

BACK-TO-SCHOOL ALUMNI EVENTS

On-Campus Resources 101

Thursday, September 15th
5:00 PM EST

with NAF alumna Candace dePass '06, Director, Silas Craft Collegians Program at Howard Community College, and Dr. Emil Chuck, Director of Advising Services at the Health Professional Student Association. The goal of this session is to help college students learn about the myriad of resources available to them on their college/ university campuses and how they can tap into those resources from the first day of freshman year through graduation. Participants will learn how to connect with people in their campus community such as advisors, career services staff, faculty, the alumni office, etc. who can guide and support them throughout their higher education journey.

Career Services - It's Never Too Early to Go!

Thursday, September 22nd
5:00 PM EST

with Kim Plusch, Assistant Director, Office of Career Services at Wilmington University, and Dr. Candice Racite, Dean - Internship and Career Planning, at Rowan College. While many students think Career Services is just for later in college, getting involved earlier can be the key to accessing great opportunities and building connections. Participants will learn more about how to get the most out of the advising, programs, and resources Career Services offices provide.

Tips & Tricks for Landing a Top Internship

Thursday, September 29th
5:00 PM EST

with Traci Camba, Talent Acquisition at Verizon Wireless, and Sean Treccia, Director, Talent Acquisition at KPMG. College students know how important finding the right summer internship is for their future career. In this session, students will learn tips and tricks from HR/talent acquisition managers at major companies about how to do just that. From when to apply, to what you should and shouldn't have on your resume, all the way to reaching out post-interview, you won't want to miss this exclusive session for NAF alumni.
