

This week's story:
Paul and Silas in Jail

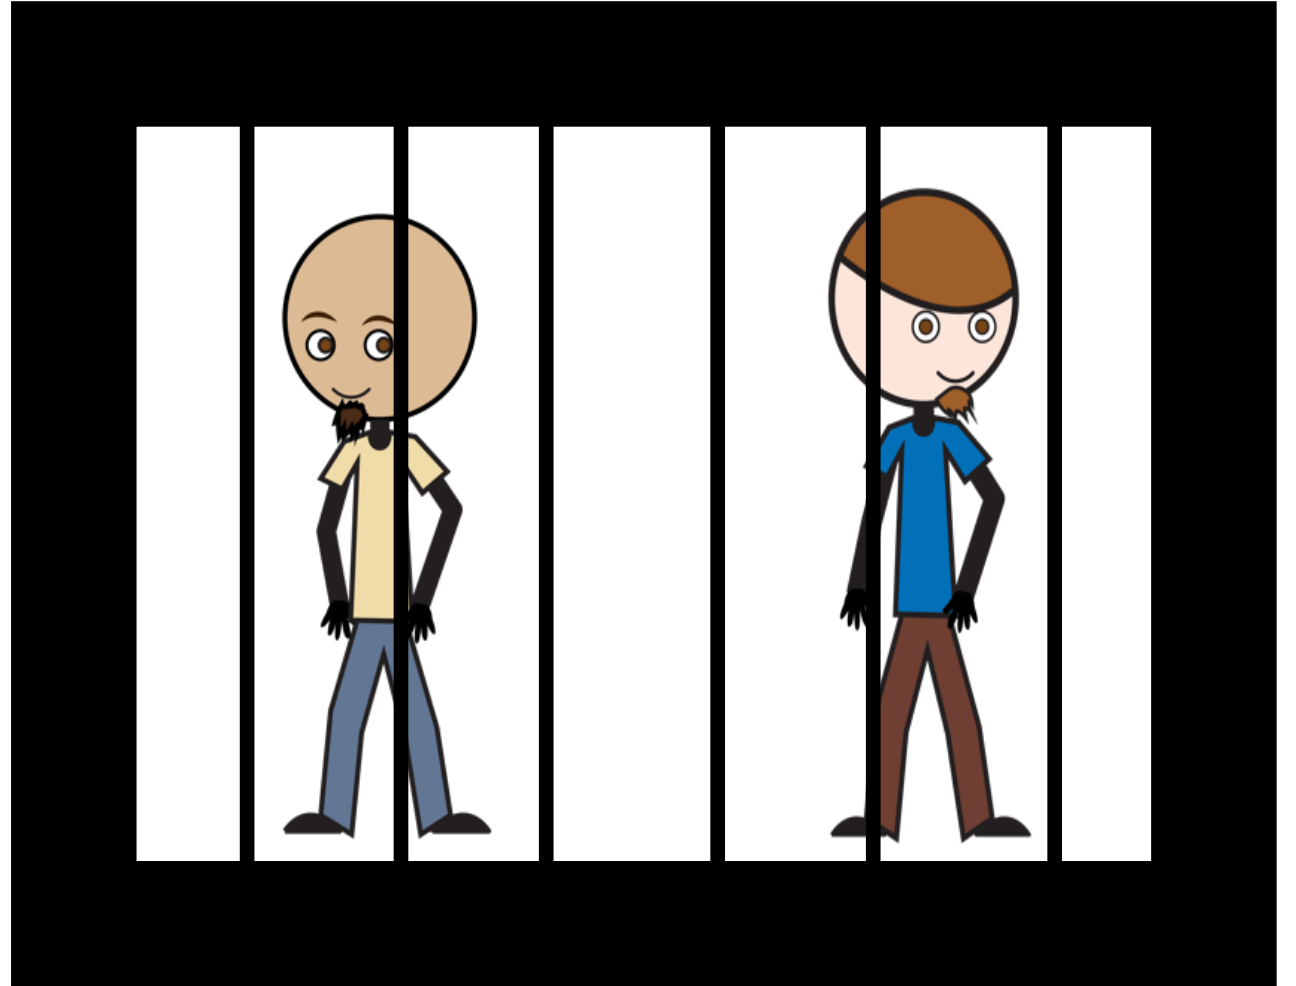

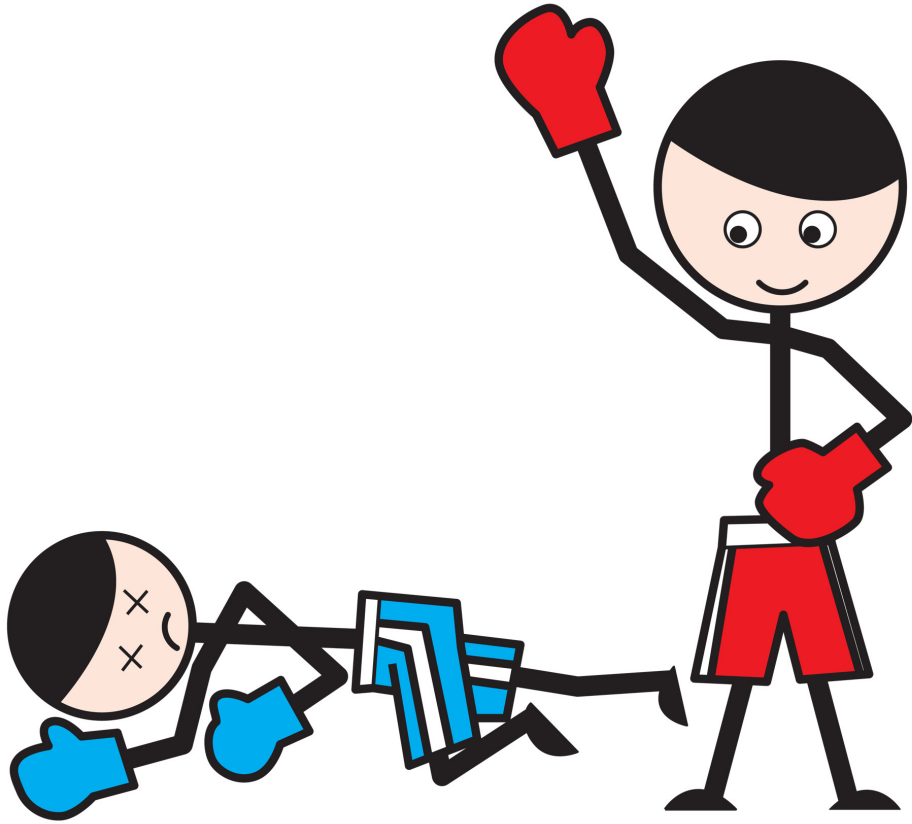

This week's Teaching Truth:
God helps us through hard things

Paul and his friend Silas were in the town of Philippi.
They were telling people about Jesus.

Some people in the city got angry with Paul and Silas.
They said Paul and Silas were breaking the law.

They beat up Paul and Silas and put them in jail.

Did Paul and Silas cry? Were they sad?
No! They sang songs to God!

At midnight, there was a big earthquake.
The jail broke open and their chains fell off.

The jailer was very frightened.
He thought Paul and Silas had escaped.

Paul and Silas told the frightened jailer the good news about Jesus.

The jailer and his whole family believed the good news about Jesus!

God helps us through hard things.
