

GRADE 9-12

ON-DEMAND WEBINAR

Economics 102: Opportunity Cost, Marginal Thinking, Cost-Benefit Analysis, Comparative Advantage

Time: 60 minutes,
Updated: January 28 2021,
Presenter: Amanda Stiglbauer
TEACHER VERSION

Objective

Teachers will be able to:

- Understand concepts of opportunity cost, marginal thinking, cost-benefit-analysis, and comparative advantage.
- Learn about activity based approaches, many using food, to teach opportunity cost, cost-benefit analysis, and comparative advantage.
- Learn best practices and share their best practices in teaching important economic concepts.

Standards

State Standards

Concepts

Benefits of Trade/Comparative Advantage, Comparative Advantage, Decision Making/Cost-Benefit Analysis, Opportunity Cost

This video is available to view for EconEdLink members only.

LOGIN OR REGISTER TO BE A MEMBER (It's Free!)

In this economics webinar, teachers will learn concepts on opportunity cost, marginal analysis, and comparative advantage.

Description

This webinar will focus on interactive, fun approaches to teaching opportunity cost, marginal analysis, and comparative advantage. Many of the activities presented build student interest and engagement by using food and other hands-on learning activities! Teachers will have the opportunity to discuss their favorite activities and best practices in teaching these important economic concepts.

Resources

- Presentation Slides
- Assessment Questions