

Route du Cidre

Less than two hours from Dieppe port is Normandy's famous Cider Route. Follow our itinerary to make the most of the route which stretches over Normandy's picturesque Pays d'Auge and comprises of over twenty cider producers.

WHERE TO GO :

- Start your trip at Cambremer and drop into the local distillery to sample some regionally produced Calvados, an apple brandy.
- 10 minutes drive takes you to Grandouet where you can take a tour of the apple orchards and see how cider is made at Manoir de Grandouet, where they have been making cider since the 16th century.
- Stop in La Roque-Baignard, visit the 16th century church and sample some of its local cheeses, washed down with some crisp cider.
- Just 15 minutes away sits one of the most beautiful villages in France, Beuvron-en-Auge. Stroll the streets of half-timbered 17th century buildings and explore the central square which holds a weekly market every Saturday. Stop at a local creperie for lunch before setting off on the rest of the route.
- One of the largest cider producers in Normandy, Domaine Dupont, is located in Victot-Ponfol. Take a tour of their 74 acres of apple orchards and see how the sweet cider is made before heading into the village and visiting the 16th century Château de Victot.
- From one Château to another, Château du Breuil is one of the most prestigious Calvados distilleries in the region. Enjoy a tour and a tasting of the historic castle and its grounds while taking in the stunning architecture.

The Cider route is a great start to a tour of wider Normandy, with beautiful landscapes, cultures and traditions to explore.
