1.1. The NZ Markets Disciplinary Tribunal

1.1.1. The Tribunal is an independent disciplinary body charged with determining and providing remedies for referrals made to it by NZX or CHO, as the case may be, under:

6.4.5. The parties shall be provided an opportunity to respond to those Additional Compliance Issues in accordance with the procedures set out in these Rules, as though those Additional Compliance Issues were new matters before that Division.

6.7. Hearing and consideration procedures

6.7.1. A Hearing, whether considered on the documents submitted to the Tribunal in accordance with Rules 6.5.1 or by way of an Oral Hearing, shall:

Any such application must indicate why the evidence was not made available at the Hearing, or to NZX or CHO, as the case may be, in relation to an Infringement Notice, and what its relevance is to the issues in the Appeal;
- (f) if the Appellant believes that an Oral Hearing of the Appeal is essential given the issues raised by the Appeal, explain why and request an Oral Hearing;
- (g) state whether the Appellant believes the Division conducting the Appeal Hearing should order that any decision it makes not be published, or that publication should be delayed for a specified time period; and

7.3 Frivolous or meritless Appeals

7.3.1. On receiving a statement of appeal in accordance with Rules 7.2.1 and 7.2.2, the Chairperson must consider whether the Appeal is frivolous or without merit.

Any such application must indicate why the evidence was not made available at the Hearing, or to NZX or CHO, as the case may be, in relation to an Infringement Notice, and what its relevance is to the issues in the Appeal;
- (c) if the Appeal Respondent believes that an Oral Hearing of the Appeal is essential given the issues raised by the Appeal, explain why and request an Oral Hearing;

New evidence may be admitted on a provisional or a final basis.

- 7.5.4 The Chairperson or the Division hearing the Appeal may, of their own motion:
- (a) order either or both of the Appellant and the Appeal Respondent to provide further evidence at the Appeal Hearing (whether or not one of them has sought leave to adduce new evidence); and/or

7.6. Appeal Procedure

- 7.6.1. Rules 6.5.1 to 6.8 (inclusive) relating to Hearings apply, with any necessary modifications, to Appeal Hearings, except that:
- (a) Appeals under Rule 7.1.1 must be conducted as reviews and not as rehearings. Subject to Rule 7.6.1(c), the Division conducting an Appeal Hearing must hear and determine the Appeal based on the facts either as accepted by the Division that conducted the Hearing under appeal or as presented on the papers in the case of the Infringement Notice under appeal;
 - (b) a party may submit new evidence at an Appeal only (i) where leave to introduce that new evidence was sought in accordance with Rule 7.2.2\(e\) or 7.4.2\(b\) and has been granted under Rules 7.5.1 and 7.5.2 on either a provisional or a final basis or (ii) where there has been an order under Rule 7.5.4(a) that the evidence be provided;
 - (c) where new evidence is introduced at an Appeal Hearing, the Division considering the Appeal must assess that evidence and consider whether, and if so, how, it affects the determination of the Division, or of NZX or CHO, under appeal. If it considers that the new evidence materially affects the determination, the Division considering the Appeal must take that into account in determining the Appeal; and
 - (d) any member of the Tribunal who sat on the Division whose determination is under appeal will be ineligible to sit on the Division considering the Appeal.

7.7. Effect of Hearing determination

- 7.7.1. Pending the completion of an Appeal for a matter under this Rule 7, the determination of the Division that conducted the Hearing has full force and effect, except to the extent that the determination includes a suspension or revocation of a Participant's designation under Rule 9 or the suspension of the quotation of trading of an Issuer's Quoted Financial Products or a class of Quoted Financial Products under Rule 9.

7.8. Determination of Appeal

- 7.8.1. The Division conducting an Appeal Hearing may:

relevant NZX Markets Rules, the Clearing and Settlement Rules and/or the Depository Operating Rules, as the context requires.

7.8.2. The Division hearing and determining an Appeal against a determination made by NZX or CHO, as the case may be, in relation to an Infringement Notice may:

- 8.1.2. The proposed settlement must include sufficient information on the matter in order for the Tribunal to consider the proposed settlement.
- 8.1.3. If that Division of the Tribunal constituted to hear and determine the matter which is the subject of the settlement approves a proposed settlement under Rule 8.1.1 or any variation to that proposed settlement agreed between the parties to that matter, the terms of that approved settlement shall be the determination of that Division as if it was the determination of it as a hearing at first instance, except there is no right of appeal and the terms of the approved settlement have immediate effect.
- 8.1.4. The procedures set out in Rule 6, including the time for submitting documents and for consideration of documents or convening an oral hearing, shall not be affected by the parties to a matter entering into settlement negotiations under Rule 8.1.1.

8.2. Proposed Settlement confidential

- 8.2.1. If the Tribunal does not approve a proposed settlement:
