

Hope
Having confidence in God's promises

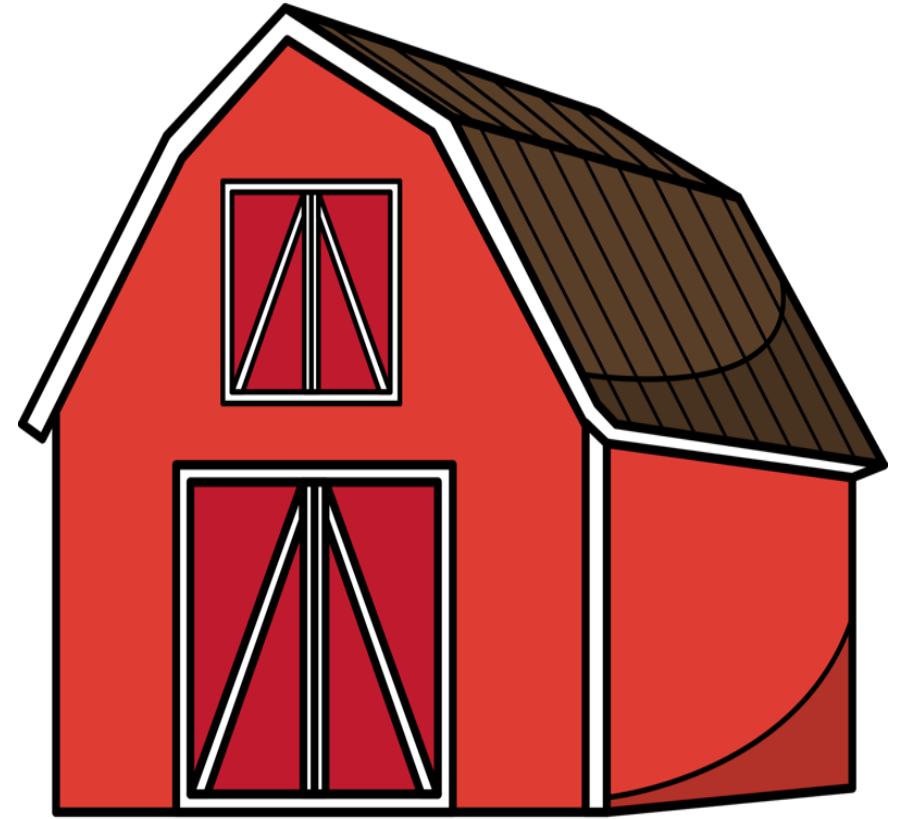

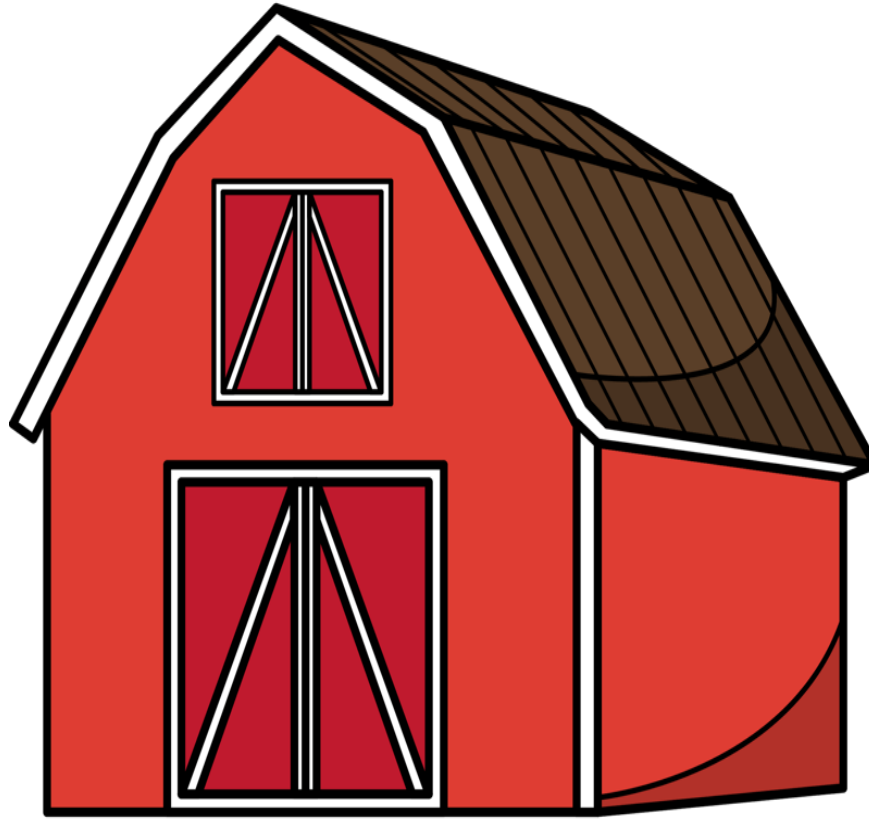

but

This week's Finish Line:
The world's promises are temporary,
but God's promises last forever

Two brothers were having an argument over something they both wanted. They wanted Jesus to fix it.
Jesus told them a story.

Once there was a very rich farmer.
His barns were completely filled with food.
He did not have room to put more food in.

He decided to build even bigger barns to hold everything.
He thought he could stop working and enjoy his stuff.

He thought he could eat and drink and have a big party for the rest of his life.

But God called him foolish. He died that night and could not take anything with him.

God has made some amazing promises about the future
that are so much better than things of this world.

Jesus is going to make the earth new.
There will be no more sadness or crying.

There will be no more sin or death.

God will live with His people forever.

but

The world's promises are temporary,
but God's promises last forever.