

This week's story:
Zacchaeus

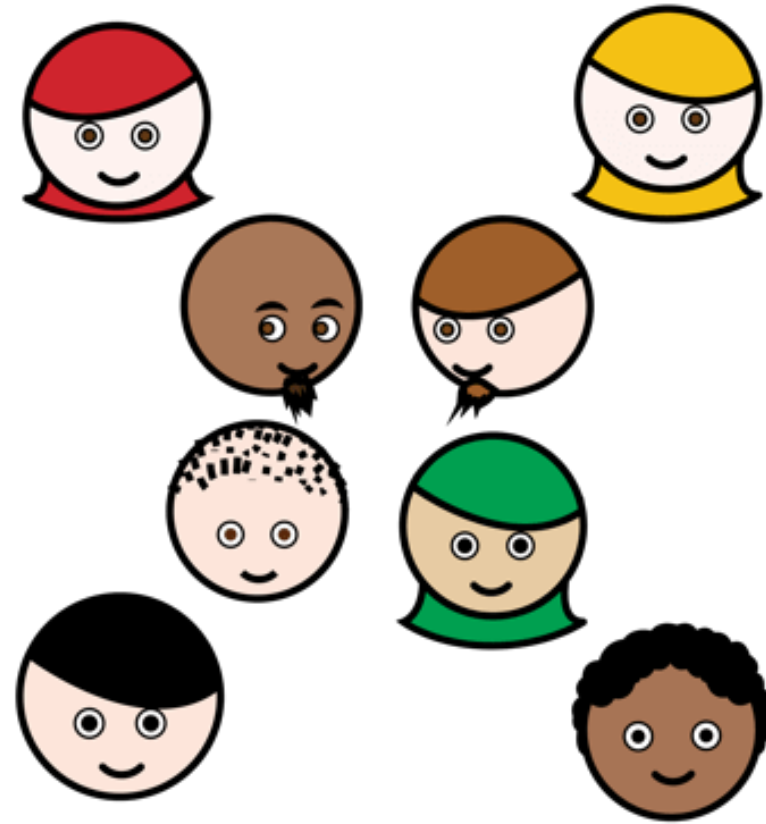

Teaching Truth:
Jesus came to seek and save the lost

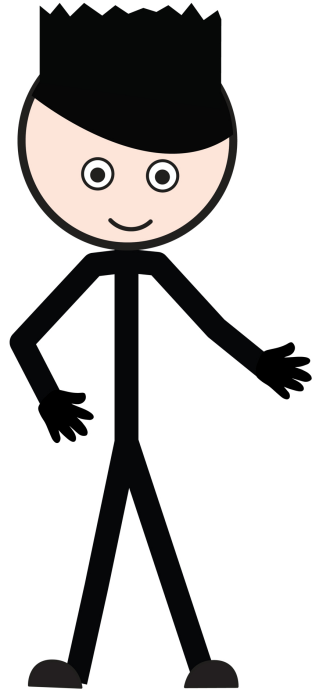

Zacchaeus was a very short man. No one liked him.

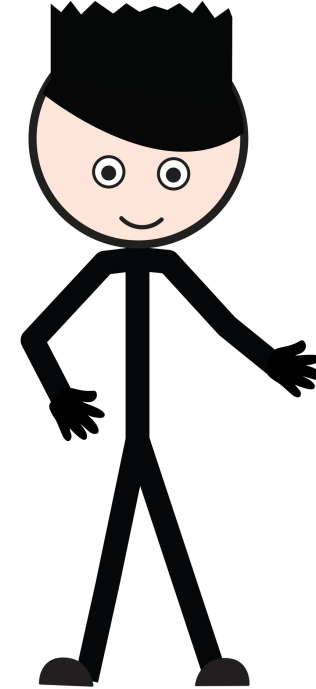

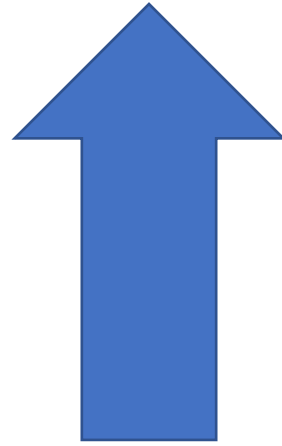

They did not like him because he stole their money.

Jesus came to town to teach.
Lots of people were surrounding Him.

Zacchaeus wanted to see Jesus, but he could not because he was too short. He climbed a tree so he could see.

Jesus looked up and saw Zacchaeus. Jesus told him to come down. Jesus was going to eat at his house.

Zacchaeus said he was sorry for his sin and gave the money back to the people.

Jesus came to seek and save the lost.
