

NATIONAL NURSES WEEK

May 6-12, 2022

National Nurses Week celebrates our Nurses: A Voice to Lead to focus on the need to invest in nursing and respect the rights of nurses to build resilient, high-quality health systems to meet the needs of individuals and communities, now and into the future. Nurses Week honors our nurses' strength, dedication, and perseverance in the healthcare field and commemorates Florence Nightingale's birth on May 12th.

LEARN MORE ABOUT THIS EXCITING CAREER AND HOW YOU CAN ELEVATE THE VOICE OF NURSES!

Use the Career Explorer Tool to research possible careers in nursing. Filter by the minimum salary and maximum education commitment to explore your career options, or simply scroll through the different careers to find one that interests you.

Send handwritten "Thank You" cards or banners to the nurses in your community or to individuals who have taken care of someone you love. Nurses need to know, now more than ever, that their work to maintain their communities' well-being is appreciated and valued. Check out this card template, or design your own card.

Subscribe to Nurse Thomas' YouTube Channel, Nurse Money Talk, to learn about nursing school, careers, and essential nursing skills.

Explore the 25 Best \(and Free!\) Nursing Apps to support you on your health career learning journey. As you each app, think about an app you could create to make a difference for aspiring nurses or nurse professionals.

Create a pitch to share your creative solutions and innovations for the nursing field. Nurse Pitch encourages showcasing innovations in medical devices, technology, process improvement, care delivery models, research, or educational interventions.