

EXPLORING ORAL HEALTH COMPLETE UNIT

This unit can be added to existing curricula, such as PLTW, state health science coursework, NAF's current courses (Anatomy & Physiology 1, Anatomy & Physiology 2, and Global Health), and more. The anticipated time needed to deliver this unit is 16 class periods (50 minutes per period). There is an optional authentic learning project at the end of the unit that spans 4 additional periods. Educators can also infuse modules or lessons within the unit to incorporate Oral Health into their learning plans if existing curricula has omitted specific skills and topics within our unit. This is FREE for you to use!
