 - (d) for recording any written security arrangements (and details of any non-written security arrangements) between the Trading Participant and the DMA Authorised Person regarding access by the DMA Authorised Person to the computer or other devices connected to the Trading Participant's order entry systems, the location of that computer or other devices, and the method of dealing with, and identifying, such computers or other devices.
- 10.9.2. Each Trading Participant must ensure that it has a written agreement with each DMA Authorised Client setting out the terms of that client's access to the Trading System via DCOP. The agreement must provide that, subject to any applicable data protection and

- 13.8.1. Subject to Rule 13.8.1(a) or Rule 13.8.1(b), each Trading Participant that receives an instruction to acquire more than 10% of the issued capital of an Issuer in any class of Equity Security including options or any other class of security convertible into an Equity Security shall Bid in the market to purchase from other Trading Participants at least 20% of the total number of each class of Security sought. For the avoidance of doubt, the requirements of this Rule 13.8.1 shall apply to Crossings. This Rule 13.8.1 shall not apply where the Equity Securities to be acquired pursuant to the instruction are to be acquired only:
- (a) in single parcels of 5% or more of the relevant class of Equity Security from one or more substantial product holders (as defined in section 6 of the FMC Act) of the Equity Security; or
 - (b) in individual transactions from one or more Sellers of the relevant class of Equity Security for a consideration of $3,000,000 or more per transaction.
- 13.8.2. Security. For the avoidance of doubt, failure by the Trading Participant to provide more than one hour's notice to NZX to allow it to make an announcement to the market that the Special Order Facility is being used to facilitate acceptance processing will result in a delay to the stand in the market commencing. The stand in the market will not commence until such time as the market has been provided with one hour's notice of the intention of the Trading Participant to use the Special Order Facility.

- (f) if any post matching processing by NZX is required for a stand in the market, one Business Day's notice must be given to NZX of what is proposed under Rule 13.8.4(g)(v) to (vii). - (h) the agreement of NZX is required to the method of processing acceptances to be adopted and the form of advice to be given to the market for any use of the Special Order Facility.

 - (i) the bidder is an Issuer, it must be made fully aware of its obligations under Appendix 3 (if applicable) and Rule 3.1 of the Listing Rules; and
 - (ii) the stand relates to a code company (as defined in the Takeovers Code which is annexed to the Takeovers Regulation 2000), the bidder must be made aware of its obligations under the Takeovers Code (if any).

- (k) if NZX provides its consent to the use of the Special Order Facility in respect of a stand in the market and after receipt of a notice pursuant to Rule 13.8.4, NZX will establish a separate market for the Security in the Trading System. The opening time for that separate market for the Equity Security the subject of the stand in the market will be at the discretion of NZX. NZX will notify the market of the time the separate market for the stand in the market will open and whether there will be a Pre-Opening Session or an Anonymous Call Auction (whichever is appropriate for the market provided by NZX from time to time) for that Equity Security.
- (l) only that Trading Participant announcing the stand in the market may place a Bid in the separate market established for the Equity Security where the Special Order Facility is used.
- (m) the Bid to which the stand in the market relates must be maintained until the instruction is completed or until that Trading Participant announcing the stand notifies NZX in writing that the Bid is withdrawn.

- (p) variations to a stand in the market and other Bids which are stands in the market must be notified in writing to NZX immediately and must follow the procedures of this Rule 13.8.4.
- (q) only valid acceptances may be submitted to any Bid in the Special Order Facility. NZX will cancel any invalid Orders in post-matching processing.
- (r) the Special Order Facility may also be used for processing any significant Order to buy or sell Equity Securities on-market. Procedures for announcing and processing such an Order shall be as described in this Rule 13.8.4.
- (s) in addition to the requirements of this Rule 13.8.4, Trading Participants must comply with any directions issued from time to time by NZX for processing a stand in the market and at all times observe Good Broking Practice.

- 13.9.2. Where escalation clauses or other benefits are offered selectively in on-market or off-market Bids, that fact and details of the nature of the escalation or other benefit offered must be provided in writing immediately to NZX.
- 13.9.3. If a general escalation is paid to every Seller after sales of those Equity Securities at a lower price are reported, the buying Dealer or DMA Authorised Person or Adviser shall advise NZX of the higher price paid to those Sellers, including any transaction for which he or she is also the selling Dealer, DMA Authorised Person, or Adviser.
- 13.9.4. Where any transaction involves an escalation clause or any agreement to pay a fee or other consideration in addition to the reported sale price for specific Equity Securities, the buying Dealer, DMA Authorised Person, or Adviser shall provide in writing details of such escalation clause or agreement to NZX.

13.10. EX PERIODS FOR TRADING BEFORE RECORD DATE IN RESPECT OF CORPORATE ACTION

- 13.10.1. Where in accordance with the Listing Rules , the Issuer of a Security notifies NZX of a Record Date in relation to any corporate action (each, an “Entitlement”), such as:
 - (a) an entitlement to dividends, interest or capital returns; or
 - (b) bonus issues, rights issues, priorities and other entitlements,

NZX will quote the Security on an “ex” basis on the Business Day (referred to as the “ex date”) which is one Business Day before the Record Date, unless NZX determines a different date as the ex date and notifies that date to Trading Participants. For the avoidance of doubt, the security will be quoted “ex” on the “ex date” during the period to and including the Record Date. For example, if the Record Date is 5.00 p.m. on a Friday, then the relevant Security will be quoted “ex” from 8.00 a.m. on the Thursday preceding the Record Date until 5.00 p.m. on the Record Date.

- 13.10.2. Any Trading Participant who enters into a Trade as Buyer during the period beginning on the “ex date” ending at 5.00 pm on the Record Date will not be entitled to the Entitlement unless otherwise agreed.

- 15.11.2. Where Relevant Employee Communications cannot be recorded or are impracticable to record directly, such as face to face conversations, encrypted messaging or those that are undertaken on a mobile phone, a contemporaneous record must be made of the contents and time of the instructions or discussion relating to the Relevant Employee Communication, even if no Order eventuates. This must be in a retrievable form which can include written, video or audio form. This record must be retained for 6 months, unless it is an Order record. Where any issue arises in relation to that client Order during that 6 month period, the record must be kept for as long as the issue in relation to that client Order remains active and unresolved. This Rule 15.11.2 may not be used as a basis to avoid compliance with the mandatory recording requirement in Rule 15.11.1.
- 15.11.3. Each Client Advising Participant must establish policies and procedures regarding recording its client's instructions where voice recording is used, which must include policies and procedures regarding voice recording and behaviour in respect of the use of electronic communication and personal devices where there may be discussions regarding and taking client orders. The Compliance Manager of a Client Advising Participant is responsible for ensuring that such policies and procedures are put in place and are, to the best of the Compliance Manager's ability, adhered to by that Client Advising Participant's Employees.

- 15.11.9. The editing of voice recordings is prohibited in all circumstances.
- 15.11.10. Copies of voice recordings may only be made by the Compliance Manager or suitably trained and authorised staff on behalf of the Compliance Manager.
- 15.11.11. All non-mandatory voice recordings of Orders must be labelled and sorted accordingly and be retained by a Client Advising Participant for a period of 10 Business Days from the time of the client Order being submitted with the Client Advising Participant on the condition that if any issue arises in relation to that client Order during that 10 Business Day period the voice-recording must be kept for as long as the issue in relation to that client Order remains active and unresolved.
- 15.11.12. Where the Client Advising Participant wishes to rely on the voice recordings as all or part of the records required pursuant to Rule 15.12.2 or Rule 15.12.3, those voice-recordings must be retained for two years.

Where voice recording is used, the Client Advising Participant must include in its Client Agreement or terms of business an acknowledgement by the Client that the Participant may record telephone conversations between the Client and the Participant. This should include Order/deal tickets, written Order confirmations, copies of electronic instructions such as e-mail and the electronic Order record on the Client Advising Participant's in-house order entry system. In each case this audit trail is to include the information in Rule 15.12.2 or, in the case of Orders where the Client Advising Participant is Acting as Principal, 15.12.3.

15.12.5. Records of Orders must be uniquely numbered and retained for two years, whether or not the relevant Order was executed.

15.13. AUTHORISATION CODES

15.13.1. Subject to Rule 15.13.4, each client Authorisation Code held by each Client Advising Participant pursuant to the Rule 15.13 must be encrypted.

15.13.2. A client Authorisation Code held by a Client Advising Participant may only be stored by a Client Advising Participant on the condition that that Client Advising Participant enters into a written agreement with that client which authorises that Client Advising Participant to retain the client's encrypted Authorisation Code. The written agreement between that client and that Client Advising Participant pursuant to this Rule must:

Under no circumstance may a Client Advising Participant's internal systems automatically populate a client's Authorisation Code for subsequent sales unless that Authorisation Code is, and remains at all times, encrypted.

15.13.4. Any record of a client's Authorisation Code held by a Client Advising Participant, but not subject to an agreement pursuant to Rule 15.13.2 or encrypted, must be disposed of which may be done by deleting the Authorisation Code from the document on which it is recorded, such that the Authorisation Code is not legible, upon the completion of that client's transaction (which shall be when that client's Securities have been successfully transferred out of the name of that client and that client has been paid the monies owing to him or her as a result of the transfer of that client's Securities). If the Authorisation Code cannot be destroyed, a Client Advising Participant must establish appropriate internal procedures to prevent the unauthorised access or use of that client's Authorisation Code.

15.13.5. Where a Client Advising Participant is not a Trading Participant or a Clearing Participant, the requirements for the retention and storage of a client's Authorisation Code in these Rules may be satisfied by a client entering into a written agreement with a Client Advising Participant that provides for:

- 15.15.4. For the purposes of this Rule 15.15 an Order is placed for a Client Advising Participant itself or for a Prescribed Person if the Securities to be bought or sold are, or will be on the completion of part or all of that Order, beneficially owned by that Client Advising Participant, any person referred to in clause 15.15.3 or any Prescribed Person.
- 15.15.5. For the purposes of this Rule 15.15 Securities beneficially owned by a person include Securities which would appear as assets on the balance sheet or consolidated balance sheet of that person.
- 15.15.6. Nothing in this Rule 15.15 applies to an Order placed by a client, in their own right as a client of a Client Advising Participant, using DMA.
- 15.15.7. Any additional conditions under which this Rule 15.15 will not apply may be set out in a Guidance Note.

15.16. CONTRACT NOTES

- 15.16.1. Each transaction effected by a Client Advising Participant on behalf of its clients shall be evidenced by that Client Advising Participant making a written contract note available to the client in accordance with Rule 15.16.4 no later than the day following the completion of that client's instruction, if that client is a Wholesale Client, or no later than the day following that Client Advising Participant executing part or all of that client's instruction, if that client is a Retail Client, provided that the Client Advising Participant shall not be required to make contract notes available to a client where:

15.16.2. No Client Advising Participant may include in any contract note any matter inconsistent with these Rules or Good Broking Practise.

15.16.3. Each Client Advising Participant must disclose in all contract notes made available in respect of Trade who the Clearing Participant for that Trade is, irrespective of whether that Client Advising Participant is also an accredited Clearing Participant or not.

15.16.4. A contract note, or other transaction confirmation permitted under Rule 15.16(a), must be made available to a client:

- (a) by sending it by email to the client's email address as recorded in the Client Advising Participant's records;
- (b) by sending it by electronic means other than email (including facsimile transmission), to which the client has consented for this purpose;

Provided that, in each case, the information required to be disclosed in that contract note by these Rules is legibly contained in that contract note and the Client Advising Participant keeps a copy of each contract note, or other transaction confirmation permitted under Rule 15.16.1(a).

- 15.16.5. Notwithstanding Rule 15.16.4, any client may elect, by notice in writing to a Client Advising Participant, to receive contract notes by email or by post, in which case contract notes may only be made available to the client under Rule 15.16.4(a) or Rule 15.16.4(d) (respectively), until the client otherwise elects.
- 15.16.6. Each Client Advising Participant must disclose in a client's contract note:
- (a) whether the Client Advising Participant is paid or will be paid by both parties to a Trade;
 - (b) the full extent of any commission and margin charge; and
 - (c) any other benefit to that Client Advising Participant or its representatives arising from the transactions.

15.17. CLIENT PROTECTION

- 15.17.1. Where a Security holder who has sold Securities is given the right to apply for new Securities offered prior to the settlement of that sale, a Client Advising Participant acting for that client must take such lawful action as may be required by Good Broking Practice to protect the rights of the buyers in respect of the Securities so offered.
- 15.17.2. A Client Advising Participant must take such action as may be required by Good Broking Practice to protect the rights of buyers and sellers in respect of entitlements to dividends, interest, or capital distributions and in regard to settlement.

 - (ii) engaged a person as an Employee; or

- 21.1.4. NZX shall refer any such statement of case to NZ Markets Disciplinary Tribunal which shall hear the matter in accordance with the NZ Markets Disciplinary Tribunal Rules, which rules are hereby incorporated by reference into these Rules.

investing public or for such other reasons as may be considered to be relevant in the interests of the well-being and proper conduct of the markets provided by NZX.

- 21.5.2. Where a Market Participant is a Defaulter under this Rule 21.5, NZX shall notify all other Market Participants of that fact.
- 21.5.3. NZX may declare any Market Participant a Defaulter in accordance with the Rule 21.5, and may revoke or suspend that Market Participant's designation as a Market Participant for such time as it thinks fit.

- 21.7.1. If a Market Participant becomes aware that it or another Market Participant has breached, or is likely to breach any of its obligations under these Rules and that the breach or likely breach is significant, that Market Participant shall promptly notify NZX in writing of the circumstances of that breach or likely breach. Failure to notify NZX of such breach or likely breach is itself a breach of these Rules. Factors to be considered by a Market Participant when determining whether a breach, or likely breach, is significant include:
 - (a) the number or frequency of similar previous breaches;
 - (b) the impact of the breach or likely breach on the Market Participant's ability to comply with the Rules or to conduct its business:

- (b) have its trading permissions withdrawn (if applicable);
- (c) not be entitled to have access to any services provided to Market Participants by NZX; and 21.10.4. If an NZX Trading and Advising firm is an FSM Participant and an RMA Provider, then NZX may only suspend that Market Participant's designation as an NZX Trading and Advising Firm if NZX suspends that Market Participant's designation as an FSM Participant under Rule 22.13.

21.12.3. Any Market Participant that has had its designation as a Market Participant revoked by NZX under these Rules may apply in writing to NZX for that decision to be reversed. NZX will reasonably consider such a written request but is not obliged to reverse the decision. In the event that NZX decides not to reverse the decision, the Market Participant may then apply in writing for NZX to refer the matter to NZ Markets Disciplinary Tribunal and NZX shall refer any such decision to NZ Markets Disciplinary Tribunal.

21.13. EFFECT OF REVOCATION

21.13.1. For the purposes of any Rule which provides for revocation of a participant's designation as a Market Participant, revocation means that the entity concerned is no longer a Market Participant, and in particular that entity shall no longer be entitled to:

- (b) execute new transactions on the Trading System (if applicable);
- (c) have access to any services provided to it by NZX by virtue of its prior designation as a Market Participant; and

21.14. CONDITIONS FOR RE-DESIGNATION AS A MARKET PARTICIPANT

21.14.1. Any Market Participant that has its designation as a Market Participant revoked may subsequently apply for re-designation as a Market Participant under Rule 3.1.
