oneworld: facts and figures oneworld was launched by founding member airlines American Airlines, British Airways, Cathay Pacific and Qantas.

Today, the alliance has grown to 13 member airlines – plus one member elect and one oneworld connect partner oneworld also has 20 affiliate airlines mainly regional carriers linked to full members

Passengers connecting between oneworld airlines last year generated US$ 5.5 billion in 'interline revenue' - 5% of their total passenger revenues

$5.5 billion

oneworld member airlines operate a combined fleet of 3,300 aircraft oneworld member airlines serve some27.5 million bottles of wine a year with2.5 million bottles of Champagne airline lovalty

programmes

30 million

7 billion

Almost 7 billion customers have been carried since launch – equivalent to today's global population

More than 535 million customers boarded flights operated by oneworld member airlines last year

Almost 40 destinations and 20 countries, all in Africa, will be added to the oneworld map by latest member, Royal Air Maroc oneworld offers premium customers and frequent flyers more than 650 airport lounges around the world oneworld is the only global alliance to welcome the most frequent of flyers at First Class lounges and check-in desks oneworld memberairlines serve some1,000 destinations oneworld is the only global airline alliance that offers two completely different types of round-the-world fares – based on the number of continents visited or the distance flown. Or you can buy a ticket to fly round several continents without going all the way around the world

A oneworld flight takes off or lands on average every six seconds, 24/7 oneworld airlines operate almost 13,000

departures
every day

The oneworld team is made up of almost 360.000 airline professionals globally

Annually, 8 millionpassengers transferred between flights operated by oneworld member airlines

oneworld is the current holder of nine best alliance awardsthree times as many as its competitors combined