DEVELOPING A PROJECT/WORK OF VALUE

The internship experience is designed to grow understanding of skills and the chosen industry through workplace connections and experiences. To accomplish this, work completed during the internship must be of value to you and your employer, benefiting both in ways that consider and meet individual goals. This work is central to connecting your college and career goals to existing work and is developed to showcase internship learnings and professional growth.

FUTURE READY SKILLS ASSESSMENT

Interns are assessed using the Future Ready Skills Assessment. To ensure success, both you and the employer should be familiar with this assessment prior to beginning the internship experience. Developing this understanding helps guide skill application and development.
