

This Week's Story:
God Chooses David as King

Teaching Truth:
God cares most about our hearts

Saul started out as a good king. But then he stopped listening to and obeying God.

This hurt God's heart and made Him sad.

God told Samuel to go to the town of Bethlehem to find a new king for His people.

Samuel went to the house of a man named Jesse.
He had seven good-looking sons.

God told Samuel none of them were the right one. Samuel was looking at the outside. God was looking at their hearts.

Jesse had one more son named David, but he was taking care of the sheep. God said he was the one.

Samuel poured oil on David's head a sign to show David was the one God chose to be king.

The Spirit of the Lord came to David and helped him as he waited to become king one day.

God cares most about our hearts.
