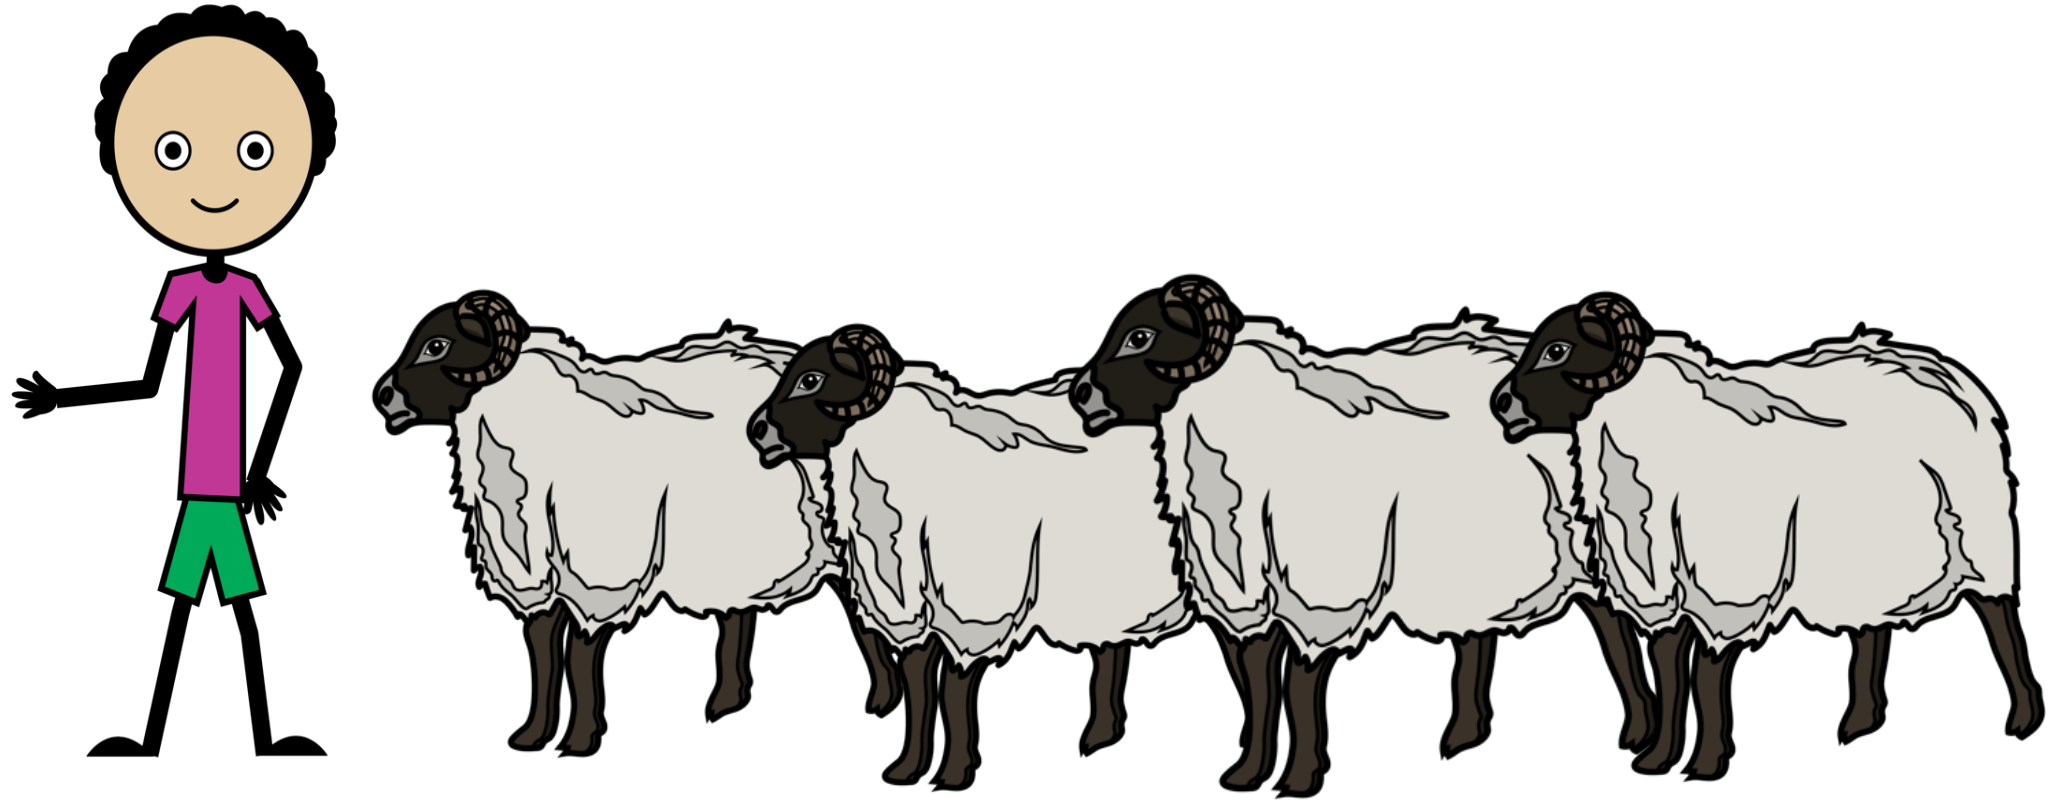

God told Samuel to go to the town of Bethlehem to find a new king for His people. God would guide him.

Samuel went to the house of a man named Jesse.
He had seven good-looking sons. Samuel was impressed.

God told Samuel none of them were the right one.
Samuel was looking at the outside.
God was looking at their heart.

Jesse had one more son named David, but he was taking care of the sheep. God told Samuel he was the one.

Samuel followed God's direction and anointed David to be the next king of Israel.

Seek God's direction and He will guide you.
